*Ex-dividend.

NEW YORK, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When the chairman's gong sounded at the close of business on the Stock Exchange today the brokers cheered for three minutes. So great was their enthusiasm and delight that the day had passed without a single failure and that all danger of a financial catastrophe was passed, that scores of them hugged each other or danced for joy. The strain of the day had been terrific, but the panic was over and healthy conditions had followed hysteria.

Gains of from ten to fifteen points had been scored in many of the stocks which had been slaughtered the day before. The public, long absent from Wall street, had rushed in to buy stocks, and the bears, defeated in every effort further to depress the market, had turned to cover short contracts and thereby contributed to the general rise.

On every side reassuring developments added to the returning confidence. Most of the brokerage houses sent out advices to their clients to buy stocks at the bargain counter levels prevailing; the banks, through their presidents and vice-presidents, gave testimony to the financial conditions prevailing, and many of the leading financiers, who seldom give expression to their views, actually went out of their way to put themselves on record in favor of more sane conditions and against the foolish sacrifice of stocks.

ROCKEFELLER BUYS STOCKS.

The feature of the day was a statement by William Rockefeller as follows:

"The present astonishing decline in the values of securities is as much a mystery to me as it can be to any one. I know that public confidence has been disturbed, but I do not think that it should have been in any such measure as to justify so great a fall in prices.

"With genuine overwhelming prosperity throughout the country there certainly seems no adequate reason for it. As for myself and my associates, our faith in the future of the country has not been shaken at all, and we have been buyers and not sellers throughout the past ten days. Throughout these troubles we have done and are doing all we can to restore and maintain public confidence. It is very clear to me that the people who are throwing away their securities at panic prices will sorely regret it within the next six months."

Thomas F. Ryan sent $1,000,000 to his brokers to buy stocks. Ryan, it is said, has not been a buyer of general investment stocks for over three years. H. H. Rogers and William Rockefeller bought stocks all day.

PANIC SUBSIDES.

Long before 9 o'clock Wall street began to prepare for a great activity. Few of the active figures in the market of the day before had had much sleep. Many of the clerks had worked almost the entire night. The clearinghouse force of the Stock Exchange had worked until a late hour clearing up the enormous transactions of Thursday. It was, therefore, a tired looking crowd of men that assembled in the various offices or took their places on the floor of the Stock Exchange in preparation for the scenes that were to be enacted there, and which there was widespread fear would be of epoch-making importance.

The public had fully expected another day of panic, and as soon as the galleries of the Stock Exchange were thrown open there was a wild rush for choice positions, where the slaughter could be observed. So great was the crowd that before 10 o'clock Secretary Ely ordered the doors closed. Hundreds of disappointed people were turned away.

STANDARD BUOYS MARKET.

When the chairman's gavel fell the excitement was almost as great as the opening of the day before, but the import of it was widely different. Instead of throwing over stocks by the thousands of shares, buying orders appeared in every part of the room, and values began to increase at the rate of almost $1,000,000 a minute.

The buying, it was generally believed, came from Standard Oil sources. Brokers that act for Henry H. Rogers and William Rockefeller, who attended the conference held at E. H. Harriman's office on the day preceding, were placing many of the larger buying orders. This led to a report, which is generally believed, that, as a result of that conference, it has been decided to give support to the market and to defend it hereafter from the depredations of the bears.

After the first half hour there was a rush to take profits and the market receded from the high points. The selling movement was largely the result of a story that E. H. Harriman had been the principal sufferer in the panic of the day and that he had been forced to sell 200,000 shares of Union

PRINCE O' WALES HEAVY LOSER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Prince of Wales, according to a Stock Exchange rumor, has lost heavily by the collapse of American and Canadian securities—so heavily, in fact, that he needs assistance to meet his differences.

It appears that he acted on the advice of an aged multimillionaire Canadian, who himself has been seriously hit. The difficulties of the Prince of Wales have caused subdued gratification among the King's set, especially as he had been so severely criticising the conduct of the latter in becoming involved in the Siberian mine fiasco.

It will take the Prince many years of rigid economy to liquidate his loss.

Terrible Fear of Dead and Deposed Leader's Tragic Anathema Causes Foe and Faithful, Alike, Extreme Uneasiness—Daughter of Elder Denius Latest to Die.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The dying prophecy of Dowie is hanging heavily over Zion. Since his death, twelve of the most bitter opponents have died, some of them in great agony. Today the death of Mrs. Burt Denius added to the overwhelming fear that grips the seemingly doomed city, and pales its energies.

Today an abscess appeared in his throat, and the people of Zion fear he will succumb to the wrath of the dead "First Apostle."

It must be admitted that Dowie, cold in death and weighted down by tons of granite in a tomb, guarded night and day, is the greatest power extant in Zion.

When Mrs. Denius died today, the faithful ones pointed out the peculiar coincidence. She was a daughter-in-law of Elder W. O. Denius, one of the most prominent churchmen. At the hour Dowie was being buried, he was conducting the marriage ceremony of Harold E. Markin and Miss Elizabeth Peckham. The faithful looked upon this act as smacking of sacrilege, and predicted disaster in Denius's family as a punishment.

The population of the city is constantly dwindling, families are moving away and general exodus is predicted when spring arrives. The fear of Dowie cannot be shaken off, and his followers are confident he will appear again.

EL PASO (Tex.) March 15.—So great has been the influx of Japanese through this port that hundreds have stopped in El Paso, readily securing employment as house servants, displacing Mexican help. The result is that the Mexican authorities have taken cognizance of the matter and propose action toward the abatement of Japanese immigration until the new amendment to the United States immigration law brings relief.

An immigration inspector stated tonight that every vessel from the continent and the Hawaiians islands arriving at Manzanillo brought from 500 to 1700 Japanese and Mexico had facilitated the entry into this country. He said it was not a matter of much surprise that the Mexicans should suffer.

Former President of Mining Congress Seeks Vengeance for Reports Sent Out.

DENVER (Colo.) March 15.—A special meeting of the executive committee of the American Mining Congress has been called to be held in Denver, March 20, 1907, to take action with reference to a damage suit threatened by Maj. E. L. Shafner, a former President of the organization, on account of an adverse report sent out by the information department of the mining congress, concerning the affairs of the Lake Shore Mining Company of Montana of which Maj. Shafner is president and general manager.

TREASURY THIEVES STEAL MORE MONEY.

Five Hundred Dollar Bill Disappeared from Vaults Over Night, Charges Bank—Employee With Dual Life Suspected of Robberies.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] New charges involving the Chicago subtreasury, which has been vainly trying to solve the loss of $173,000, were brought when a petition was filed in the United States Court this afternoon suing for the recovery of $500, said to be missing from a roll of mutilated silver currency containing $10,000, and belonging to the Commercial National Bank.

No less mystery attends the disappearance of the small amount than did that of the larger sum. It is declared in the petition that a sealed package, containing $10,000 in torn silver certificates, was sent to the subtreasury for redemption and that a receipt for it was given, subject to the count of the money by the officials there. The next day, it is declared the bank was notified that the package contained but $9500 in bills. A protest by the bank was made at once, but the subtreasury officials insisted that they were right and that the package, as it was delivered to them, was short $500.

A demand was then made upon the subtreasury for the full amount, but the only outcome of this was that the officials in the government building turned back to the bank what they claimed was the original bundle of money they had received. This was $500 short, according to the bank.

At the bank it was said that no mistake could be possible as the money had been counted by two persons before it left the institution, and both of them had fixed the amount at $10,000.

Besides this, it was said that the cash was divided up into twenty packages, each of which contained $500, and that when the bills were returned to the bank there were but nineteen packages. That other banks in Chicago have experienced shortages in a similar manner was the report circulated after the filing of the petition.

All other theories having been given up as useless in solving the theft of $173,000 from the subtreasury, Capt. Porter, of the secret service, announced today that the theory he is now working on is that an employé in the subtreasury is the victim of a dual nature of which he is ignorant, like Dr. Jekyll in the Stevenson story.

The employé who is the subject of this new inquiry, it is said, is subject to absent-mindedness.

FIRE, FLOOD AND RIOT RAGE IN PITTSBURGH.

As River Torrents Recede, Damage Is Estimated at Fifty Million Dollars—Ten Square Miles of Downtown District Inundated—Hundred Thousand Men Are Idle—People Marooned in Hotels.

A SUMMARY of the flood and fire damage in Pittsburgh and vicinity reveals alarming losses.

In Ohio and Pennsylvania some of the rivers are receding, but others have not yet risen to the flood-crest, though considerably above the danger mark, and are rapidly swelling as the ice gorge sweeps oceanward.

Scores of lives are believed to have been lost. Over twenty deaths from drowning already have been reported.

Loss in output of steel mills, $3,000,000.
Loss in output of other industries, $2,000,000.
Losses in wages of employés, $1,837,000.
Estimated damage to industrial plants, $2,700,000.
Total $9,337,000.

Various other damages are not included. Thirty large blast furnaces are out of commission. It is said here that the suspension will cause a scarcity of iron.

The power from the plants of the Allegheny Light Company was turned into the trolley wires tonight in an effort to maintain street-car service. As a result, Pittsburgh is in darkness.

FIRE GREATER MENACE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The waters are receding tonight from distressed Pittsburgh, and danger from the flood is now past, though another and perhaps graver danger threatened the city today and even yet menaces it. This danger is fire.

The water mains to certain portions of the city, have been broken, leaving these districts practically helpless in case of fire.

In one of these districts, Mount Washington, fire today ate up property worth $500,000 before it could be subdued. There was no water with which to fight the fire, and dynamite was finally called into play, buildings being blown up in the path of the fire, which threatened all that portion of the city.

There were twenty-six buildings destroyed before the fire could be checked. Several other smaller fires occurred elsewhere, and the fire department has not closed an eye for twenty-four hours.

DAMAGE IS VAST.

The damage done in the Greater Pittsburgh district by the floods will reach $50,000,000, including the loss in wages of 300,000 workmen.

It is certain that scores of lives have been lost. Coroner Armstrong has been unable to get communications from the outside world, owing to the lack of telephone service.

Greater Pittsburgh is tonight, and has been since last afternoon, practically without telephone, street cars, trains, drinking water, gas or electric lights.

SALOONLESS SECTIONS.

Some sections, too, are without saloons, owing to the high water.

Never was Pittsburgh in such a fearful predicament as now, nor has it been the fate of many other cities to be in a plight like that of Pittsburgh.

Absolute chaos has reigned throughout the city for the past twelve hours. Early this morning the street cars stopped entirely and traffic has not yet been resumed.

The city presents a dismal appearance. Every basement in the downtown district is filled with water. The sidewalks are piled high with perishable goods of every description, while in front of almost every building pumps are working in an endeavor to empty the basements, water covering every sidewalk to a depth of several inches.

RAILROADS TIED UP.

Every railroad entering Pittsburgh except the Pennsylvania, from the East, is out of business. The Pennsylvania lines west managed to run trains between here and Allegheny, but could get no further.

Street cars run by storage batteries, four on one line and two on another, were the sum total of cars operating between the east end and the downtown district today. People packed the cars, riding on the bumpers, the fenders and every other place where they could secure a foot or handhold.

After a car started, it never stopped until the end of the line was reached.

NOCTURNAL RIOTS.

When evening came, the wildest confusion reigned again. The Pittsburgh Railway Company had managed to run a few cars and there was almost a riot when one approached.

At the Union Depot the scenes were indescribable. Time after time the police charged the mob, driving the people back to prevent panics. It was almost useless.

Hundreds of women fainted, but fortunately there were no serious accidents. Finally the police adopted a plan by which one crowd was allowed to go into the dpot, then the doors were closed until they had secured trains.

Prospective passengers who went to the depot intending to take trains for the East were caught in the mob and missed their trains. The utmost confusion reigned in the depot, practically the only outlet to Allegheny and east end.

There were many reports of crimes. Scores of police and detectives patroled the business section of the city last night and today, and many exciting arrests were made.

About 2 o'clock a.m. Detective Brooke discovered a negro trying to force an entrance into a saloon in Ross street, and a desperate gun fight followed between the officer and the negro. The latter finally fell, with a bullet in his leg.

It is reported that five men were drowned while trying to cross the Ohio River at Sewickley. James Greenaway, a colored ferryman, started across with four strange men in the darkness in a yawl. None of the five have been heard of since.

Three men were rescued from what seemed certain death in the Allegheny River this afternoon.

They were on a raft among the ice cakes, and were caught with ropes thrown from a bridge at Sixteenth street. The trio were almost frozen.

At McKeesport six lives were lost today, in addition to the five lost yesterday, and it is feared that when the débris is cleared away there will be found many more.

RIVERS RISE IN BUCKEYE STATE.

DANGER IN MIAMI VALLEY IS NOW PAST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND (O.) March 15.—Flood conditions in the up-State section of Ohio were improved today by a fall in the big rivers and their tributaries.

The Muskingum River, which submerged parts of Zanesville, and other towns in that section, continues to fall, but there is considerable destitution among those driven from their homes by the flood.

At Springfield, Dayton, Hamilton and other points in the Miami Valley, the danger stage has been passed. While headwaters of the Ohio River are receding, streams at Point Pleasant, Portsmouth, Marietta, Parkersburg, and other points are now above the flood stage and will continue to rise tonight and tomorrow.

In Cincinnati the local rise has about disappeared.

Late today Marietta, Parkersburg, Point Pleasant, and Portsmouth were feeling the effects of the flood. Parkersburg and Marietta appeared to be the worst sufferers. At the former place the electric light plant was put out of commission and the city was in darkness.

At Marietta conditions were worse than in the flood of 1884. The rivers rose rapidly and did much damage.

EAST LIVERPOOL (O.) March 15.—The electric porcelain plant in the East End was destroyed by fire today. Loss $80,000. At Empire, below Wellsville, the Standard Brick Works burned this morning; loss $60,000. All business here is at a standstill. The river is higher than at the big flood of 1884. All the potteries have closed. The electric plant was flooded. The waterworks is out of commission. The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railway trains have been annulled.

HUMMEL'S TESTIMONY IS AT LAST ADMITTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—With Attorney Delmas fighting him every inch of the way, Dist.-Atty. Jerome today secured from Abraham Hummel his complete story as to the affidavit which it is alleged Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made in the lawyer's office in 1903, charging Harry K. Thaw with beating her when she had told him that the statement that Stanford White had drugged and ruined her was not true.

Delmas first objected broadly to all of Hummel's testimony, and later offered a specific objection to each question put by the prosecutor. Justice Fitzgerald overruled every objection and Delmas made notes of exceptions.

Evelyn Thaw was called to the stand in the effort of the defense to keep Hummel silent. She declared that she had called upon Hummel in his professional capacity and to seek his advice as a lawyer. Stanford White had taken her to the lawyer's office with that end in view.

Justice Fitzgerald declared that, admitting the proposition of counsel and client, Mrs. Thaw herself had waived the professional privilege by taking the stand early in the case and giving her version of what transpired at Hummel's office. The bond of secrecy once removed could not be reëstablished.

Unsuccessful in blocking Hummel's testimony, Attorney Delmas on cross-examining the witness, brought from his own lips the fact that he had been convicted in December, 1905, on a charge of conspiracy in the same courtroom in which Thaw is being tried. He further admitted that two indictments for subornation of perjury are pending against him, and that one of these indictments charges him with having caused a false affidavit to be made.

JEROME PROTESTS.

Then Delmas asked Hummel if he had not heard the speech made by Dist.-Atty. Jerome when sentence was about to be imposed, when Jerome urged the court to pass the longest and heaviest sentence within its power upon Hummel, as "he had been a menace to the community for twenty years." Justice Fitzgerald finally sustained an objection to this, and Hummel was not compelled to answer.

Delmas wanted to know if Hummel had any more recent business transactions with the District Attorney, and asked if Jerome was pressing the charges against him.

"He certainly is," said the witness, with spirit.

Hummel's testimony, in brief, was to the effect that Evelyn Nesbit told him, among other things, that Thaw had beaten her when she refused to sign papers he had prepared, charging Stanford White with her betrayal; that he had dictated a statement to a stenographer in the presence of Miss Nesbit and Stanford White; that he gave the affidavit to two of his clerks to take to Miss Nesbit in the Madison Square Garden tower, and that the next day the paper was returned to him with Evelyn Nesbit's signature attached.

He kept the affidavit until Miss Nesbit called one day and demanded it. He refused to give it to her, and turned it over to Stanford White, advising him to have a photographic copy made.

HUMMEL GETS MIXED.

Hummel first said he himself arranged for pohtographing the affidavit, and that the photographer came to his office. A few moments later, however, he completely contradicted himself on this point, saying he did not make the arrangements, that the photographer did not come to his office, and that he had not so testified. After Stanford White had the copy made, he returned the original of the affidavit, the photographic negatives and the prints made from the negatives to Hummel, who swore today that he subsequently delivered the original affidavit to Miss Nesbit, and has not seen it since.

Abraham Sneidecker, one of Hummel's clerks, was called, and said he took the affidavit to White's rooms in the tower and handed it to the woman pointed out to him as Miss Nesbit. She kept the affidavit for five minutes, and signed, saying she had read it through.

At the conclusion of this testimony Dist.-Atty. Jerome asked permission to introduce the carbon and photographic copy of the affidavit in evidence.

It was near the closing hour, and Delmas asked that an adjournment be taken before arguing as to the admissibility of the affidavit. He said that after reading the paper over he might not object to its being offered in evidence.

"Coming, as it does," he added, "in such questionable shape, we may not deem it best to have the paper go in evidence."

EXPERTS ALLOWED TO GO.

Dist.-Atty. Jerome completed his medical testimony in the morning. Attorney Delmas for the defense declining to cross-examine any of the experts.

Dr. Flint, who testified yesterday, was excused, and then five other alienists were called, one after another. Each said he was familiar with the hypothetical questions framed by the defense, and by the prosecution. Basing their opinions on these questions they all declared that Thaw, on the night he shot and killed Stanford White, knew the nature and quality of his act, and knew that the act was wrong. One question was put by Hartridge of the defense to Dr. William Mabon, the last of the experts.

"Do doctors often disagree as to the form of an man's insanity?" he asked.

Jerome's objection was overruled, and Dr. Mabon replied:

"They do."

Jerome announced that when the matter of the admissibility of the Hummel affidavit is disposed of, the prosecution will rest.

"The defense, however, will not," said Delmas, and he further intimated that more experts will be called by him in sur-rebuttal.

HOLD COURT AT BED.

While Mrs. Dora McDonald, still unable to leave her bed, occupied a cot in the county jail hospital today, court was convened in her room by Municipal Judge Newcomer and the preliminary hearing of her case on the charge of murdering Webster S. Guerin, continued until tomorrow. Mrs. McDonald, pale faced and showing the traces of the ordeal through which she has been passing, appeared not to take notice of what was passing or guess at its significance. She stared about mutely during the chief legal formalities and uttered no word. While her eyes followed the judge and the attorneys as they gathered about her bed, they expressed curiosity rather than apprehension.

She witnessed the changes of more than a half century in the history of the Hawaiian Islands.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—The United States Steel Corporation, according to its annual report, issued today, has passed through the most prosperous year in its history. The gross receipts were $894,753,925, an increase of $111,426,190.

After paying out nearly $150,000,000 in wages to 202,477 employés, and deducting the cost of manufacture, there was a total profit of $188,892,835 for the year. After deductions the net earnings are reported to be $156,626,373, the largest amount ever reported by the corporation. In all about $80,000,000 was appropriated for improvements, etc., an increase of more than $30,000,000, as compared with 1905. One lump sum of $50,000,000 is charged off to appropriations for construction and discharging of capital obligations. These deductions brought the final surplus down to $12,742,580, which is smaller by nearly $4,500,000 than in 1905.

The balance sheet discloses a total surplus of undivided profits of $97,720,717.

BAKERS STRIKE, VIENNA HUNGRY.

PEOPLE AWAKE TO FIND BREAD THROWN IN SNOW.

Employees Seek Higher Wages and Shorter Hours—Demands Are Refused, and Totemites Attack Delivery Wagons Containing Small Quantity Made by Employers' Families and Apprentices.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VIENNA, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The people of Vienna awoke this morning to find themselves without bread, 7000 bakers having struck suddenly last night for higher wages and shorter hours.

The master bakers were taken by surprise. A few, aided by members of their families and apprentices, managed to bake, but strikers held up the men making deliveries and threw the bread into the snow. Police patrolled the city all night, but most of the strikers had gone home.

Many hotels, restaurants and cafés are without bread, or have only a small supply. The public crowded the shops early this morning and speedily cleared out all old stock.

The market people are doing a large business in coarse, black bread, which is chiefly made in the country districts, and prices have been doubled.

Bakeries having large contracts have been obliged to yield to the strikers' demands, but the majority of the bakers are determined to hold out.

BRYAN GETS A DINNER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, March 15.—The Democratic State Committee today gave a dinner in honor of W. J. Bryan. Among the guests were George Fred Williams of Boston, who in a speech referred to Bryan as the acknowledged leader of the National Democratic party.

Speaking directly to Bryan he said: "I have no right, sir, to place you in the position of a candidate for office until you have authorized it, but I take no undue advantage of my position, and believe I represent the sentiment of the mass of the Democracy when I say that the success of our party rests upon your shoulders, whether you will have it or not.

"If President Roosevelt abides by his refusal to become a candidate, no Republican, unless he be more radical than the President, can prevent the election of William J. Bryan to the Presidency."

The dinner followed a reception at which about 200 Democrats were introduced to Bryan. Among them was former United States Senator R. F. Pettigrew, of South Dakota. An address by Bryan followed. Taking up the story that he wrote the Democratic platform of 1896, Bryan declared he wrote but little of it and deserved little of the credit, but he had more to do with the platform of 1900.

"I think," said Bryan, "that if we had had a vote unpurchased and unlimited in 1896, I would have been elected by an overwhelming majority."

GERMAN FEARS JAPAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, March 15.—Capt. Ignaz Rodic of the general staff of the Austro-Hungarian army has published a pamphlet entitled "The prospects of the future American-Japanese war."

After discussing the armies and navies and articles of war, he concludes by saying the United States offers excellent chances for the success of Japanese. He declared Japan is working feverishly to complete her navy, adding that during the last few months 50,000 men have been at work day and night in the arsenals turning out guns and small arms, and stating that the cartridge manufactories at Tokio, where about 20,000 men are employed, have turned out daily 500 rifles. Capt. Rodic also stated that the projectile works at Tokio make 600 shells per day for the field artillery.

ALASKANS BUILD ROAD.

MARTINEZ, March 15.—News reached here from Byron this morning to the effect that a syndicate of Alaskan mining men, backed by a capital of $3,000,000, will commence at once the construction of an air line electric railway from Stockton to Byron district and from the latter point feeders to the Brentwood district on the north and to Livermore on the southwest.

WANTS PRISON CELL.

Fight to Get Him a County Jail.

Surroundings Pall on Bootler.

Think Sheriff Will Be Best Landlord.

[DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—[Exclusive.] Abraham Ruef, indicted, occupied the attention of the Supreme Court this morning in the formal proceedings of getting into jail by the habeas-corpus route.

It was said by a cynical citizen that the whole prosecution of Ruef is a waste of money and that some one would hand the money to him at last he would cut his throat with it and thus save expense to the city and private contributors to the fund.

The pampered prisoner has left his luxurious surroundings at the Pioneer, and the specially prepared delicacies of the cuisine of that institution have palled on him, for he went to the County Jail, where his rations allowed is 25 cents per day, and his factotum, Morris Haas, is the landlord.

Ruef's counsel solicitude exhibited for Biggy for his charge to be with Ruef's desire to be in the most fare and prob-ably the freedom of the County Jail from the critical eye of Sheriff Langford.

The writ was laid by Lawyer Heney to show that Judge Dunne had no right to continue Biggy in charge of Sheriff after that official had withdrawn from his custody. Curt at the Treasure Island pending his trial, the Sheriff is the logical custodian, and not his lawful habitation. On the other hand, did not Heney admit the claim that the Sheriff is incorporate and possibly the Federal district attorney objected to the removal of Biggy to the Sheriff appointed by the Supreme Court, which has under advisement, may be raised question of the custody of the conspirators. In sending him to the County Jail in charge of the Sheriff, the petitioner of the writ complains, and at the hearing the defendant's counsel Judge Dunne when the trial.

Meanwhile the defense dwelt at length on the statute that it is the duty of the court to be "fair and impartially." Where producing of Biggy on each day of trial require any special promptness and impossible that even Sheriff Langford fast enough for District Attorney's office. Supposition on this point is that if Ruef should escape and hide again Biggy might not act to overtake him.

Twelve jurors were in court when seven justices took a recess to lunch a large audience. The contending counsel, represented by their legal lights Langdon, Johnson, Heney being in the line-up with Murphy, Ach, Metzger were on the bench.

Heney called "ex parte" and the usual preliminary. The return of Elisor Biggy, and showed, as Judge Dunne and Heney, in his custody by order of the court. A traverse of the petition for habeas corpus, setting that did not go to the merits of his health, but that his companion in office had resisted arrest, and was a fugitive from justice.

"Under the order continuing in force the order made by Judge Dunne on the 14th (Saturday) remanding the defendant to the custody of the Sheriff, and evidence on the subject of the statement was made, which followed that it would be necessary to call witnesses and re-argue the order, and that it would be a final judgment whether I drew it from the competency of the original Justice Murphy, "but there was no evidence disclosed that there was not a new Coun-sel."

Heney stated the question on which he desired to hear argument, and suggested Chief Justice Beatty:

"Is inquiry of the Sheriff in the law made no part of an elisor or Coroner was to be used only applicable to the statute, when it does not specifically that the Sheriff is not illustration of the power of appointment."

Heney: "Private county officers," and held that the statute should not apply. The appointment of a dangerous man."

Justice Beatty: "There was but one controversy, and that is whether the County Jail is a proper place for the Sheriff had no question of the court to appoint a common law, where-in jail.

Heney: "Suppose the prisoner had points for this."

Justice Beatty: "Then there was no one could keep him in Jail. The elisor keep him."

Heney: "If Heney was the elisor was permitted to take a man around with him as a slave.

"When I appoint a man to execute an order, his authority ceases when he executes that order," added the justice.

Heney cited a case in which the prisoner had been permitted to escape, and said that the action on the Sheriff's bond was not sufficient reparation.

Shortridge concluded the argument of the petitioner's counsel that he be sent to the County Jail. Shortridge said the law contemplated that during the detention of a prisoner on trial he should be privileged to see his friends, acquaintances, legal advisers, spiritual advisers and medical advisers. This has been denied Ruef at the St. Francis.

The case being submitted, Chief Justice Beatty said:

"The court will consider the point and in the meantime the petitioner will remain in the custody that he is in now."

FRUIT GROWERS AGREE.

WILL KEEP JAP WAGES DOWN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARYSVILLE, March 15.—Sutter county fruit growers, in an endeavor to control the Japanese labor problem, have entered into a compact not to pay such laborers more than 12½ cents an hour during the fruit season. Nearly all fruit growers in this locality have signed this agreement. They hope thus to at least partly solve the labor problem, as in former seasons the wages to Japanese have been run up during the busiest period to figures equal to those paid white laborers. Preference is given to white labor, but not sufficient can be obtained during the busiest season. No agreement was entered into regarding wages for white laborers.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) March 15.—The Legislature has passed a bill appropriating $20,000 for the purchase and equipment of a home for aged and indigent pioneers. It is understood that Arizona's first Capitol building, the Log House standing in Prescott, can and will be bought and preserved for this purpose, thus blending sentiment and practicability.

The Prison Commission, recently created by the Legislature, has filed a recommendation that the penitentiary be removed from Yuma to Florence, and the industrial or reform school from Benson to Solomonville.

A memorial to Congress, presented in the Council, expressing sympathy for Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone and asking Congress to investigate the manner of their removal from Colorado was tabled.

MUST SUPPORT CHILDREN.

HOLDS FATHER RESPONSIBLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—In a decision handed down by the Supreme Court today it was held that the parent of an adult offspring, when in a position to do so, is legally and morally responsible for the support of that child if the latter is physically unable to provide for itself.

The decision was rendered in the case of John A. and Roma Paxton, son and daughter, respectively, of Biltz Paxton, a banker of Santa Rosa.

The son and daughter have been invalids from infancy. The parents were divorced several years ago, and when the children attained their majority they sued the father for maintenance.

Judge Graham of the Superior Court, at the hearing of the case, gave an allowance of $50 a month, $10 for costs and $150 counsel fees.

POINTS DANGER OF EXPLOSIVES.

EXPERT SAYS JENA DISASTER SHOULD BE LESSON.

Explains That New Forms of Combustibles Are Extremely Sensitive to Chemical Changes Caused by Heat or Cold, and Must Be Guarded Carefully to Prevent Accidents.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Jena disaster at Toulon is seized upon by several German naval and military experts as an occasion to drive home the lesson that the newer forms of explosives now being used are extremely dangerous, requiring new and severer precautions in handling warships.

It is considered that the havoc wrought on the Jena probably was due, primarily, to the excessive susceptibility of the ammunition supply, whatever the immediate precipitating cause may have been.

"Powders wherewith nations are experimenting," said Count Reventlow, well-known naval authority, "are subject to chemical transformation, either as the result of heat and humidity, cold or other conditions. The immediate cause of the Jena disaster cannot be ascertained but the fact that the French, like the Americans, are experimenting freely with such powders, is significant.

"Recent accidents on American warships, resulting in premature explosion of gun charges, are traceable to the same cause."

FORMALLY DECLARE WAR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—State Department officials have despaired of peace negotiations in Central America in the near future because of the widespread war operations in Honduras and Nicaragua and the apparent indifference of the combatants to offers of assistance in a settlement through arbitration.

The gunboat Paducah is now on its way from Guantanamo, Cuba, to Bluefields, Nicaragua, where it will cooperate with the Marietta in protecting American interests.

The first definite announcement of the declaration of war by Nicaragua reached the State Department today through a dispatch from Ryder, the American Consul at San Juan del Norte, Nicaragua, which says that war was formally declared yesterday.

RAILROAD RECORD.

ROADS WANT SLOW TRAINS.

Traffic Managers Plan to Reduce Speed.

Say Moderate Time Will Avert Accidents.

Propose to Discontinue Non-Paying Branches.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 15.—Passenger traffic managers of all western lines met in the committee rooms of the Western Passenger Association yesterday to discuss plans to reduce the speed of passenger trains. Their conclusions will be presented to the officers of the operating departments and a definite plan for concerted action will be taken up at a future meeting. It is probable that some of the accommodation trains, which have been operated at a loss, will be discontinued.

The operating officials are a unit in the contention that the move is not so much an economic measure as one of safety. Lengthening of the time of passenger trains, they believe, will decrease the number of accidents, and also give the dispatchers increased facility in moving the trains on time.

A fine of 20 per cent. of the mail train earnings is imposed by the government for a delay of thirty minutes or more.

Under this rule, which went into effect on July 1, 1906, some of the roads operating fast mail trains are short about $5000 for fines imposed, some of which will be contested. It is believed a lengthening of the schedules will enable the roads to escape fines.

Another reason given for lengthening the time of trains carrying the mails is the new divisor ordered by the Postmaster-General. The Postmaster-General has ordered future computation of payment for carrying mails on the basis of seven days, instead of six. This, the railroads claim, is a hardship, as the government does not recognize services performed on Sunday, and while the mail weight will be computed on a basis of a total for seven days, the payment will be on a basis of six working days. It is probable the railroads will contest the ruling of the Postmaster-General, as the basis of computation heretofore has been six days.

BUILD NEW LINES.

PLAN BIG IMPROVEMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Thirteen new lines, representing an outlay of $53,810,000, will, it is said, be constructed this summer by the Southern Pacific, work to begin with settled weather. Five of the new roads, or nearly one-half of the tracks, will be laid in California; 775 miles will extend to Guadalajara, Mex.

This great total of new tracks does not include the electric railway system of forty-four miles it is constructing, at an outlay of $2,000,000, in Santa Clara county, nor does it include the 110 miles of road it is to build jointly with the Santa Fé, under the name of the Northwestern Pacific, North from Willits into Humboldt county, in order to give Eureka a rail outlet, at an estimated expense of $10,000,000.

The thirteen new lines will have a total mileage of 1512.

TIES UP TRAFFIC.

TRAINS ARE BLOCKADED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A freight blockade at San Bruno tied up the entire coast line system of the Southern Pacific for over an hour this morning and no train was able to enter or leave the city during that time. There were four freight trains entangled in the blockade, three being on the way to this city and the other was southbound.

The drawhead of one of the cars on an incoming train pulled out and the train broke in two. This blocked one track. The engine of another train broke down and stalled all traffic on the other track.

FORAKER PAYS FOR TESTIMONY.

DEFRAYS EXPENSES OF EVIDENCE IN NEGRO CASE.

He Sends Agent to Fort Sam Houston to Gather Facts Concerning Shooting Affair at Brownsville and Incident Causes Senatorial Chaffing of Champion of Colored Men.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—That Senator Foraker is gathering evidence at his own expense in defense of former negro soldiers who were discharged from the army for alleged complicity in the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Tex., was disclosed today in a sharp clash between members of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, which is investigating the Brownsville affray.

Senators Overman, Foster and Warner had pilled a number of witnesses with questions as to whom they had talked with before coming to Washington to testify. Those witnesses confessed that they had been interviewed by a man named Ferguson as to what they knew concerning the Brownsville affair, but none of them could say whether he was a white man or a negro, and disclaimed knowledge as to Ferguson's connection with the investigation. This form of questioning was pursued when Corporal John L. Rimmel, a cook of Co. M, Twenty-sixth Infantry, was recalled today for cross-examination.

During the inquiry Senator Foraker interrupted, saying: "Ferguson went down to Fort Sam Houston at my expense. I received an anonymous letter giving the names of several persons said to have information that might be of value in this inquiry, and I sent Ferguson to find out what they knew."

Senators Warner, Overman and Foster hastened to assure Senator Foraker that they had no criticism to offer of the course he had pursued, and explanation was made that since it had been indicated that the Constitutional League had secured affidavits from men which the same men denied upon being put upon the stand, the examination here was to determine whether Ferguson was a representative of that league.

Assurance was given by Senator Foraker that Ferguson had no connection with the Constitutional League, and Senator Overman said laughingly:

"Well, is he a nigger of a white man?"

"I don't know, I think he is a mulatto," replied Senator Foraker.

He then withdrew the remark for the reason, he said, that he was in doubt and did not want to give offense.

The incident was passed over after an exchange of compliments between Senator Foraker and the Senators taking the opposite side of the case.

Rummel's testimony and that of Frank Fischer, also a cook of Co. M, was to the effect that they had frequently heard citizens of Brownsville make remarks derogatory to the negro soldiers, after the order was issued to send them to Fort Brown. Former Private William J. Rappe of Co. M, Twenty-sixth Infantry, testified at length concerning the hearing of threats made by citizens that the negro soldiers would be run out of town and as to the alleged bad character of Brownsville.

An eye witness to many of the incidents connected with the affray at Brownsville, Tex., was put on the stand by Senator Foraker, and before he had concluded he had been cross-examined by nearly every member of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, which is conducting an investigation of the "shooting up" of Brownsville by members of the Twenty-fifth Infantry. He was Maceo Tommae, a Mexican carpenter of Brownsville, who also had the contract for the scavenger work at Fort Brown. He was working between the barracks and the walls separating the town from the reservation when the shooting began. Claiming to be entirely disinterested, and having no acquaintance with the negro soldiers, his evidence was the best defense of the negroes yet given in the pending investigation.

OFFICIALS IN CONTEMPT.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) March 15.—The House today adopted a resolution ordering the arrest of the Mayor and City Council of Nashville, and requiring that the members be brought before the bar of the House. The Council is charged with contempt, having recently adopted a resolution bitterly criticising Speaker Cunningham for a speech in which he is alleged to have said the Councilmen were controlled by a telephone company.

ROUTE IS PROVED.

Judge Sweeps Away Contention of Standard Oil Lawyers in Court.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, March 15.—The contentions of the attorneys for the Standard Oil Company, that the government, which is now prosecuting the company on indictments charging it with accepting rebates, had not proven the existence of the route by which it claimed the alleged shipments in violation of the law had been made, were today swept away by Judge Landis in the United States District Court.

The court declared the government had proven the existence of a route by the Chicago and Alton Railroad from Whiting, Ind., and Chappell, Ill., to St. Louis. He also declared that the omission of the name of Chappell, from the tariff sheet did not invalidate that tariff as applied to the Standard Oil case.

GETS SIX FARTHINGS DAMAGE.

LIMERICK, (Ireland) March 15.—In the action for libel brought by William O'Brien, member of Parliament for Cork, against the Freeman's Journal, in which O'Brien claimed $25,000 damages, the jury today rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, awarding him one farthing damages on each of the six counts.

LABOR.

BUSINESS AT A STANDSTILL.

Goldfield in Deadlock During Labor War.

Business Men Proclaim Era of American Liberty.

Denounce Foreigners Who Override Law and Order.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Additional to the deputies sworn in by the town constable and the county sheriff, there have arrived in Goldfield seventeen deputy United States marshals. The story to the effect that, at the request of Diamondfield Jack Davis, 1700 government troops are on the way to Goldfield from Reno, is absolutely without foundation. The miners of Tonopah, who are subject to the rule of the I.W.W., have telegraphed word to the Goldfield anarchists that they will stand pat with them and help them fight it out to a finish. Ninety per cent. of the Goldfield miners are anxious to divorce their union from the I.W.W., but they fail to see how to do so without losing their Western Federation cards and they dread being dubbed scabs.

The Western Federation is abjectly under the I.W.W. yoke. Practically all the mines and all the business houses have been closed all day and will remain closed until their employés renounce allegiance to the I.W.W.

Some mines and some business houses whose employés hold no fealty to the I.W.W. were open all day.

WAIVES EXAMINATION.

Attorney Hangs representing Preston, the slayer of John Silva, and Joe Smith, the walking delegate of the I.W.W., charged before Judge Solomon with assault upon one of Silva's waiters, with intent to kill, today in behalf of his clients waived preliminary examination before this court. The case will therefore go to the grand jury for its consideration.

Agitators for the I.W.W. made a desperate attempt to embroil the miners of the Bullfrog district in their quarrel and met with signal defeat. Last Monday night, next day after the murder by I.W.W. representatives, of Silva, the restaurant man, the Bullfrog miners met and expressed themselves as unalterably opposed to such methods.

BULLFROG REPUDIATES I.W.W.

The agitators attempted to induce them to call a strike and failed. The feeling in the Bullfrog district, among both the miners and the mine owners, is bitter against the anarchists who have incited the discord, and the murder in Goldfields.

Taylor and Griffiths, brokers of Bullfrog, in long-distance 'phone connection with W. F. Bond & Co., Goldfield brokers, said: "Down this way the miners are sore at the Goldfield miners for allowing themselves to be led around by the nose by a pack of alien anarchists, and the mine owners are sore at you fellows for allowing yourselves so long to remain subject to the demands of the Socialist loafers. Here the hashers and foreigners dance to the music of the miners. In Goldfield they apparently play the fiddle."

The sentiment of the decent element of Goldfield is expressed in the following editorial, which appeared in this evening's issue of the Goldfield Chronicle:

STATES CITIZEN'S CASE.

"The citizens of Goldfield have banded together to settle once and for all whether the mining district of Goldfield shall reap its glorious promise, or whether a lawless element shall dominate the destinies of the city for all time. The men present at the Montezuma Club last night, and who participated in the deliberations, are men of worth and weight in the community. They have struggled through adversity to make Goldfield what she deserves to be, and their reward is threats of assassination. They have been told that they will be killed because they would not be coerced into submission by a lawless crowd that determined to run things in its own way.

"This is not a fight against organized labor. If it were, the Chronicle would denounce it without fear or favor of those backing it. It is not a fight against a majority of the members of the Western Federation of Miners, who are worthy citizens and workers, and whose arduous labor produces the wealth of this great country. But it is a struggle for the maintenance of law and order. On the one side are the lawful, on the other the lawless. There is no middle ground. There can be none. One is either for the citizenry or against. The Chronicle is for, come what may.

RECOGNIZES PERSONAL WORTH.

"The Chronicle does not believe that every man who carries a card issued by the Industrial Workers of the World is opposed to law and order. The Chronicle knows that this is not true. But all the world that cares to know is aware that a class of citizens who are members of other industrial organizations than the Industrial Workers of the World have been threatened unless they adopted the principles of that organization. To this they are opposed. Every American citizen is opposed to such methods.

"The Chronicle hopes that the dispute will be settled peaceably. It is sure that it will be so far as the citizens and miners of Goldfield are concerned. If there is any attempted violence it will be chargeable to a few lawless agitators. In the end right will prevail.

"The Chronicle is sure that Constable Claud Inman and Sheriff Ingalls will preserve order. They are men who make it their duty and they will perform it."

Today the Executive Committee of the Goldfield Business Men's and Mine Operators' Association issued the following statement:

OPPOSES DEPORTATIONS.

"Resolved, that the Goldfield Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association is unalterably opposed to any and all acts of violence and to any deportation of, anybody and that it will use its utmost efforts to punish any one committing the same."

John Wellington Finch, general manager of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines Company, the $50,000,000 merger controlled by Senator Nixon and George Wingfield, requested the publication of the following:

"It has been generally circulated by some among the members of the Industrial Workers of the World that I have made a statement to the effect that on account of stock market considerations it is necessary to bring the present labor controversy to an end at any cost and that mine operators will use their influence to urge the carpenters and other independent organizations to affiliate themselves with the I.W.W. Such a rumor is absolutely false in every particular and can only serve to delay an amicable and satisfactory adjustment of present difficulties by arousing false confidence in the minds of an organization to which mine operators must be unalterably opposed. You will therefore do me a great favor by publishing this statement and thereby correcting a false impression."

IT IS UNION FIGHT.

Milton M. Detch, president of the Goldfield Chamber of Commerce, and speaking for that organization, said: "The labor difficulties in Goldfield are not between employer and employé, but between the recently organized Industrial Workers of the World and the American Federation of Labor. No wage question is involved. Representatives of the former have demanded that the latter join the I.W.W. or be declared unfair.

"If they did so the members of the American Federation would become scabs against their organization and would be unable to secure employment elsewhere, where the I.W.W. are not recognized.

"The Western Federation of Miners has become affiliated with the I.W.W. The I.W.W. are much stronger numerically than the Union Federation of Miners, according to the election recently held, when only one or two Union miners were elected to positions of trust in the order. There is presented the unusual spectacle of the president of the Western Federation of Miners being a bartender and the business agent an ex-waiter. While the fight is primarily between the two labor organizations, American independence and American manhood are involved. The business interests of the camp are aligned with those of the miners, also in the same category are the other labor organizations which are not allied with the I.W.W. I predict that there will be such a settlement of the situation in Goldfield as will convince the people of the United States that American manhood exists here and that it does not fear to assert itself."

THREATENS BIG LOCKOUT.

LUMBER WAR IMPENDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Five thousand workmen in the building trades unions, including skilled and unskilled men, will be locked out, and the biggest lumber war in the history of the city will begin next Monday, unless there is a speedy agreement concerning wages between the Master Builders' Association and the Building Trades Assembly. Notice to this effect was served today on the workingmen.

The association represents twenty-eight firms of leading builders. The lumber unions have demanded $3 a day to common laborers, such as concrete mixers and others employed in cleaning up about buildings, and the builders have refused more than the present rate of $2.50.

Learning that the Building Trades Council had called off union carpenters from a Jenkins & Stone job, members of the association, where the increased wage demands had been refused, the association ordered them back or declared that all work would be suspended Monday.

FRITZI SCHEFF ILL IN GOTHAM.

COMIC OPERA STAR IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—Fritzi Scheff, the comic opera star, who is ill of peritonitis at her apartments in the St. Regis, is yet in a critical condition.

The physicians attending her held a consultation as to the advisability of operating. Dr. Gerster, the consulting specialist, when questioned as to this, said that the doctors had agreed to give no more personal interviews on the case and had issued a formal statement for publication.

The bulletin issued for publication by the physicians is to the effect that Miss Scheff is still seriously ill but under the circumstances "doing very well."

FIGHT FIRE WITH DYNAMITE.

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—In a fire that threatened the entire Mt. Washington section of the city, twenty-five business structures and dwellings were destroyed or damaged today, causing a loss estimated at $200,000. Many of the dwellings were tenements or apartment houses, and there were many narrow escapes. Two unsuccessful attempts were made to stop the flames by the use of dynamite.

STOCKS GO UP.

According to this story, which was also widely circulated on Thursday, but which was denied today, Harriman had a serious difference with Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and that banking house had sold out large holdings of Union Pacific which they had been carrying for Mr. Harriman's account.

Harriman again today made a positive denial. He was just leaving his office to attend a meeting, and was in the best of spirits. As he rushed away he said with a smile:

At Morgan's office the story is denied.

Throughout the afternoon the market moved irregularly, but with an advancing tendency, and at the close prices were from ten to fifteen points above the close of the day preceding. It was then that the brokers cheered lustily, for they realized that the bear campaign was now at an end and Wall street was once more entering a period of security and hopefulness.

READING LEADS ADVANCE.

Reading led the market with a rise of eleven points. Amalgamated Copper and Union Pacific also were buoyantly strong and with Reading led practically the whole list in a sharp upward movement. There were the usual reactions, but the tone held relatively strong. It was known in the market that the bankers had reached their offices early and a careful investigation of the situation did not reveal any result of anxiety as to the solvency of any banking or brokerage house. This knowledge had much effect on the market, and together with the announcement of government relief for the money market gave the traders confidence that the situation threatened no grave danger and that the money market would be able to care for all immediate retirements. The trading continued active with the general tone firm throughout even the 15-per-cent money rate being of little effect.

All through the day there was heavy buying by "bargain hunters," for investment, and their purchases were heavy enough to strengthen the market each time that prices weakened. Hundreds of thousands of shares are believed to have been taken by these purchasers.

JACOB SCHIFF IS OPTIMISTIC.

SEES FUTURE GOOD IN WALL STREET FLURRY.

Declares President Has Rendered Great Service to Corporations as Well as to the Public—Lesson Will Be Valuable to "Trust" Managers. Railroads and People Brought Near.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

AUGUSTA (Ga.) March 15.—Jacob H. Schiff of New York is at a hotel near Aiken, S. C., and said today concerning yesterday's Wall street panic:

"The prompt and clear action of Secretary Cortelyou saved the day. I have strong hopes that much good will result."

In reference to the present railroad situation he said:

"The railroads and people will be brought nearer together. The welfare of one is indissolubly connected with the success of the other. President Roosevelt did not bring about the muddle; he simply recognized earlier than most others whither we are drifting. By the wise course he has taken he has rendered a great service to the people and to the corporations themselves. The lesson will be valuable to the corporation managers in the future."

RAILWAY CHIEFS ABANDON VISIT.

CONFERENCE WITH PRESIDENT CONSIDERED IDLE.

Some of Them Are Presidents Personal Friends and Know His Views. Ryan Suggests That All Business Interests Follow the Spirit of Morgan's Mission to White House.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—Messrs. McCrea, Mellen, Hughitt and Newman, the four railroad presidents for whose visit to the White House J. P. Morgan arranged before his departure for Europe, held a conference here today. The whole situation was canvassed with great care and it was finally decided not to go to Washington. It is understood the reason for the conclusion was that the railroads did not feel they had any proper mandate on the railroad corporations to represent them. They felt they could not assume the position of a self-constituted commission to formulate or present the views of the hundreds of railroad companies which in turn are owned by thousands of shareholders. They recognized that the railroad managers of the United States are not themselves in perfect accord, and until some method could be adopted for securing a concensus of opinion, a visit to the President would be idle. At the conclusion of the conference, the four presidents left for their homes.

Thomas F. Ryan, when asked his opinion about the proposed meeting of the President and the heads of the great railroads, said:

"I believe that if Morgan's visit to the President is followed up as it should be by all of our great business interests it will do much good. I also believe that the President's attitude toward corporations is much misunderstood by the general public. It is unfair to assume that it is his desire to hamper the business interests of the country. I am, however, convinced that he purposes to enforce the laws as he finds them upon the statute books and I think the sooner the business interests of the country conclude to go to work to aid the President in solving the different problems that confront him every day, the sooner confidence will be restored and the business of the country move on without interruption. So far as general business is concerned, the only fault to be found with it is that it is too strong."

WASHINGTON HAS NO WORD.

MAGNATES SCORN CLEMENCY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—At a late hour tonight President Roosevelt had received no word from the four presidents who were suggested by J. P. Morgan on the eve of his departure for Europe as conferees to discuss with the President the railroad situation and to urge some action to "allay public anxiety" as to the administration's ideas on the subject.

The embarrassment in which the railroad magnates have been placed is due to the fact that Morgan arranged the conference with the President without consulting the officials with whom he asked the audience. It is known that within the last few days, President McCrea of the Pennsylvania communicated with the President and made clear that while he did not want to show any discourtesy, he did not want to be placed in the attitude of coming to the White House to make a plea for executive clemency.

"The President's policies have been so clearly outlined in his messages and his public addresses," said a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission today, "that it is possible the railroad presidents have decided that their visit to the White House will be useless." President Hughitt, one of Mr. Roosevelt's personal friends, has on several occasions discussed the railroad situation with the President and he knows that the administration has no desire to punish the 'good railroad corporations' simply because the 'bad railroad corporations' refuse to abide by the laws regulating the common carriers."

Gov. Dineen and Atty.-Gen. Stead of Illinois, who were invited to Washington by the President, arrived tonight and will call at the White House tomorrow. While Governor Dineen refuses to discuss the object of his conference with the President, it can be stated on good authority that the Chicago and Alton deal and other disclosures brought out at the recent Harriman investigation will be discussed and the situation in general will be gone over.

HARRIMAN OUT, ASSERTS PRESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the innermost sanctuaries of the great bankers, the private rooms of the trusted operators who act for them in the stock market and the secluded consultation offices of the legal geniuses who show them how to do things that will pass the scrutiny of the courts, there were tensely whispered rumors today that Harriman had lost, or would lose, control of the Union Pacific, the Central Pacific, the Southern Pacific—the whole Union Pacific system—together with Reading and all his other seizures of high finance, that J. P. Morgan was the instrument of the Harriman overthrow, thus becoming the railroad Napoleon, and that the whole result was due to the President of the United States.

Some weeks ago J. P. Morgan, representing the alarm of the railroad heads and their banking affiliations, sent an emissary to the White House to find out if the President were implacably hostile to the railroads of the country as such, or if he were disposed to differentiate between the good managements and the bad.

PRESIDENT DEFINES INTENT.

The President's return message was that he was not making war on railroads as industrial institutions, that he was fighting only the railroads which persistently and brazenly broke the law and that he would pursue law breakers to the last ditch.

On the understanding that the President was not unappeasably in conflict with all the railroads, but only with those that defied the authority of the government, Morgan then requested a personal interview. At this meeting he assured the President that the wiser presidents of roads were sensible of the fact that they were the creatures, not the masters, of the government. He declared that they were willing to show that they were amenable to reason and would be glad to come to an understanding by which they could seek to satisfy the President and the country of their purpose to obey the law and fulfill other conditions of good citizens.

President Roosevelt also said that this was not enough.

DEMANDS HARRIMAN'S END.

"What is the matter, then?" asked Morgan.

"Harriman," answered the President grimly. "He has no conception of what is lawful and what is unlawful. He has a lawless nature. He has no moral sense. He is a menace to this country. He is a disgrace to the institutions of railways. He is a stigma upon those railway men and bankers who tolerate and condone and help him. Harriman does not know how to come within the law. He has got to go. The government proposes to follow him up and expose his dealings and practices against public morality and business decency until it will be impossible for him to stand up longer against the storm of public opinion that will overwhelm him."

Morgan warned the President that a continuation of the onslaught that was being made against the railroads would destroy their market values, cause a panic and perhaps bring ruin on the whole country. The President replied that he had no such fear for the safety of the country merely through assuring it of its rights and protecting the interests of its people. That there might be a stock market panic, that the values of railroad securities might be impaired he admitted, but that could not alter his determination to do his duty.

ACCEPT ULTIMATUM.

If the banks and the railways were afraid of a panic it was for them so to conduct themselves and to compel their criminal associates to conduct themselves that there would be no occasion for Federal action that would threaten a panic. He was going on with his work of stopping such acts as Harriman was committing. If the financial powers thought more of Harrimanism than of anything else, all right, they could have their values destroyed, if need be, but the administration programme would go on.

Other consultations were had with the President, and it was promised that in lieu of unrelenting war on the railway situation his alternative of getting rid of Harriman would be accepted. He was informed that the bankers and railroad interests that had undertaken to wrest control of Harriman's railroads would be compelled to smash the market for Harriman securities.

WAR DEPARTMENT MAKES PLAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Letters have been sent by Assistant Secretary Oliver of the War Department to the governors of all seaboard States, asking their coöperation in the development of the War Department's plan for the training of a coast guard through the operation of organized militia in connection with the regulars assigned to coast artillery service. The State troops to have each year from seven to ten days of training at an artillery post under the direction of the regulars. The chief of artillery also suggests designation of certain State troops to protect the land side of the coast artillery posts, which plan entails no additional expense upon the States.

FLOES OF ICE POUND PIERS.

PITTSBURGH SUFFERS AND MANY ARE MAROONED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—Rushing down the Allegheny River on the flood torrent at a speed estimated at fifteen to twenty miles an hour, hundreds of thousands of tons of ice, ranging from four to six feet thick, are pounding the piers of the bridges connecting Pittsburgh with Allegheny, all last night threatened destriction to these connecting links of Greater Pittsburgh.

The ice comes from the twenty-five-mile gorge that has been forming all winter at the headwaters of the Allegheny and which broke last night. With over half of the two cities under water the ice has almost wrecked the bridges at Sixteenth and Ninth streets. The nearest that these points could be approached was 500 feet. The huge bergs crunch and grind against the obstacles encountered, and the creaking of the bridges and piers under the added pressure was plainly audible for a long distance.

In a few minutes today the situation became so critical that observers were forced to leave their positions.

Pittsburghers were amazed today at the immensity of the flood in the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers, which has submerged ten square miles in the downtown section of the city. After reaching the highest stage ever known, thirty-seven feet, the water slowly receded. Enormous damage has been caused; over 100,000 persons have been temporarily thrown out of employment; every transportation company in the city is crippled; skiffs are carrying hundreds of people to their places of business and the utilization of wagons and horses as conveyances, which did valuable service yesterday, were almost discontinued today, owing to the strenuous protests by the humane society.

Twenty fatalities have occurred in Allegheny county, directly due to the high water. The massive bridges at Sixteenth, Nineteenth, Seventh and Sixth streets are threatened with destruction owing to heavy ice gorges which came down the Allegheny River, and it is believed they have been greatly weakened. That the bridges were not swept away is considered marvelous by the river men.

Frightened women guests in the Lincoln, Colonial Annex and Anderson hotels, located in the midst of the flood zone, are marooned and are watching the high water from the windows.

Four theaters, the Gayety, Alvin, Belasco and Bijou, are flooded and will be dark for several days.

At the First National Bank building, Fifth avenue and Wood street, the basement is submerged to a depth of several feet and strenuous efforts are being made to protect the dynamos which generate power to the Western Union Telegraph Company.

The office of the Associated Press is located in the building and momentarily it was expected that the wires of this organization would fail. Strenuous efforts of a force of men assisted by a fire engine saved the dynamos, but shortly before 9 o'clock, the electric light dynamo succumbed to the effect of the water.

FIRE AT WHEELING.

TWO DEAD, DAMAGE GREAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WHEELING (W. Va.) March 16.—Fire this morning added to the flood loss in the Wheeling district. At Bridgeport, O., opposite Wheeling, lime in the water set fire to the extensive plant of the Scott Lumber Company, which was completely destroyed. The fire spread to a number of near-by houses, which were destroyed. The total loss is $150,000.

An explosion of gas at the Warwick Pottery, in South Wheeling, destroyed the greater part of the plant and threatened many houses in the vicinity. The police rescued a hundred or more persons from their homes in skiffs, but two Syrian children were drowned. The loss will be over $100,000.

The crest of the flood passed this city at 9 o'clock p.m. The water reached a stage of almost fifty feet and then began to recede at the rate of one inch an hour.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning it is reported that Fire Chief W. G. Clainlor was drowned. When the police began to rescue the foreigners from the burning homes in the inundated district, many panic-stricken persons jumped from windows into overloaded skiffs, which capsized.

Several other persons are thought to have been drowned.

FOREIGNERS DROWNED.

ONE THOUSAND HOMELESS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STEUBENVILLE (O.) March 15.—At least six and perhaps ten members of two foreign families were drowned today in floods at Mingo Junction, according to a report received tonight. The bodies floated away. Every house on the east side of Mingo Junction is submerged and 1000 persons are homeless.

ELEVEN MEET DEATH.

HOCKING RIVER FLOODS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ATHENS (O.) March 15.—The high waters of the Hocking River have claimed seven lives in this city and four elsewhere in the county. Those drowned in Athens are:

ED SWEET.
— TURNER AND WIFE.
— YOUNG.
CHARLES BEHARS.
OTTO BARTH.

Late Wednesday night the roadway of the Baltimore and Ohio levee, along the river, broke, allowing the water to run into Athens. A thousand persons are homeless and are being cared for in churches and halls.

CEILING CAVES IN.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—The ceiling of the hall in the Auride Palace, where the lower house of parliament meets, collapsed at 6 o'clock this morning and caused widespread wreckage among the seats below.

Many rumors were circulated to the effect that the falling of the ceiling was the result of a plot to interfere with the meeting of parliament, and its purely accidental character was clearly established.

An examination showed that the nails and other fastenings binding the ceiling to the rafters had not been replaced since the time of Catherine II. and broke under the extreme weight of the new decorations.

The aggregate weight of the ceiling was so great that in its fall it twisted the massive electroliers in such a way as to indicate that a terrible catastrophe would have resulted had the fall occurred a few hours later, during the session of the House. The palaces occupied by the president and ministers were not touched, but it was judged that few members of the Center party, or of the Left, would have escaped death or serious injury. It was thought at first that it would be necessary to abandon today's session of the House, but President Golovin ordered chairs to be placed in the rotunda at the entrance of the palace, where the session was held.

POLITICAL.

CONSTITUTION IS PREPARED.

Oklahomans Now Will Vote on Document.

Absolute Prohibition Is Provided for.

Convention Exhausts Funds for Election.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.) March 15.—The only State Constitution to be produced under modern conditions—that intended for the proposed new State of Oklahoma—has finally been drafted here.

The constitutional convention finished its work here today, and adjourned after having been in session 115 days. The Constitution will be submitted to the people of the two Territories at a special election, August 6.

One of the last acts of the convention was to appoint a committee to solicit funds to pay the expenses of the election, the convention having exhausted practically all the money appropriated by Congress.

The convention was overwhelmingly Democratic, being composed of 100 Democrats and twelve Republicans.

Probably the most important measure killed by the convention was the provision relative to separate coaches for whites and negroes, which the Democrats had been pledged to insert. Several delegates charged on the convention floor that the President would reject the Constitution if the "Jim Crow" proposition was adopted, and warning letters were sent to delegates by Senators Tillman, Pettus and the others.

Woman suffrage was defeated by a few votes.

The initiative and referendum, patterned after the Oregon law, was adopted, as was a provision providing for the nomination of all State officers and United States Senators by primaries.

Succession in State offices is prohibited, and it is provided that the Senate committees shall not be named by the Lieutenant-Governor, but be selected by the body itself.

Oklahoma will be a prohibition State, with the most stringent liquor law in existence, prohibiting not only the sale, but the introduction of liquor into the State. The Enabling Act provided that Indian Territory must accept prohibition for twenty-one years. The convention provided that the whole State shall vote on the question, and there is no doubt that the terms of the Enabling Act will be made uniform over the whole State.

Provision is made for a State Railway Commission, to be elective, and a 2-cent passenger fare order.

Railway companies are prohibited from owning any productive agency of a natural commodity, a prevision particularly intended to cover coal lands.

The issuance of watered stock is prohibited, and the books of all corporations are made subject to examination at all times.

A commission is appointed to negotiate the purchase of segregated mineral lands in the Indian Territory, valued at many millions of dollars, and State ownership and operation of the coal mines thereon is contemplated.

SHAH LIKED JEWELS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VIENNA, March 15.—That the late Shah of Persia was fond of precious stones is indicated by a dispatch from Teheran which says that an inventory has revealed that he left jewels to the value of $50,000,000. Chief among them are diamonds. One portion of his state paraphernalia, a jewel-studded belt, is valued at several million dollars. It weighs eighteen pounds.

The famous diamond-studded belt and scabbard is said to be worth $1,250,000, and an emerald-bedecked silver vase, with one of the stones of the Shah's numerous titles, engraved on it, is regarded as almost priceless.

Among other treasures was found a block of pure amber, containing 400 cubic inches, which is said to have dropped from the skies on the tomb of Mahomet.

WOMEN WILL GO FAR.

LONDON, March 15.—As an indication of the lengths to which the woman suffragists are willing to go in order to obtain admission to the House of Commons, where they may make a demonstration, Mrs. Martins, the secretary of the Women's Political Union, declares they are willing to have their hair cut. When asked if the suffragists would also adopt male attire, the secretary refused to answer the question.

ATTEMPT ASSASSINATION.

MADRID, March 15.—A panic was caused in the neighborhood of the home of Baron Serratoir, president of the Catholic League at Valencia, Wednesday night by the explosion of a bomb in the doorway of the Baron's residence. No one was injured.

TOMMY BURNS MAY REFEREE.

Third Man in the Sullivan-Palmer Battle.

Uncle Tom McCarey May Box With Englishman.

Harry Lewis to Come to Los Angeles to Fight.

Tommy Burns may referee the big fight between Jack Palmer and Jack (Twin) Sullivan. It is learned that Burns expects to come to Los Angeles as soon as the fight between Jimmy Burns and Charlie Neary at Milwaukee is over, March 22. He should reach here the morning of March 24, at the latest, and would be on hand should Manager McCarey desire his services.

Burns has refereed several fights in Los Angeles, and proved a good official. He is not averse to appearing as the third man in the ring, and is not afraid of condemnation from the betting public should the decision not suit every one. Manager McCarey does not commit himself on the probability of Burns refereeing, but it is known that he is not averse to the idea.

Tom McCarey is going to put on the gloves with Jack Palmer. That was his avowed intention last night. Not in the way he proposed to meet Abe Attell some weeks ago—when he offered to lock himself in a room with the featherweight champion and let each man take care of himself—but he expects to put the big mitts on with Palmer in a friendly set-to.

McCarey has been feeling indisposed of late, and some one has suggested that he ought to dope out for himself some of the same medicine he insists his fighters shall take—a systematic course in training. McCarey has fallen to the prescription, and intends to pass several days at the Eastside Athletic Club quarters, where Palmer is doing his work, and let Molly McDonald give him a course of training—regulation rub-downs and all. Calisthenics, boxing, a little wrestling, shadow work, bag punching, dumb-bell exercises, etc., will be included in McCarey's list of training stunts.

Jack O'Brien is expected to come back to Los Angeles soon, and may be here in time for the Palmer-Sullivan fight. He is a referee possibility, if Burns does not accept, although he may not be chosen, owing to his recent English experiences.

PALMER IN TRAINING.

Jack Palmer took to serious training, yesterday, despite his assertion that he expected to go easy the first day in his quarters at the Eastlake Athletic Club. He expected to do only a little rope skipping, but his ardor was so keen that he jumped into the work with a will. After skipping the rope for fifteen minutes, he called for the gloves and boxed three fast rounds with Kenny Woods. The rounds went the full limit and the men worked at top speed throughout, although they refrained from hitting hard.

Palmer looks to be a bulldog for punishment and boring-in tactics, and certainly seems to be the goods. He has a fine straight left, and with his reach ought to be able to beat Sullivan to it in the jabs. He is fast on his feet, also, and in shadow-boxing seems very clever. It looks as though Sullivan is giving away too much to tackle this man at 164 pounds, as he says he will weigh when he enters the ring.

Kenny Woods looks like a pretty fair sort of a boy. He has a poor guard for the face, but is quick and seems able to hit hard. He is matched to meet Frank Fields in the main preliminary to the Palmer-Sullivan go. Leonard Lauder and Young Berry are to box six rounds in the first preliminary for a side bet of $50 and a purse.

Harry Lewis has written Manager McCarey asking for a match, and Uncle Tom has telegraphed him to come to Los Angeles and he will give him a chance. McCarey has Mike (Twin) Sullivan and Jimmy Burns in mind to match with Lewis and will be ready to talk business so soon as Lewis and Manager Dickenson come on from Buffalo.

RILEY AFTER WALSH.

WALSH MAY FIGHT COVE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Percy Cove has received tickets from M. M. Riley of Tonopah to come on at once. He does not know whether he is to fight Phil Knight or Walsh.

McLaughlin, the wrestler, offers to wrestle Cornell, the Coast welterweight champion, and two others on the same night, for a $500 purse, winner take all, with $1000 side bet, one fall from each, or three falls within an hour. Cornell will agree if Phillips and Braun are the other two men.

McLaughlin says to bring on anybody. He weighs 158. He posted money last night with Jim May (the man who won $35,000 on roulette table at one spin.) Atherton is promoting the match. Cornell and McLaughlin met last night in the Palace saloon and nearly came to blows. McLaughlin called Cornell a faker. Indian Joe came between the men.

MORE HOT AIR.

RILEY SCORCHES ATTELL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Sullivan, manager of "Brooklyn Tommy" Sullivan, received today a letter from Mike Riley, manager of the Casino Athletic Club, Tonopah, Nev., in which Riley declared that Abe Attell was evidently afraid to meet Sullivan and that he (Riley) had given up all hope of matching the pair at equitable weights.

In concluding his letter Riley said that he would like to match "Brooklyn Tommy" with Robson, the English champion, July 4, for the featherweight championship of the world. Jack Sullivan said that "Brooklyn Tommy" would be present at the ringside April 3 in Philadelphia, when Attell meets Robson.

"Tommy will be present to post a forfeit of $1000 to bind a match with the winner," said Jack Sullivan. "If Attell wins he'll have to meet Tommy or eat crow."

MARVIN HART WINS.

KNOCKS OUT ROGERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HOT SPRINGS (Ark.) March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Marvin Hart of Louisville knocked out Harry Rogers, the Indiana miner, in the second round tonight before the largest crowd that ever filled the Whittington Athletic Club. During the short time that it took Hart to dispose of his opponent the miner was knocked to the mat seven times.

As a fighter the lad from Indiana proved a joke. He lacked both science and strength, and the sudden termination of the fight, which was scheduled to go twenty rounds, was a great disappointment to the spectators. From the very first blow landed by Hart it was plainly seen that Rogers was no match for the husky Kentuckian. He became weak after the first round, so severely did Hart punish his opponent.

MURPHY WINS AGAIN.

KNOCKS OUT GRUENWALD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Experience told in the battle of the bantams, tonight, Eddie Gruenwald of this city being defeated after a hard fight, by "Kid" Murphy of New York. For eight rounds Gruenwald held more than his own, but in the last two rounds the ring generalship of the New York kid gave him the lead and he was given the decision.

The fight between Steve Kinney and Frankie Baker of Chicago was the best of the night. Kinney was knocked down in the first round twice, but came back strong and in the sixth knocked Baker down twice, for the count of nine and then for the knockout.

San Diego Yacht Races.

SAN DIEGO, March 15.—The San Diego Yacht Club will insist on having the races for the Lipton cup take place off this harbor, as usual, this being one of the conditions of the deed of gift. The work of reconstructing the defender, Aeolus, which was in the races last year, has been commenced, and the local yachtsmen are confident that she will give a better account of herself in the August trials.

WE MAY GET SWEENEY.

Local ball fans will learn with pleasure that Manager Berry of the Angel team is negotiating with Manager Chance of the Chicago Nationals for shortstop Sweeney, drafted by the Chicago team from the Portland Club of last season. A telegram has been sent to Chance and an answer is expected any day. When Chance was here this winter he promised Berry he would help him out with a player if he needed one, and he certainly needs one right now at short. Let every one hope that Sweeney may come.

TO RUN MATINEE EVENTS TODAY.

SPLENDID FEATURES FOR THE HARNESS MEETING.

Three-Cornered Trotting Race Should Furnish Close Finish—Danube to Attempt to Lower Trotting-to-Wagon Record — Other Past Events Are Scheduled.

The Los Angeles Driving Club has scheduled a matinée for this afternoon which should furnish some good sport in harness horse racing. The feature of the day is the 2:15 trot between Don Z., Hazel McKinney, and Ida Millerton. These horses have met before and have furnished very close finishes.

Lohengrin and Explosion are to pace a match race in the free-for-all. Both have stepped the circuit very fast. Another feature should be the trot to wagon to beat the track record of 2:15, which Danube will undertake alone.

Following are the entries and owners, respectively:

The three-minute mixed—Barney, b. g., Joseph Walker; Glen Tolus, b. g., Dr. Wm. Dodge; Maud St. Clair, b. m., G. W. Dixon.

The 2:20 pace—Seigfreid, b. g., Frank B. Long; Cleopatra, s. m., Wm. Garland; Flora G., s. m., A. I. Stewart.

The 2:15 trot—Don Z., b. g., J. D. Springer; Hazel McKinney, J. H. Reynolds; Ida Millerton, bl. m., H. N. Henderson.

Free-for-all pace—Lohengrin, b. g., Dr. Wm. Dodge; Explosion, b. m., Joseph Watkins.

Trot, to beat 2:15 to wagon—Danube, br. s., Capt. J. C. Newton.

The 2:30 pace—Morning Star, b. g., Snowden and Sadler; Miss Rich Nut, gr. m., Dr. W. A. Conley; Bernie Wilkes, b. m., L. A. Denker; Tehama Boy, s. g., L. E. McLellan.

The 2:40 trot—Direct Maid, b. m., L. J. Christopher; Billy N., b. g., C. G. Willis; Willow, bl. g., John W. Snowden; General Garcia, b. g., C. C. Collier.

MORE LONG SHOTS WIN.

Two Sleepers Wake Up at Ascot Park and Romp in First at Very Juicy Prices.

Yesterday was another wake-up day at the Ascot races, and several plugs that have been running poor races suddenly revived and came through in a hurry and won at long prices. Remember was the surprise of the day for she won easily at 25 to 1, after opening at 10 to 1. Woodthorpe was another sleeper, for he galloped in easily first at odds of 12 to 1 in the books. Favorites won the first, second and last races. The horse King of the Mist fell just after starting in the fourth race, and his rider, Harris, was badly shaken up, but it was said that he was not hurt very much.

Results:

Mile: Taos, 104 (Preston,) even, won; Gold Ledge, 104 (Ross,) 15 to 1, second; Irish Mail, 104 (H. Smith,) 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:44. Miss Himyar, Extranell, Mirabel, Kitty McCarthy and Vinorsina also ran.

Mile and one-sixteenth: Gilpin, 112 (Boland,) 7 to 5, won; Piquet, 107 (Ross,) 3 to 1, second; Jetsam, 112 (Grand,) 8 to 5, third. Time, 1:49½. Ding Dong II. also ran. Belvoir scratched.

Five and one-half furlongs: Remember, 105 (Brussel,) 25 to 1, won; Virginia Lorraine, 105 (Harris,) 16 to 5, second; Big Store, 100 (Preston,) 3 to 5, third. Time, 1:09¾. Chico and Slippery also ran. Cavatina left.

Mile: Woodthorpe, 110 (Ross,) 12 to 1, won; Desmagen, 102 (Nichols,) 3 to 1, second; Ero Pyro, 105 (Keogh,) 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:42⅘. Netting, El Paisano, Search Me and Robert Mitchell also ran. King of Mist fell. Comas, Lydia Wrouseman and Pyrrho scratched.

Seven furlongs: Rubinon, 105 (Preston,) 7 to 2, won; Revolt, 110 (H. Smith,) 7 to 10, second; Viona, 105½ (Kunz,) 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:29. Ramona, Rosinini and John H. also ran. Redwood II. scratched.

Six furlongs: Taylor George, 109 (Ross,) 3 to 5, won; Antara, 109 (Keogh,) 8 to 1, second; Tim Hurst, 112 (Brussel,) 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:14½. Bologna, Mohur, Interlude, Nun's Veiling and El Verraco also ran.

TRACK MEN CLEARED.

Athletes Who Took Part in Chutes Park Races Treated Leniently by Lawton.

The seven track men from the local High Schools who were protested, this week, before the Stanford Interscholastic Association, will be allowed to compete in the Stanford meet, and their amateur standing will not be affected by the fact that they have taken part in the Chutes Park contests.

The cases were passed upon yesterday by Al Lawton, local representative of the A.A.U. In view of the fact that all of the men confessed to the charges and rested their defense entirely upon their ignorance of the infringement of the rules involved, Lawton decided to act leniently in the matter. Personal letters from all of the accused athletes, accompanied by indorsements from Principals Housch and Francis, were sent to the A.A.U. representative.

"The boys were not altogether to blame," said Lawton, yesterday, "as there has been little to keep them in close touch with the rules of the A.A.U. It would have been an unfair step to deprive them of their amateur standing in the circumstances. However, this will serve as a warning, and if any one fails to take it, something horrible is going to happen to the next offender that will leave no room for doubt in the future. Any one who runs at the Chutes or in similar contests will know that he will have to face disbarment under the A.A.U. rules."

Win Tennis Honors.

Los Angeles High School defeated Occidental preparatory school yesterday afternoon in a dual tennis tournament at the central courts in South Pasadena. Dawson of the High School defeated Winnie Mace of Occidental, 6-1, 6-2; and Davis of High School defeated Loury of Occidental, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3. Dawson's showing makes him a likely candidate for first honors at the Ojai interscholastic tournament next month, as Mace ranks well up among the best of the players with whom he will have to contest for the honor. The doubles match went to Rogers brothers of High School, who defeated Mace and Loury, 6-3, 6-2.

Long Beach Games.

LONG BEACH, March 15.—Two games of girls' basketball will be played this afternoon on the High School court. At 2 o'clock the second team of the locals and Whittier High will play a county league game, and at 3 o'clock the first team and Pomona will contest for honors in the Southern California Woman's League.

No Weak Spots

"Ready-and-Right" suits are good—through and through. We attach greatest importance to fit, style and tailoring—but the details are not forgotten nor passed over because they "don't show." We make big things of details.

For instance—stitches in the coat collar—little thing, but there are more stitches on a "Ready-and-Right" coat collar than on any other make.

Then the canvas is thoroughly shrunk before used. This means no curled lapels, and the customary stiffness of the ordinary ready-to-wear suit is noticeably lacking.

THROUGH INSIDE OF TIME LIMIT.

OWEN'S PARTY ARRIVES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisquito Canyon Is Washed Out, and Autoists Crossed Stream One Hundred and Forty-four Times in Eleven Miles. Freight Wagons Abandoned.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ralph Owen, who left the Van Nuys Hotel, Los Angeles, on Thursday morning at 5 o'clock in his Oldsmobile, arrived in San Francisco at 2:40 this afternoon. He made the trip of 500 miles in 33 hours and 40 minutes, elapsed time, well under the time limit agreed on for the Pope-Hartford-Oldsmobile race. The car was sent over the road from Los Angeles to San Francisco to show that this was possible, and also so that the drivers could gain knowledge of the roads over which they will race in two weeks.

The car carried five passengers all the way. The party consisted of Ralph Owen, H. O. Harrison, W. A. Peck, H. G. Raine and R. G. Emmons.

"We left Los Angeles on the date and hour originally set for the race," said Mr. Owen this afternoon, "believing that our car was ready to go through within the time limit agreed on. This we accomplished, making the continuous trip in just short of thirty-four hours, elapsed time.

"The roads are completely washed away all through San Francisquito Cañon. We crossed the stream 144 times while going eleven miles. Many freight wagons and some automobiles have been mired down and abandoned, and we saw a good many of them. The Oldsmobile went through successfully, however, for the second time in the past three weeks."

Conklin Is Second.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Calvin Demarest and Charles F. Conklin of the Chicago Athletic Club carried off the honors in the national amateur 14.1 billiard tournament, which was concluded at the Liderkranz Club, today. Young Demarest won the title yesterday by defeating Edward W. Gardner of Passaic, N. J. Conklin and Gardner met today in the play-off of a tie for second place, and Conklin won out by a score of 300 to 201.

Reulbach Overruled.

CINCINNATI, March 15.—The National Baseball Commission today disallowed the claim of Pitcher Reulbach of the Chicago Nationals that he is a free agent in baseball and at liberty to sign wherever he pleases. Reulbach claimed that his last year's contract was only for one year and that as he was tendered no contract to sign for this year, the Chicago club no longer has any claim on his services. The commission decided that his contract is for three years.

OVER STEPS GOES AUTO.

Shettler Duplicates Feat He Performed Two Years Ago at Courthouse Flight.

COVINA, March 15.—Leon T. Shettler of Los Angeles this afternoon repeated his famous step-climbing trick, taking a twenty-horse-power Reo up a flight of fourteen steps. Twelve hundred enthusiastic autoists and their friends were present at the opening of Blanchard's garage on West College street, and Shettler's exhibition was the feature of the house-warming. In the absence of any big building with a wide flight of stairs, carpenters had built a platform seven feet off the ground, to which led a flight of fourteen six-inch steps. The grade was 43 per cent.

Mr. Shettler negotiated the climb successfully, and then turned around and ran his machine down the flight.

In June, 1905, Mr. Shettler climbed the Courthouse steps in Los Angeles with a similar car. The announcement of this appeared exclusively the following day in The Times, and was published afterward in Associated Press dispatches all over the country as a great feat.

He stated after the performance that today's feat was nearly twice as difficult and took nearly twice the power that it did to climb the steps at the Courthouse. The flight will be left standing for a week to allow others to make the attempt. Mr. Shettler offers a reward of $50 to any machine other than a Reo that can perform the feat.

Players Start for San Francisco.

McGraw Pleased With Condition of Men.

Wants a Shortstop for Los Angeles.

The baseball players in charge, Harry Knowles and Manager McGraw left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, where the New York Giants will play today and tomorrow with the Pacific Coast team of the Pacific league. The men who were in charge of the team are Pitchers C. Mathewson, Ames, McGinnity, Taylor, Ferguson, Catchers Bresnahan and Warner, Outfielders Shannon, Donlin, Spencer, Burke, and Infielders Devlin, Gray, Hannifan, Mullen and Browne. Those who remained here are Strang, A. Smith, Dahlen and Bowerman, this being left at the last moment.

"It is a very strong aggregation of players, and they should have little trouble in beating the San Francisco team, which has had very little practice for this season. The boys will arrive here Monday, and are to play a game with the Los Angeles team at Chutes Park that afternoon. We expect to leave for the north Monday night or Tuesday morning.

MANAGER WELL PLEASED.

"Manager McGraw is very enthusiastic over the condition of his men, and they are just rounding into shape for the ball from now on. They are going away from Los Angeles in better shape than ever before at this time of year," he said yesterday, "and the amount of work done here. I think the games that have been played here have put the team on edge as well pleased with the work that we will, in all probability, come back next spring. They are just now getting the hang of them, and all are in fine shape.

"I am sorry that Los Angeles has not a minor league team, and I think it is particularly good. The ground, and with a good shortstop will be all right. I imagine the San Francisco team is not on account of having a less ... but, of course, we ... of knowing its strength. ... Doubts, I don't know ... him, as his case is in ... Mr. Brush. ... OF THE TIMES.] ... UNIVERSITY, March ... California Ex... night, to sub... to arbitration. ... of the In... to the fact ... of the two ... some unfa... from Dr. ... of the Stan... Committee. He ... strongly objects to California's attitude, and says:

"That the faculty athletic committees of the two universities are not intended as a court of appeal in cases of disagreement between the two executive committees is evident from the following article from the Intercollegiate Athletic Agreement: 'The faculty athletic committees of the respective universities shall be courts of appeal in all cases of disagreement between student managers, captains, or other officials of athletic teams.' From this it can readily be seen that disagreements between the executive committees are not expected to be referred to the faculty committees.

"The whole matter is fast assuming a petty and ridiculous aspect. I am opposed to the matter being passed up to the committee, and I doubt very much if we would accept an invitation to take charge of Stanford's side of the dispute."

STANFORD IS COMING.

Cardinal Track Team to Meet U.S.C. Athletes Here the Latter Part of the Month.

The track team of Stanford University is to come to Los Angeles for a meet with the University of Southern California Saturday, March 30, as the result of negotiations entered into by the local university, which offered to bring the Palo Alto men here if they desired a trip to the South this season.

Coach Holmes sent a letter to the North a few days ago extending the invitation, and yesterday a telegraphic reply was received accepting the proposal.

U.S.C. adherents and Stanford alumni believe this will be the biggest field day ever arranged in Los Angeles. The meet will be held at Bovard field in the forenoon. In the afternoon the interscholastic meet will be held and in the evening a monster reception will be given at the university.

The freshmen of Stanford will meet the first-year men of Berkeley on the latter's grounds on the same date, so none of them will be here.

The Methodists, in bringing Stanford here, not only have the opportunity to meet them in the field, but secure a chance to pay an obligation they consider they owe the northern men. Last year when they went to Palo Alto they were treated royally and they intend to repay the compliment by not only paying Stanford's expenses here, but by entertaining them as best they can while they are in the city.

It has been understood for some time that Stanford would welcome an opportunity to come south and Holmes and his satellites proposed an all-southern team and invited Pomona and Occidental to have a share in it. These teams, not caring to meet the northern school, the matter was laid over until this week, when U.S.C. acted on her own initiative.

OAKLAND RACING.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The second race at Emeryville today was marred by considerable bumping, which resulted in the disqualification of Rhinestone, which led the field home. Throughout the stretch Rhinestone, quoted at 15 to 1, bumped Adena, which interfered with Adrian. Rhinestone was promptly disqualified and placed third. E. Dugan, his rider, was suspended for two weeks. Well-played horses won the majority of the events. Results:

Six and a half furlongs: Byron Rose, 109 (Scoville,) 7 to 2, won; Paddy Linch, 109 (Fischer,) 6 to 1, second; Ten Oaks, 109 (Borel,) 20 to 1, third; time 1:32. Politic, Irish Jew, Quindara, Babow, Isadora, Monster, Vigoroso, Jimalong and Rusticate finished as named.

Three and one-half furlongs: Adena, 99 (L. Williams,) 5 to 2, won; Adrian, 109 (Koerner,) 9 to 5, second; Rhinestone, 112 (E. Dugan,) 6 to 1, third; time 0:21 1-5. Import, Brookleaf, Tarabar, Gaga Taylor, Katie Rains and Jockey Mounce finished as named. Rhinestone won, but was disqualified for fouling and placed third.

Seven furlongs, selling: Spring Ban, 102 (Rettig,) 16 to 5, won; George P. McNear, 99 (Lynch,) 8 to 1, second; The Mighty, 107 (Brown,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:28 1-5. Mimo, Eduardo, Hugh McGowan, Reality, Fidia, Capt. Burnett, Meringue, Bonnet and Avonelia finished as named.

Seven furlongs, selling: The Reprobate, 104 (Scoville,) 12 to 1, won; Elevation, 106 (Borel,) 7 to 1, second; Fred Bent, 106 (A. Brown,) 9 to 5, third; time 1:28. Alma Boy, Meada, Cadichon, Gov. Davis, Sahara and Rolla finished as named.

Five and a half furlongs: Native Son, 101 (R. Davis,) 8 to 5, won; Confederate, 114 (Graham,) 9 to 5, second; Triumphant, 104 (Scoville,) 9 to 2, third; time 1:07 2-5. Gov. Orman, Pescadero and Silva finished as named.

One mile: Ruby, 106 (Graham,) 7 to 1, won; Andrew Mack, 111 (Koerner,) 11 to 5, second; Cornblossom, 111 (L. Williams,) 5 to 2, third; time 1:41. Happy Rice, Johnnie Lyons and Pontoloc finished as named.

GOWAN WINS IN TENNIS.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 14.—The first try-out for the university tennis team closed yesterday and was won by A. J. Gowan, '09, of Los Angeles. In the final match he defeated P. B. Delano 6-4, 8-6. This excuses Gowan from the second tournament, which was started today. In preliminary matches of the first try-out Gowan's scores were as follows: Gowan beat Gott 6-3, 6-1; Gowan beat Mackey 6-0, 6-3; Gowan beat Newland 6-0, 6-2.

Delano probably will win the second try-out and become Stanford's second man in the intercollegiate matches. His closest opponent will be Mann, whose score against Delano in the first round indicates that he may be a formidable candidate for the tennis team. In this match Delano defeated him, 8-6, 2-6, 6-2. The drawings for the preliminary round of the second tournament are: Little vs. Henry; Mann vs. Mackey; Newland vs. Delano; Clark vs. Borough; Barkley vs. Parton; Brackett vs. Moore; Salisbury vs. Gott.

ORANGE COUNTY GAME.

Girls' Basketball Teams to Play Today at Anaheim for High School Championships.

ORANGE, March 15.—The final girls' basketball game of the championship series of the Orange County High School Athletic League will be played in Anaheim this afternoon. At this time the teams from Orange High School and from Santa Ana High School will contest for the league championship. The game is expected to be fast and close, as both teams have good records for speedy and skillful playing.

The Orange team defeated the Fullerton teams last Saturday in a well-played game, by the score of 21 to 13. Miss Putnam, the star Orange forward, made seven field goals. In today's game the position for Orange will be: Forwards, Putnam, Kalar, Morrison; center, Humphrey; guards, Perkins and Granger.

After the basketball game on Saturday, the Anaheim and Fullerton baseball teams will play at Anaheim.

TEAMS OFF FOR BIG PREP MEET.

POMONA ENTERTAINS TODAY IN ATHLETIC SPLENDOR.

High Schools and Academies to Send Athletes to Claremont to Win Interscholastic Honors on the Cinderpath—Townspeople Prepare the Fatted Calf.

The largest of all the interscholastic meets of Southern California takes place this afternoon under the Claremont oaks, when the crack high school athletes of the South will contest on track and field under the auspices of Pomona College.

Great plans for the entertainment of the teams and guests have been made by the collegians, and although there will be an unusually large entry list accommodations are ample to handle every one.

The meet will be the first to bring the city and country athletes into competition. Little has been heard from the outside boys, so far this season, and their work this afternoon, will be watched with interest. The local teams will be without the services of some of their best men, who are being held out on account of the Stanford meet next week, but Los Angeles will still be represented by a strong quota.

Harvard School is sending two relay teams, both of which should figure prominently when the struggle for relay honors begins. Her other entries will be chiefly from second team men. High School will enter only two men, while Polytechnic will send a good-sized delegation.

The local men will leave Los Angeles for Claremont on a special train that leaves the Salt Lake depot at 9 o'clock. A large crowd of rooters will accompany them.

BIG ROWING REGATTA.

Oxford Crew Is Favorite Over Cambridge Eight in Annual Races on the Thames.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, March 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Everything is in readiness for tomorrow's boat race which will take place at 3 o'clock. Both crews are fully wound up and the last finishing touches were put on the preparations today when Oxford went out for a short spin in the morning, as also did Cambridge, and the Blues again took ship in the afternoon.

The Blues rowed the first half-mile of the course in the same time of tide and in the same manner as they expect to do in the race. They form a very powerful crew and with the exception of two of their number all rowed against Harvard. Naturally they are hot favorites at 5 to 1, on which Cambridge is said to be betting.

STANFORD GIVES IN TO BERKELEY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 15.—The Executive Committee of the Associated Students, in a special meeting this afternoon, passed resolutions yielding to Berkeley in the track dispute which has been agitating both universities since last January. Stanford waived its claim, still maintaining that it was just and right. The meeting will be held at Berkeley.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, March 15.—The Board of Education has named H. M. Meinell as school census marshal and the counting of the children of school age will soon begin. The enumeration is to be made between April 15 and May 1.

From 2 to 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon there will be a reception at the new Jefferson school. A programme of music has been arranged and light refreshments will be served to the patrons of the school. The teachers and committees from the several associate school organizations are to act as hostesses. This new school building is of brick and was completed at a cost of about $30,000, being one of the six schoolhouses erected in the district during the year.

DUARTE.

DUARTE, March 15.—A stream has been flowing for nearly a week in the Sawpit wash below Falling Leaf avenue in Duarte. Usually the water sinks into the ground above Duarte avenue. Old residents say that no such stream as has been flowing of late has been seen there in sixteen years. It shows the abundant supply of water and the thorough saturation of the soil.

The fruit exchanges are handling oranges to their full capacity. If the car service continues as good as it has been for the first half of this month, March, at its close, will be a record-breaker in the number of cars shipped. The crop is being harvested without loss.

Mrs. S. B. Washburn died suddenly tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Duarte.

SUBMITS CONSTITUTION.

GUTHRIE (Okla.) March 15.—The constitutional convention, after completing its work of drawing up a set of laws to govern the proposed new State of Oklahoma, adjourned today. The Constitution will be submitted to the people of Oklahoma, and left for acceptance or rejection at a special election August 6 next.

Millinery Modes Plume Laden and Flower Decked

Master Show Pieces for the Easter Parade

Style exclusiveness, individuality and tone mark our millinery exhibit—our second floor salon is abloom with newness. It's a perfect riot of flowers, a color symphony which attracts and charms. This is a season of great variety in millinery models. A sensible trend of fashion makes it permissible to suit the hat to the individuality of the wearer. The large hats of the picture and Gainsborough type are much in evidence, but the smaller modeled toques and turbans find favor with many. For the more conservative who ignore extremes there are many models of medium dimensions. Trimmings and embellishments vary in style and color scheme. Plume-swept picture hats that are Frenchy in the extreme are here for your choosing; replicas and adaptations from Paris models as well as show pieces cunningly conjured and cleverly built by our own milliners. You'll find the prices very attractive, as we price millinery as we do dry goods, just as low as is consistent with quality.

PERSONAL—

MRS. MASSON,

222 S. SPRING ST. (Suite 17.)

by those desiring careful, conscientious and reliable hand readings from one of the foremost palmists of the day.

Investments, changes of business, losses and gains, lawsuits, deaths, marriages, separations, and, in fact, all that life holds for you is plainly written in your hand; it is simply a question of correct interpretation. HIGH-CLASS PATRONAGE SOLICITED.

PERSONAL—PROF. SHELDON, THE GREATEST LIVING PSYCHIC, PALMIST AND SPIRITUALIST.

Without asking a single question, without having any natural means of knowing who you are or for what you came, this strangely gifted man tells you of your name, tells your mother's maiden name, tells you the names of friends, enemies or rivals, tells you what you came for, tells when you marry; in fact, everything.

LOW FEE.
PROF. SHELDON,
THE WINDHAM,
"314½ SOUTH BROADWAY. 16

THREE SUCCESSFUL DEPARTMENT store men from Southern State, have bought the best store building in one of the best towns in the State of California, and will open soon, a department store that will pay from the beginning. One store (and not a popular one) in the same town, did over $600,000 worth of business last year. No question about new store doing business, for if so, the parties who bought the building would not have invested their money. The new company will have a capital stock of $100,000, $45,000 of which has been subscribed.

Parties desiring a safe and profitable investment, can get full particulars, in fact could not buy a dollar's worth of stock until they had fully investigated the town, building and the men engaged in the present directorate. Address H, box 162, TIMES OFFICE. 15

TO PROSPECTIVE HOTEL BUILDERS.
The Board of Trade of the city of Santa Monica, Cal., has secured an option on a block of land facing Ocean ave., that it proposes to have used for hotel purposes. The board would like to hear from any capitalists desiring a location for a modern hotel of upward of 100 rooms; members of the board and local capitalists would take a limited amount of stock in the enterprise. Santa Monica is both a winter and a summer resort, and a large modern hotel could be kept open the year round with a profit. Address all communications to J. ADDISON SMITH, Secretary, Santa Monica, Los Angeles county, Cal.

BRENTWOOD PARK

A replica of Golden Gate Park.

Improvements cost over half a million.

Superb location—none other can equal it.

When completed, Brentwood will be unequalled by any other home community.

The nursery for beautifying the Park contained 87,000 trees, palms and shrubs, of 800 varieties.

In a frostless belt; enjoying all beach advantages, yet inland far enough to escape fogs and chill winds.

Every modern private and public improvement.

The Beautiful

"Redondo Villa Tract B"

The Beautiful

Only $90 Per Lot $4 Down, $4 Per Month No Interest, No Taxes

FREE ROUND TRIP TICKETS from Los Angeles to Redondo and Return, On cars going every 20 minutes, every day, are given away at our office absolutely free upon application. Also Free Automobile Ride at Redondo.

Large level lots, 50x150 feet. Rich Soil, Pure Water, Fine Climate. All lots, including corners, one price—$90 per lot—no more, no less. You know what you have to pay—$90 per lot—no higher. At Redondo over $2,000,000 has already been expended in grand and substantial improvements. The beautiful "Redondo Villa Tract B" is on the Camino Real (King's Highway) boulevard connecting Redondo with Los Angeles. We have just bought this beautiful tract for $151,000, and believing in the principle that it pays to let our customers make a profit, hence we have decided on this grand profit-sharing plan. We will make a profit and all our purchasers are guaranteed a profit of 25 per cent. within one year, as per our written agreement.

MR. H. E. HUNTINGTON IS EXPENDING OVER A MILLION DOLLARS AROUND REDONDO IN SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS.

Go down to Redondo and see for yourself. At Jefferson street and Grand avenue see the immense stacks of heavy steel rails for the double-tracking of the present two electric lines of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company. The rails are arriving daily. Dirt is now flying. Better buy now. Then there's the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Co.'s electric line to Redondo, the broad-gauging of which will soon occur. And in addition to the above three electric lines now running to Redondo is the great Santa Fe steam railroad. With four lines of transportation it would seem as if same would be sufficient, but surveyors are in the field laying out the shortest line of all to connect Los Angeles with its choicest seashore suburb—Redondo. Mr. Huntington is now building at Redondo the largest electric power house on the Pacific Coast, to cost $1,250,000, as fast as men and money can do it. Go down and look at the mammoth cement smokestack.

A suburban electric railroad is now nearing completion at Redondo. The grand three-story business block of Mr. W. M. Garland at Redondo is just finished. Follow successful men like Mr. Huntington and Mr. Garland—they know that Redondo is industrial and a safe place to invest in. Buy anywhere around Redondo and you are sure to make large profits. Three commercial wharves. A safe harbor by twenty years' practical test. Redondo is permanent and has just begun to grow. Then again, referring to successful men, we notice that the following men have bought to the north of Redondo:

Mr. Edwin Chambers, the far-sighted General Freight Agent of the Santa Fe; Mr. George H. Peck, the successful banker of San Pedro; Mr. John J. Byrne, the capable General Passenger Agent of the Santa Fe, and Dan Murphy, the millionaire oil operator of Los Angeles. A word to the wise is sufficient! BUY

Remember that your purchase is made with the distinct understanding that we will refund all money paid us, with 6 per cent. per annum interest added, if after visiting the "Redondo Villa Tract B" it is found that we have misrepresented our proposition in the slightest particular.

THE GRAND MILLION DOLLAR HOTEL AND TROPICAL GARDENS AT REDONDO.

25 Per Cent. Guaranteed Increase

Pay it down and $4 per month until paid for we sell you a lot in "Redondo Villa Tract B" lot for $90, subject to the following guarantee from us: If at the expiration of one year from purchase this $90 lot is not worth $112.50—or 25 per cent. increase—based on the price at which our corps of salesmen will then be selling similar lots, we will refund all of the money you have paid us, with 6 per cent. interest additional. If you should die at any time before payments have been completed, we will give to your heirs a deed of the lot without further cost. If you should lose employment or be sick you will not forfeit the land, but on such written certificate of sickness or non-employment as received monthly your time for payment will be extended another month.

Our Restrictions

No saloons, no shanties, no factories. Purchasers are not compelled to build, but if they do then they must erect attractive looking houses, there being no "dollar limit." We leave it to each purchaser to build a pretty looking home, which must be neatly painted, as we known that for a moderate sum one can now build a very pretty bungalow. Lumber is cheap at Redondo, as there are three commercial wharves at Redondo, at which lumber schooners are daily discharging their cargoes.

If Russell Sage, the multi-millionaire of New York told you that you could make a fortune in suburban real estate (especially when it costs you only $4 down and $4 per month) wouldn't you be impressed? Well, listen! That's just what Mr. Sage did say in the New York World of September 28, 1902: "Young man, buy real estate, especially acre property, in the outlying boroughs, and then work hard at your usual avocation. Your real estate purchases will make your old age comfortable."—Russell Sage.

Come One! Come All!

We are open every night during week days from 7 to 9 o'clock, to accommodate those who cannot come during the day.

Free our tickets to Redondo furnished all interested. Electric cars leave every twenty minutes.

Get your free tickets at our office in advance. Automobiles will carry you around Redondo and to the beautiful "Redondo Villa Tract B."

GRANDEST SUCCESS OF THE SEASON—Everybody delighted. The golden spike of the Redondo Villa railroad was driven Jan. 6—the commencement of great transportation facilities for the Redondo Villa Tract. The roadbed has been graded, ties are on the ground, rails will soon be laid.

TITLE GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY PERFECT. The 604 acres of the Rancho Sausal Redondo, embraced in the "Redondo Villa Tract B," was purchased by us from George H. Peck, president of the Bank of San Pedro, for $151,000.

It is protected by an Unlimited Certificate of Title and all deeds to purchasers of lots in the "Redondo Villa Tract B" will be Warranty Deeds, which is an assurance that every purchaser in the "Redondo Villa Tract B" will receive an absolutely perfect deed.

BE ON HAND EARLY. COME AT ONCE. This sale of large, level lots, 50x150 feet in size, for only $90, in payments of $4 down, $4 month—no interest, no taxes—is unparalleled.

Remember that the "Redondo Villa Tract B" has the advantage of having no city taxes to pay.

BUY WHERE THE AIR IS THE PURE OZONE FROM OFF THE HEALTH-RESTORING WATERS OF THE PACIFIC.

Buy where the soil is rich and injurious frosts never prevail.

Buy around Redondo, where there are three electric lines and one steam railroad, and there will soon be another electric line.

Buy where the purest of water, from the large water works now on the tract, can be had for only 7½ cents per thousand gallons for irrigation.

Buy where you will make large profits.

Buy at the opening sale, which has been the history, invariably insures a great profit. If you can't be on hand at the office tomorrow morning, then telephone (Main 8370 or Home 8339,) telegraph or write at once, and a beautiful illustrated prospectus, map and sample contract will be mailed to you absolutely free.

"Paradoxical as it may seem, this scheme is one in which to lose is to win. The speculators offered forty acres for a Capitol site, which is to return to them if the capital is not moved. Meanwhile the great improvements which will be made before the case is decided by the people will greatly enhance the value of this property. But they have gone a little too far and have invited defeat.

SNOWED UNDER AT POLLS.

"Their sandbag strength is their weakness. That very fact will turn all fair-minded men against them, and they will be snowed under at the polls, for they have tried to use a great people to line their pockets with gold.

"Now, my friends of the South, I have found that the air is filled with a certain sentiment of State division. If the capital of California is removed to Berkeley, you will find yourselves in a position where 'hope deferred maketh the heart sick.'

"We people of the North will never consent to have ourselves saddled with an incubus of from $8,000,000 to $15,000,000, and you of the South cannot escape your pro rata of this needless tax. Then, in case of a division of the State, you will have to shoulder a new tax for a new capital.

"It is an impossibility, however, to remove the capital from Sacramento unless a majority of all the voters of the State, whether they vote or not, are in favor of the removal, and there are 400,000 registered voters in the State.

VOTES WILL BE LACKING.

"At the last election only 104,000 voted upon the constitutional amendments, and if this question of removal had been acted upon then and every voter had voted in favor of Berkeley, even then Berkeley would be about 100,000 votes short. It will take over 200,000 votes to carry the project, and I know a few who will vote against it. Even many Berkeley residents are opposed to the change.

"This great State may be injured, for they have begun to bring out the stink-pots and slush buckets of politics, and are already calling each other liars and thieves, and this hurts the good name of California.

"People of California, North and South, we must expose this unholy scheme of the town-lot kite."

Col. Weinstock's remarks were greeted with applause, as were the remarks of ex-Senator Marshall Diggs, president of the Sacramento Improvement Association, who presided, and who spoke briefly of the inadvisability of State division. The sentiment of the visitors is that there is no real reason for a division of the State, in spite of the manipulation of some greedy politicians and self-seeking corporations.

DELIVERS WAR SUPPLIES.

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—A dispatch received here today announced the safe arrival at Puerto Cortez, Honduras, of the steamer Harry T. Inge, which sailed from New Orleans, March 7, with munitions of war for Honduras. Some uneasiness has been felt here by the government, as it was understood that a Nicaraguan man-of-war would attempt to overhaul the steamer and seize the arms, which included 1000 rifles.

SOLDIERS FIGHT RURALES.

HAVANA, March 15.—A dispatch to the Havana Post from Santa Clara says a fight occurred today between some members of the rural guard and American soldiers. Five sustained serious injuries. The altercation began in a circus and grew into a riot. The police force was unable to cope with the situation.

FLAMES DESTROY BIG FEED YARD.

SUSPICIOUS FIRE ON SOUTH MAIN STREET.

Several Buildings Damaged and Hundreds of Tons of Hay Burned. Police Save Dozen Horses from Death—Another Fire at Same Hour Destroys Barn and Fine Auto.

Hundreds of tons of hay, a considerable quantity of fuel wood and two barns were destroyed by fire, about 11 o'clock last night, at the yard of S. L. Turner and R. M. Sprowls of Twenty-fourth and Main streets. According to the police the fire was of a suspicious origin and it is believed that some one set the hay on fire. The loss to the fuel and feed yard is estimated to be over $5000 and about $100 to surrounding buildings.

A. G. Link of No. 2417 South Main street was passing near the yard when his attention was called by a small blaze on the roof. Link sent in an alarm. Before the department arrived the barns were in flames and the home of J. J. Conklin at No. 115 West Twenty-fourth street was burned slightly.

Attracted by the flames, Patrolmen Jack Walsh and Roy Allen, who had been chasing speeding automobiles on Washington street, dashed with their machines to the scene of the blaze. The officers went into a stable and released twelve horses, which were tied in their stalls. Before the officers got out of the barn it was in flames. Walsh was slightly burned.

Patrolmen from the University Station assisted in confining the fire to the hay sheds and not allowing the flames to reach outside buildings. At an early hour this morning the fire was still burning.

AUTOMOBILE DESTROYED.

While the firemen were still battling with the flames at the feed yard, another fire of suspicious origin started in the barn of C. L. Sweeney at No. 920 East Twenty-fifth street. Before the apparatus arrived the flames consumer a portion of the building and practically destroyed an automobile. It is estimated that the damage to the barn was $75 and the automobile about $1100. The insurance is ample to cover the loss.

FARY SUCCEEDS PERKINS

In Chairmanship of United States Steel Corporation—Morgan Relationship the Reason.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It became known today in the publication of the annual report of the United States Steel Corporation that George W. Perkins has retired from the chairmanship of the finance committee of the steel corporation and that he has been succeeded by E. H. Fary, who thus becomes chairman of the board of directors and chairman of the finance committee.

The reason assigned for the change are that on account of the close relations between the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., and the steel "trust," it was deemed wise to make a change so as to decrease the importance of the dual relationship which Perkins held as a partner in the Morgan firm and as chairman of the finance committee.

INCREASES POSTAL SALARIES.

Los Angeles Clerks and Letter Carriers Fare Well Under New Appropriation.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] During the fiscal year ending July 1, 1907, 201 clerks and 184 carriers in the Los Angeles postoffice will have their salaries increased $100 per annum each. The Postoffice Department has just completed a readjustment of salaries of these officials, based on appropriations carried in the last postoffice bill. Clerks and carriers in other California cities who will receive increases are:

Pasadena, twenty-two clerks, twenty carriers; Stockton, twelve clerks, fourteen carriers; San José, seventeen clerks, twenty-four carriers; San Diego, thirteen clerks, seventeen carriers; Sacramento, twenty-one clerks, twenty-six carriers; Oakland, thirty-three clerks, ninety carriers.

DUTCH DEFEAT REBELS.

THE HAGUE, March 15.—An official dispatch received here today from the Island of Celebes, Dutch East Indies, announced that the Dutch troops had captured an important rebel stronghold after a stubborn fight. The fleeing enemy left 280 men dead on the field, among whom were several rebel chiefs. The troops captured 200 women and 72 men. The Dutch losses were insignificant.

FIRE AT WATSON'S SON.

AUGUSTA, March 15.—Several shots were fired into the bedroom of J. D. Watson, son of Thomas E. Watson, the former Presidential candidate on the Populist ticket, at their home at Thomson, Ga., early today. It was claimed later that the investigation indicated a plot against Thomas Watson or his family, but no definite clew was obtained.

LOBBYISTS MUST REGISTER.

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) March 15.—Gov. Folk today signed the anti-lobby bill, which provides that all lobbyists shall register with the Secretary of State and shall state the purposes of their visits.

VETERANS' CAMP FIXED.

TOLEDO (O.) March 15.—J. Corey Winans, chief of staff of the National Grand Army of the Republic, tonight received notification from the Citizens Committee at Saratoga, N. Y., fixing the date of the national encampment for the week, September 9. Mr. Winans wired acceptance.

UTAH SEEKS ADVERTISING.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 15.—The Utah Legislature today passed a resolution appropriating $4000 for a Utah exhibit at the National Irrigation Congress, to be held at Sacramento in September, next. The measure passed both houses and was signed by the Governor.

FRENCH PRELATE OUTCAST.

ROME, March 15.—The congregation of the Inquisition has renewed the order of excommunication against Archbishop Vilatte, head of the French Apostolic Catholic Church.

CAR SERVICE RESUMES.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) March 15.—Car service, which was interrupted last Sunday morning by the strike of street railway employés, was resumed this morning on all lines.

THE tea industry as it is conducted in India, will be graphically described in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

SAN PEDRO.

SAN PEDRO, March 15.—The work of building a pleasure resort at Point Firmin is going rapidly forward. Trails have been built from the bluff down to the ocean and a big pavilion is under construction. Glass-bottom boats have been ordered and visitors will be given an opportunity to visit the extensive marine gardens off Point Firmin. George H. Peck coartered the large glass-bottom boat, Lady Lou, and took a large party of local friends and business men over the gardens this afternoon.

The schooner Lottie Carson, Capt. Stephens, which has arrived from Eureka, has a damaged appearance, having collided with an unknown schooner off Point Arena on the voyage south. Her bulwarks are stove in, her anchor stock broken and her cat-head gone. The collision occurred at night, and the name of the other sailing vessel was not made out. The Lottie Carson, at the time of the collision, was on the port tack, and was supposed to get out of the way, which Capt. Stevens claims he did. According to marine rules, the unknown vessel should have held to her course, which she failed to do.

The dredger Pacific, which will dredge the ships' slips for the Southern Pacific on Timm's Point is ready to begin work tomorrow. The slips will be 400 feet wide, 3400 feet in length, and have a depth of 30 feet. The work will necessitate the removal of over one million cubic yards of material, and the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars.

QUAKERS HOPEFUL.

Although the Quakers didn't get quite as many points against U.S.C. as Occidental, they are in better condition than they were a week ago, and they expect to make things lively for the Presbyterians. They think that they could beat the same team Occidental sent to U.S.C., that is, the team without Bird. However, in the 100-yard dash, they expect Osborn and Feeler to crowd Bird, as both men have been showing better form this week than ever before.

In the 220 they expect a like performance from Osborn and Adams, while in the 440, they think Marshburn, who won the event against U.S.C., will take second, and Holton, who was unable to compete last week on account of difficulty with his studies, to take third in both the 880, in the mile they expect to put Mills and Blair both across the line ahead. In the two-mile they expect White to win, with Beeson an easy second, and Sharpless a possible third. In the high hurdles they concede first place to Occidental, with Little second, and Tebbetts third, while in the low-stock event, they do not expect better than third.

The high jump they believe will go to Occidental, with Osborn second and Tebbetts a possible third. In the broad jump they expect Feeler to push Neuman hard, with Reichard a possible third. The pole vault they concede to Merrell, with Williams, who was unable to compete against U.S.C., in second place. In the shot-put they again think they will have a look in for first place with Marshburn, but are not counting on him taking better than second, with Kirby or Feeler in third place. The hammer-throw they concede first place to the Presbyterians, but expect Feeler and Reichard to land second and third.

The timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent pneumonia.—[Adv.

DEVOURING ST. HELENA.

An Interesting Insect Which Is Doing Immense Damage on the Island.

The Island of St. Helena seems doomed to come to a bad end; at least, as a place of residence. Rats have overrun it to the point that the government has offered a penny for every rat's tail taken to headquarters.

But that isn't the worst thing. The termite has attacked Jamestown itself.

Woe to the town that becomes infested with this insect, says the Pall Mall Magazine. Once the houses have been invaded, millions upon millions of the little antlike creatures set to work to perforate beams, flooring, paneling and furniture with an infinite number of interior tunnels, of the existence of which the occupants have not the slightest suspicion until everything collapses like a house of cards.

The termite is a worker in the dark and respects only the exterior of the objects it attacks. The most solid looking table may in reality be but a thin shell of wood which will crumble beneath your fingers the moment you have touched it. The very perch upon which your parrot is standing may be but the semblance of a solid support, and will one day or other give way beneath the astonished bird.

At Tonnay-Charenta, where many houses were completely undermined, the dining-room floor of one of them suddenly gave way one evening while the master of the house was giving a dinner party and precipitated both himself and his guests into the cellar. At Rochelle the termites took possession of the prefecture and the arsenal, and their presence was not discovered until they had devastated the government offices, the official apartments, the courtyard and even the garden. The archives were almost completely destroyed, the termites having tunneled the woodwork, pierced boxes and portfolios and eaten most of the administrative documents. Only the exterior sheets of these valuable papers had been left intact in accordance with the usual custom of this most interesting insect.

Like bees and wasps and ants, the various species of termites form a fascinating object of study.

The members of the colony consist of a queen, a mate insect, soldiers and workers. The soldiers, which are in the minority, are charged with the defense of the home. Their head is almost as large as the remainder of their body. Their crossed mandibles are very powerful.

Like the workers, they are blind. But they are well able to attend to their role of defender, as the natives of termite infested countries well know. As soon as an attack is made on the nest the soldier termites rush forth and throw themselves upon the aggressors, who, times without number, have retreated with bleeding legs and feet. Even Europeans do not always escape uninjured.

If the attack is repulsed, the soldiers strike a succession of short blows on the ground. At this signal the workers assemble, and, under a strong guard, repair whatever damage has been done to the nest. Their principal duty, however, is to attend on the queen and to bring up the incredible number of young.

This queen is the object of the most extraordinary solicitude on the part of every member of the colony. Yet she is a prisoner, a closely guarded captive from the moment she has taken up her burden until the day of her death.

Her cell is the largest single habitation in the whole nest. It is several inches in length, but a few inches in height, and contains just enough room for her and her fellow-prisoner, the male termite, to move about.

The soldier is double the length of the worker, and weighs as much as fifteen workers. The male weighs as much as thirty workers. The queen, who sometimes measures as much as seven inches, is equal in weight to 30,000 workers.

A termite's nest sometimes grows to enormous proportions. In Africa and on the Island of St. Helena their homes are several feet high, and in some places in the former country are so numerous that travelers have called them termite villages.

BURNING VESSEL SIGHTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The wireless telegraph station on the Farallones reports that a four-masted vessel on fire has been sighted from those islands, which are about fifteen miles west of the Golden Gate.

MAHONEY RANCH SOLD.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The Mahoney ranch of 7000 acres, near Santa Ynez, in Santa Barbara county, is reported sold to the Southern California Oil Syndicate, a corporation composed of London capitalists and oil men of this State. The price was not made public.

TEETH preserved to middle age are pretty sure to last out one's life time. The greatest known preservative of the teeth is SOZODONT. Why? Because being an Alkaline and Antiseptic Liquid, it penetrates the minutest crevices of the teeth, destroying the deadly mouth acids and purifying the whole tooth structure.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Runaway Captured.

After eluding an officer for five days, Earl King was apprehended last night on Broadway. The lad is 16 years old and ran away from the McKinley Home. He said he was tired of the monotony of the home, and decided to go away for a while.

Accused of Theft.

George Finnie was arrested yesterday and charged with petty larceny. He is accused of stealing a harness from the stables of the Anderson-Chandler Company. Finnie explained that he was hungry. He pawned the harness to buy food, he says.

Forgery the Charge.

C. W. Draper was arrested yesterday and charged with forgery. He is accused of cashing a check on the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, the 9th inst., for $30. The name of W. W. Cahill, assistant superintendent of the Tonopah and Tidewater Railway, was forged, it is alleged.

Fuel Gas Kills Her.

Mrs. J. H. Horstman of No. 1203 El Molino street, died yesterday morning as a result of being overcome by gas at her home Monday morning. Mrs. Horstman was found on the kitchen floor unconscious. A gas jet was open and the room was filled with gas fumes. Mrs. Horstman was aged 63, and the wife of J. H. Horstman.

Francis Murphy's Meeting.

Francis Murphy will take "Honor Bright" for his subject at Blanchard Hall on Sunday night. Though not so strong physically as he was a few years ago, Mr. Murphy continues to be a marvel on the platform, where his eloquent flights are as full of fire as of old, and those who wish seats must go early. T. W. Weisendanger will preside, and Mr. and Mrs. Baker, the blind singers, and Samuel Todd will give special music numbers.

Arson Suspected.

Investigation of the fire which damaged the Macleod apartments early Thursday morning was continued yesterday. Detectives detailed on the case made only a partial report. The police are convinced the fire was of incendiary origin. Malcolm Macleod, dean of the Los Angeles School of Art and Design, stated yesterday that no one connected with the school is suspected of setting the place on fire. He stated that the alarm was turned in soon after the fire was discovered. He said the flames had smoldered for some time, however, before it was known the apartments were burning.

Their Condition Serious.

Victims of the boiler explosion on Santa Fé avenue Thursday afternoon were resting comfortably yesterday. The wrecked engine is the second of the Salt Lake locomotives to explode in like manner recently. All of the severely injured have been removed to the California Hospital. Engineer J. F. Taylor will recover. Fireman Louis L. Pettit is horribly burned and may die. Marcelino Espinosa is also horribly burned. None suffered internal injuries and none have broken bones, but the large area of flesh burns on Pettit and Espinosa makes their cases most serious.

Ten More Postoffice Clerks.

Under a recent order from the Postoffice Department ten additional clerks have been allowed the Los Angeles office. They are to be of the $800 a year class. A civil-service examination will be held Saturday, April 6, to fill these positions. Meantime Postmaster Flint has put ten men to work, as there are available funds on hand. Under the recent order from the department increasing the pay of clerks, which takes effect July 1, the $700-a-year salary will be abolished. The clerk who starts to work at $800 a year will receive $900 during the second year, and a yearly increase of $100 a year until he reaches $1200, provided, of course, he proves competent. If he proves extra good, he may finally reach the limit —$1500 a year.

SPANISH DINNER PLEASES.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

MONROVIA, March 15.—In the gay whirl of society for which this city is noted, no function of recent date has equaled the Spanish supper, campfire and tallyho ride given by Mr. and Mrs. W. Judson Smith yesterday. It was strictly a Syracuse party, given to the former residents of the old New York State. Twenty-five were present to enjoy the hospitality of "The Croft" for which it is famous. It is beautifully adapted for entertainment and yesterday its artistic effect shown to excellent advantage.

A Spanish dinner was served. To the tourists this was a great delight, for it was the first time they had ever had the opportunity of experiencing the "real thing."

Following the elaborate dinner the party enjoyed a tallyho ride about the city and down through the fertile orange belt. The guests of the day included Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Seymour, Miss Mary Munro and Miss Marguerite Jay Coe of Monrovia, Mrs. Thomas Rice, Mrs. C. F. Hahn and Mrs. Emily Sanford of Los Angeles, Dr. Wright and Mrs. George W. Benton of Pasadena. Tourists guests were Mmes. Charles Hubbard, Charles Hubbard, Jr., Miss Hubbard and Miss Ida Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Larabie and Messrs. Charles M. and Arthur Warner, Dean R. Wilson and Mrs. Charles E. Ide.

AFTER FORTY YEARS.

After a separation of forty years Val Wilby was this week permitted to see his sister. She has lived in New England and distance and not a good knowledge of the whereabouts of each other had played their part in the long separation. At the time the sister arrived here Mr. Wilby was at Tonopah, but a telegram was soon on its way and the reunion was a happy one.

OCCIDENTAL JUNIORS.

Tennyson's "Princess" Produced In College Chapel Last Night to Delighted Audience.

The junior class of Occidental College presented Tennyson's "Princess" last night before a large crowd in the college chapel. The affair was a great success in all respects. Miss Nino Brown, who played the title role, gave an excellent interpretation of the part; and Miss Katherine Darling as "Melissa," and Miss Grace Whitcomb as "Lady Psyche," were applauded heartily.

A feature of the play was the beautiful stage setting. The back and sides of the stage were covered with delicate green foliage and flowers, and the wings were solid banks of living green and many colored flowers. Between the acts, the college quartette rendered musical numbers, and after the final curtain, the junior class sang several catchy college songs.

COMMISSION DISBANDS.

Consolidation Body Formally Adopts Report Already Published, Scoring Railroad.

As already forecasted in The Times, the Consolidation Commission met last night and disbanded, after adopting a report which stingingly rebukes the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and Senator Savage. The report has already been published in The Times, and a very few changes were made in it before it was formally accepted.

These changes were all directed toward making the document a stronger denunciation of the railroad influences which defeated the efforts of the commission. In reference to Senator Savage's action in committee on the consolidation act, it states that it believes that "in so doing he was aiding and abetting the plans and purposes of the Southern Pacific Railway Company."

The part that Pasadena and Long Beach took in the question is also pointed out.

The report is signed by S. A. Butler, president of the commission, and by A. P. Fleming, the secretary.

IN HONOR OF YALE.

Twenty-six Alumni in Southern California Hold Annual Banquet and Discuss Progress.

Twenty-six "Sons of Eli" gathered at the California Club last night for the annual banquet of the Yale Club of Southern California. Among the men present were graduates from classes dating back as far as 1859, and the progress that the great American university has made in the course of the past half century was the theme of many of the speakers. Men prominent in all walks of life gathered about the board to honor Yale.

The programme included the following addresses: "The College Man in Public Life," by Dr. George A. Gates, president of Pomona College; "The Doings of Today," Henry E. Howland; "Old Penn," Dr. William A. Edwards, University of Pennsylvania, and "Undergraduates Yale," A. Crawford Greene,. Sherman D. Thacher, '83, was toastmaster.

The officers of the club for the coming year are: Dr. F. B. Kellogg, president; T. G. Adams, vice-president; C. M. Latimer, secretary.

SUMMER EXCURSIONS.

Southern Pacific Announces Special Rates to Places at Which Big Conventions Are to Be Held.

The Southern Pacific, through Traffic Manager Charles S. Fee, announced yesterday its intention of making special excursion rates between the East and West this year on the occasion of the various conventions and other meetings which are to be held from time to time. Persons who desire to visit the Jamestown Exposition may purchase tickets on certain days in May, June, July and September at practically one fare for the round trip and during the same months, and including August, one-fare rates will prevail between California and Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Paul, Memphis, New Orleans, St. Louis and other eastern points. Special rates will be made on account of the American Medical Association, Atlantic City, June 7; Knights Templar conclave, Saratoga, July 9; Theatrical Mechanical Association, St. Louis, July 3; Y. P.C.U., Boston, July 10; the Elks, Philadelphia, July 15; national encampment of the G.A.R., Saratoga, in August; the Eagles, Norfolk, September 3; International Christian Endeavor Association, Seattle, July 16.

The rates on account of the Shriners' meeting in Los Angeles in May will be one first-class one-way fare for the round trip. This will make the fare $45 from Denver; $50 from Omaha, Council Bluffs and Kansas City, $42.50 from Chicago; $57.50 from St. Louis and New Orleans, and corresponding rates from other points. For the N.E.A. meeting in this city the rate will be the same as for the Shriners plus $2. These rates are open to the general public and are not confined to members of the various organizations.

Notice of Sale

OF THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL LANDS AND BUILDINGS AT LOS ANGELES.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School at Los Angeles, California, will sell the lands and buildings thereon of the State Normal School situate on the Southwest corner of Grand Avenue and Vernon Streets in the City of Los Angeles, California, which said lands are particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point in the West line of Grand Avenue, formerly Charity Street, Three Hundred (300) feet Northerly from the intersection of the North line of Sixth Street with the West line of Grand Avenue; running thence Northerly following the West line of Grand Avenue, Three Hundred Ninety (390) feet; thence Westerly and parallel with Sixth Street, Five Hundred Seventy-eight (578) feet; thence Southerly at right angles to Sixth Street, Three Hundred Ninety (390) feet; thence Easterly parallel with Sixth Street, Five Hundred Seventy-eight (578) feet to the place of beginning, and being the property formerly known as the Bellevue Terrace, together with the buildings thereon, and known as the State Normal School Buildings and property.

Said sale will be made at Public Auction, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., on Saturday, the 6th day of April, A. D., 1907, at the Grand Avenue doorway (main entrance) of said State Normal School Building.

Said lands and buildings will be sold to the highest bidder and the terms of said sale will be cash, ten (10%) per cent. of amount of bid, to be paid immediately on acceptance of bid, and the balance within thirty (30) days on delivery of deed, and confirmation of sale by said Board, and no offer or bid will be accepted of less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars, and said Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and all bids and offers therefor, and also reserves the right to continue the day of sale from time to time, and as many times as in their judgment may be necessary, and also to appoint another day or days of sale, and publish notice thereof, until the said lands and buildings shall have been sold, but said lands and buildings will be sold as a whole or as one lot and parcel, and at one price of not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars.

Said Board will furnish a certificate of title showing the title to be good and perfect, and will cause to be executed and delivered to the purchaser a good and sufficient deed of conveyance of said lands and buildings in the usual form of grant, bargain and sale.

And as further terms and conditions of said sale, said Board reserves the right of possession of said lands and buildings for the use of said Normal School until July 1, 1907, and the successful bidder will be required concurrently with the delivery of deed to execute and deliver to said Board of Trustees a lease of said lands and buildings for the use of said Normal School for the term of one year, commencing July 1, 1907, and ending July 1, 1908, at the monthly rent of Twenty-five Hundred ($2500.00) Dollars per month to be paid monthly during said term according to law.

Said sale will include only said lands and buildings, and said Board excepts and reserves from said sale all furnishings and fixtures, a list of which is included in the resolution and minutes of said Board directing this sale, and for further particulars regarding the details reference may be had thereto.

Said sale will be made pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of California authorizing and directing such sale.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School at Los Angeles.

DICKENS SITUATION, THE DEVIL BLAMED.

Public School Teachers Accuse the Matron of Christian Orphanage of Cruelty to Charges, and She Says They Meddle—Pupils Talk.

A DICKENS situation involving Oliver Twist episodes and sins many against helpless childhood, has arisen in the City of the Angels, in a day and generation that ought to know better.

The matron of an institution having the care of nearly thirty little children under 10 years of age, receiving support from the State as orphans and half orphans, is charged with the most insidious cruelty to the little ones at her mercy.

The institution is the Christian Orphanage, which should be written with a large question mark after the first word, according to a number of people. The matron is Miss Ada Bisbee, and the accusers are the teachers of the Casco-street school, where more than twenty of the small people are in attendance.

The orphanage is under the control of the Florence Crittenton Home directorate, but the man in immediate supervision of affairs is A. C. Jeffers. The home is situated out in the beautiful rolling hills in the northwestern part of the city, overlooking an exquisite park view, and not far from the Casco-street school, whose principal and teachers have almost had nervous prostration over the woes of their favorite charges, since last October, when the new matron, Miss Bisbee, was installed.

JEFFERS BLAMES THE DEVIL.

Miss Gertrude Horgan, principal of the school, has had the children from that institution under her care for three years, and has shared all their joys and sorrows. Her heart has been torn over the conditions, as she represents them. Miss Bisbee says that Miss Horgan interferes with her discipline, and A. C. Jeffers, under whose supervision the home is carried on, says that the devil is at the bottom of it all. But he evidently believes that his satanic majesty has been tampering with the teachers, and not the matron, who has his cordial support.

The former matron, Mrs. Flora Sallee, who was at the orphanage for six years, according to friends of the children, was an ideal mother, and the youngsters were as happy as though their own mothers had them in their care. It was an ill preparation for the new matron, who is said to be severe and tyrannical, with a penchant for dieting the children, which has almost resulted in starving them.

Little things dropped here and there by the small people early in the year as to the matron's unkindness were severely frowned upon at school, as tale-bearing is not encouraged, but finally some things happened which effectually opened the eyes of the teachers. One small boy, an especial pet and a delicate child, was found, one cold, rainy morning, filling his blouse with the filthy scraps of bread from the garbage pails in the rear of nearby residences. He was so hungry. "Aunt Ada" had sent him to bed without any supper because he was naughty, and she had slapped him in the morning because, like Oliver Twist, he had asked for more mush.

LITTLE IN THE BASKETS.

Miss Horgan took the poor, cold little fellow into the school and fed him. Then she peeped into the lunch baskets of the other children. Each had two crackers and an apple with which to sustain themselves during the long day until supper time, when according to custom, some of them would have to go without that meal also. The teachers held an indignation meeting. It was raining and all that could be procured in the shape of food were a number of loaves of bread and some molasses, and such a feast was held in the school that day that the teachers will never forget. It was painful, they one and all assert, to see the wolfish hunger with which the children devoured the food. "I thought we could never fill them up," one of them declared.

An older girl was questioned and she told many things not at all creditable to the matron. She told of spoiled fish given to the children, and of being severely rebuked herself when she mentioned the fact that the fish was not good. "Why did you say anything?" the matron is reported to have said to her, "the children would not have noticed it." Very soon the children were ill, presumably from spoiled fish.

Miss Horgan said she went to see the superintendent of the school, and he referred her to the supervisor of the orphanage, A. C. Jeffers. "When I presented the matter to him," said she, "he blazed out at me, saying: 'It is all a matter of personal spite on your part against that matron, you ought to go down on your knees and beg her forgiveness for criticising her as you have done, and prejudicing the minds of those children against her.'"

Miss Horgan went to Judge Wilbur instead. Judge Wilbur is on the board of the Florence Crittenton Home, and he sent a peremptory order out that the children be given enough to eat at once. Since then food has been more plentiful, and the children are looking like different beings, so the teachers assert, but the incident has caused a bitter enmity against the principal in the heart of Miss Bisbee, and it is claimed she has been making the children suffer for it. One fascinating mite of a boy, who still has a baby twist to his tongue, remarked yesterday in dramatic fashion: "Aunt Ada say, 'Miss Horgan not de boss 'dis home.'" "Any interference is resented by making things hard for the children, and I tremble," said Miss Horgan, "for the time when vacation comes and she knows there is nobody to take notice of what goes on there."

BED AS A PUNISHMENT.

Yesterday a delicate, shrinking little fellow, who has to be encouraged to say a word of his own accord, came to school with a long cut on his neck. The watchful eye of the principal saw it. The child said a man at work there had struck him with a rawhide whip because he had refused to do something he was told. Another child whose faults the matron is trying to cure is condemned at the present time to go to bed immediately every day after school, for a month to come, and to have only bread and water for supper. The teachers are wild over the alleged wrongs of their cherished pupils, for they say they are treated with a harshness that is withering to any good instincts of childhood. One little unfortunate was trying to get over his habit of pilfering and was really making some headway, but he is constantly punished now, and the children say that the matron calls him a dirty sneak and a liar, and much of his time is spent in bed on a "diet."

From all that can be learned from the children the larger boys spend nearly every Saturday and Sunday in bed as punishment, besides being whipped, for wrongdoing.

When the affair was reported to A. C. Jeffers yesterday he declared that Miss Bisbee is a good disciplinarian, but not nearly as severe as his own mother was, and to his mind she makes an excellent matron. Her accusers give her credit for keeping the children clean, but they say little else that is good.

HE'S AN APACHE FIGHTER.

Three of them are in the Indian police service, and their leader is old Capt. Hosea Escalante, one of the best known Indians of the Yuma Reservation. The captain saw years of service fighting Apaches. His aid has been valuable to the government service in quelling disturbances during the early days. He is now between 65 and 70, but as spry as either of his two sons, Joseph or Charles. These are also in the United States Indian Service, and are strapping men 35 years of age.

The party here is in charge of Ira C. Deever, agent of the Yuma Reservation. They are to testify before the grand jury in several cases for alleged illegal selling of liquor to Indians.

The remaining two members of the party are Louise Papel and Steve Kelley. These two have refused to cut their hair and continue to wear it hanging down their back. They were decorated gaily with yellow ribbons tied through their hair. The Indians have been in the city two days and will leave today for their home.

HAIR SET AFIRE IN AUTO JAR.

MACHINE COLLIDES WITH CAR AND BURNS UP.

Spectacular Accident on West Washington Results in Injury to Four Persons, and Narrow Escapes from Death—Miss Ming Saved from Flames by Ralph Vallikett.

A shrieking woman whose hair caught fire from the explosion of an automobile; three persons thrown violently in the street; a mashed front of a street car, and the calling out of the fire department to quench the flames that consumed the automobile, were the startling features of a spectacular accident last night at 9:55 o'clock on West Washington street. That none was killed is remarkable.

Dr. F. M. Bell of No. 1153 West Jefferson street, Miss C. Ming of No. 1057 West Thirty-eighth street and Ralph Vallikett of No. 129 West 10th street had been downtown in Dr. Bell's automobile and were going west on Washington street to Miss Ming's residence. At New England street, while going fast, Dr. Bell tried to cross Washington street in front of a rapidly moving car going east. As might have been expected, the car and the auto came together with a bang. The auto struck the car on the "northeast" corner.

The force of the collision turned the auto completely over, and off to one side of the track, hurling the occupants in a heap into the street. In the smash the gasoline tank of the auto was torn open, and in an instant the blazing fluid had enveloped the machine, Miss Ming's hair was set on fire, but Vallikett proved himself a hero by subduing the flames with his hands, and then dragging her from under the fiery wreckage. Vallikett and Miss Ming were in the rear seat, and were thrown half under the auto when it turned over. Dr. Bell was thrown clear of the wreck. A gash was torn in his right leg from his knee upward for six or eight inches, and he was painfully burned by the gasoline flames. Miss Ming was burned and bruised by the fall. Strange to say Vallikett was hurt but little.

The noise of the explosion attracted neighbors for a block around and they rushed to the scene to watch the novelty of a burning automobile. Some one telephoned an alarm to the department, and a chemical engine arrived in time to extinguish the fire that had not burned itself out. The auto is a complete wreck, and the blackened remains were hauled to one side of the street. It bore No. 6581 Cal.

The injured were taken to a near-by residence, and later Miss Ming was sent to the California Hospital.

The occupants of the automobile were not the only ones injured in the wreck, for when the machine hit the car J. J. Casper of No. 139½ North Spring street was cut on the nose by flying glass that fell from the broken vestibuled front.

The conductor in charge of the car was R. F. Bashaw, his number being 1282, and his motorneer was J. E. Zeak, No. 397. The car was Washington street No. 361. Both the motorneer and Dr. Bell say that they were going at a very moderate speed.

AFTER MONEY OF SOLDIERS.

Human Vultures Preying on Home Veterans.

Officials Say City Is Unable to Stop Outrage.

More than $100,000 was distributed yesterday afternoon to the 2300 veterans at the Soldiers' Home. The payment of pensions was begun at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and was completed before 5 o'clock.

It was the quarterly distribution, and was the signal—more than ever—for a gathering of the human cormorants from far and near at Sawtelle, to prey upon the beneficiaries.

It was stated yesterday that fully fifteen "blind pigs," "bootleggers" and gamblers had established themselves in the little town of Sawtelle, adjoining the Soldiers' Home grounds, and were simply awaiting the payment of the veterans to begin their fleecing games and their illegal sale of liquors.

It is a commonly acknowledged fact that Sawtelle is honeycombed with "joints," and "blind pigs;" but the officials of the little city declared yesterday that they were powerless to collect sufficient evidence to secure convictions.

C. J. Nellis, president of the Board of Trustees; O. W. Jewett, City Recorder, and W. B. B. Taylor, City Attorney, each stated yesterday that not a single case had been taken up against the illegal liquor sellers, or gamblers, since the city of Sawtelle was incorporated and that, so far, they had been unable to secure evidence that would be admissible in a court.

BLIND PIG TRUST.

It was stated further by the officials that they were aware that a "trust," or "union" existed among the bootleggers and blind-pig owners, and that a system of signals was in vogue, by which information was passed from one to the other when attempts were to be made to raid places under suspicion.

By order of Congress, the canteen at the Soldiers' Home was closed March 4, and is to remain closed until the end of the present fiscal year. This shuts off all opportunity for the old soldier with a habit of taking an occasional glass of beer from satisfying this appetite at the home.

The uselessness of attempting to change the habits of gray-haired veterans by shutting the canteen was shown yesterday afternoon by the actions of many of them as soon as they received their pension money. There was at once a rush for Sawtelle and Santa Monica, and many a thirst, nursed since March 4, was slaked.

The closed canteen has its disadvantages, say Sawtelle citizens, and one of these is that it forces the drinking men in the home to get their drinks elsewhere—which generally means the city of Sawtelle.

GAMBLERS GET BUSY.

For the ensuing two or three days—as long as the pension money is plentiful—Sawtelle people look for much drunkenness, and the evidence of work by gamblers and "sure-thing" men.

Yesterday afternoon two special officers were sworn in to assist City Marshal Keener, who has to put in about eighteen hours a day on ordinary occasions.

It is probable that the District Attorney will be called upon to assist the Sawtelle City Attorney in securing evidence to convict violators of the law.

The Good Templars and the Women's Christian Temperance Union have combined forces, and are circulating petitions among Sawtelle citizens, asking the City Trustees to take some immediate action toward driving the blind pigs and gambling dens out of the town. They will go in a body to the meeting of the Trustees on next Monday evening, and will ask that definite action be taken at once.

BILLIARD HALL UNDER BAN.

These organizations also include the one billiard hall of the town in their condemnation, and ask that no further license be issued to it after the expiration of the three months' license under which it now operates.

City Attorney W. B. B. Taylor yesterday stated to a Times reporter that he believed it is the duty of the District Attorney to take up the matter of prosecuting liquor sellers and gamblers at Sawtelle, notwithstanding the fact that it is an incorporated city. He cited the provisions of the statutes which require the District Attorney to prosecute charges against any one committing these offenses within a mile and a half of any home, retreat or asylum for the use of old soldiers, and stated that while he had been unable to secure evidence which he thought would stand in court, outsiders would probably be more successful.

Every city official approached, yesterday, declared himself fully in accord with the idea of driving the tough element out of Sawtelle—but the potent fact remains that not a single case has ever been taken up against this coterie, and they have again assembled to transact their nefarious traffic and rob the old soldiers.

Gov. LaGrange of the Soldiers' Home has taken an extra precaution for today, in having ordered "outside inspection" for 2 o'clock this afternoon. Every soldier is supposed to be on hand at this time; and by this means it is hoped many will be deterred from remaining at the drinking places as long as their pension money lasts.

It is said that fully 1600 members of the Home will be affected by the recent change in the pension laws, granting pensions to all veterans who have reached the age of 62 years. The rating for this age is $12 a month; the veteran who has reached the age of 70 years will get $15 a month, and the veteran, aged 75, or over, $20.

This will make a material increase in the pension rolls, and is a still further incentive to the rascally "bootlegger" to be present on quarterly pension days.

JOSEPH TRUMBULL ("BUTTERMILK JOE") of the Soldiers' Home, and his treasured violin. They were buried together yesterday.

IN DEATH HE KEEPS VIOLIN.

VETERAN LIES WITH IT IN HIS LAST SLEEP.

"Buttermilk Joe," One of the Familiar Figures at the Soldiers' Home, Has the Beloved Instrument Which Was His Companion for Half a Century Buried With Him.

It is through his wish that the instrument goes to the grave with him.

The other day, realising that the end was near, he sent for this old friend, J. B. Wilcox, who is the home undertaker, and confided the violin to his care. He exacted from Wilcox a promise that the keepsake should be buried with him.

"I'm sure I'll rest easier with my old companion with me," Trumbull said.

With the acquiescence of Maj. O. C. McNary, home surgeon, the request was complied with and the body of the veterain rests with the prized possession which he found an unfailing source of comfort in life.

"Buttermilk Joe" is the name which stuck to Trumbull. He had a small ranch near Sawtelle, where he kept a number of cows. He was granted permission by former Gov. Rowland to establish a buttermilk business on the home grounds. It became a popular resort and so the name was applied.

He was never so happy as when rasping away in "hoe-down" style on the old violin, which he said he had purchased on March 4, 1861, wherewith to celebrate the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln as President. Joe thought more of his violin than of any other possession. One time, when Joe was chief baker, and the old shack of a bakery then in service caught fire, Joe first brought out his old violin to secure it from destruction, and then returned to assist in quenching the flames.

Trumbull was mustered for the Civil War as comporal of Co. K, One Hundred and Eighth Illinois Infantry, in 1862, and discharged in 1865. He was admitted to the Soldiers' Home from Rawlins, Wyo., in 1892, was la native of Canada and was aged 77.

MERCHANTS INDIGNANT.

Will Fight Ordinance Prohibiting the Standing of Teams Within Forty Feet of Car Crossings.

A test case is to be made on the provisions of the new ordinance regulating the standing of teams on the city streets within forty feet of any street-car crossing. The Retail Merchants' Exchange, at a meeting yesterday afternoon, decided to take up the next case in which one of its members is an interested party and secure a court decision on the matter.

The merchants claim that the ordinance is unjust to business men who happen to be located within the forty-foot limit, and that it really shuts them off from the use of their street frontage, curtails their privileges and causes both inconvenience and extra expense.

Members of the exchange feel highly indignant over the arrests of their employés during the past week, and they will urge an immediate amendment of the ordinance.

The forty-foot provision was recommended by the Railway Accident Commission of the City Council, and incorporated into an ordinance about a month ago. At that time it was urged that this provision would tend to avert congestion at street corners, and would render the boarding of and alighting from street cars much safer.

The inconvenience to the merchant who happens to be within the limit, when there are goods to be delivered to his store, or orders to send out, seems to have been overlooked by the Council.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Mayor Harper will sign today the ordinance fixing a license tax of one-fourth of a cent a square foot per quarter on billboards; but he declines to approve the ordinance regulating the placing of advertising signs; he thinks it should be made more stringent.

Melville Dozier, member of the Board of Education, is holding a $150 a month place under the Board of Public Works; complaint has been made that the State law is violated in permitting one person to hold two positions under the city.

Policemen and firemen have been instructed to report in writing the condition of the streets on their beats, and in their districts; this marks the beginning of the Mayor's good-streets crusade.

Elmer C. King spent a distressing hour on the witness stand in the course of the hearing of a petition by his wife, Ruth E. King, for temporary maintenance, pending the trial of her divorce suit.

Miss Lilia Thompson, who was arrested on a charge of stealing a cloak, told Justice Fredericksen that she was the victim of a mistake. She was given a suspended sentence.

M. M. Martinez and G. Herigoyan, who are accused of enticing young girls to a club for immoral purposes, will be tried on Wednesday.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MAYOR BREAKS VETO RECORD.

SAYS CITY LAWS SHOULD BE MORE STRINGENT.

Favors Greater Restrictions About Placing Billboards on Vacant Lots. Advises That Property Frontage Signatures Should Be Required. Garbage Ordinance a Puzzler.

Mayor Harper is establishing a new record for the number of ordinances vetoed by a chief executive. Following his disapproval of the utility ordinances he is now formulating a veto message for the bill board regulation ordinance passed last Monday by the Council. He also expects to veto one of the recent ordinances regulating the disposal of garbage, possibly both.

The Mayor has been hesitating over the bill board ordinance; it carries some things that are much to his liking, and others of which he disapproves. Secretary Kennedy cleared the situation yesterday afternoon when he discovered that the bill board measure consists of two ordinances, one regulating the boards and the other fixing the license. Today the Mayor will sign the license law and veto the other.

During the week the Mayor has held conferences with several councilmen to discuss the vexed question of bill board regulation. More than 100 business firms have petitioned the Mayor and Council not to place any restrictions about bill posting that will have a tendency to restrict the use of poster printing and sign painting. It has been represented that more than 300 persons in Los Angeles earn their livelihood by reason of the bill boards.

This is the financial side of the question. The ethics are discussed by the members of the Civic League and of the Municipal Art League. These ask that some action be taken to restrict indistriminate advertising all over the face of the landscape.

Mayor Harper has expressed himself in favor of an ordinance regulating the placing of bill boards to the extent that it shall be necessary for the posting companies to secure signatures of a majority of the property frontage in a block and to obtain a permit from the Police Commissioner before the boards can be placed.

To this the Civic Leaguers add, "let the police regulate the bill boards and there will be none."

Members of the Council are trying to strike a golden mean in which the bill board industry may not be throttled and at the same time the residence district may be toned down so that they will not resemble so closely the highway leading to a circus.

The Mayor approves the ordinance fixing a tax on bill boards, although he would like to see the rate half a cent a square foot in place of one-fourth a cent. This ordinance he will sign.

At first Mr. Harper was inclined to stand out for half a cent per square foot. Then City Attorney Hewitt advised him that a license tax which would have any appearance of being excessive would be declared illegal by the courts. It has been intimated that the bill posting companies will appeal to the Superior Court for relief from the one-fourth cent rate. This rate would bring the city a revenue of about $15,000 a year from bill boards.

Over the disposal of garbage the Mayor is plainly vexed. A week ago the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association sent a committee to him asking that he veto a recent ordinance passed by the Council. The Mayor agreed. Anticipating the executive disapproval the Council passed a second ordinance last Monday.

Just as the Mayor was formulating his veto message on the first ordinance yesterday, the Committee from the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association came back and withdrew their objections; they said it is better than the supplemental ordinance passed last Monday.

Last night the Mayor intimated that he may veto both ordinances and ask the Council to begin consideration of garbage disposal anew.

HOLDING TWO PLACES.

SCHOOL BOARD AND AQUEDUCT.

Melville Dozier, member of the Board of Education has received an appointment from the Board of Public Works, to a place in the Aqueduct Bureau at a salary of $150 a month. Mr. Dozier has not resigned from the Board of Education, and the Civil Service Commission has declined to certify to his appointment until it receives legal advice that a man may hold two positions under the city at the same time.

"I did not know until noon today that Mr. Dozier was drawing pay from the Aqueduct Board," said City Attorney Hewitt yesterday afternoon, "Mr. Dozier came to me at noon and asked for an opinion. Off hand I should say that it is opposed to the policy of our city government to permit one man to occupy several positions. Mr. Dozier is an elective official.

"When I took Mr. Wilson for a deputy in my office he promptly resigned from the Board of Education. He did not even ask me for an opinion."

Chairman Anderson of the Board of Public Works said that he spoke of his place on the Board of Education at the time the appointment was made, and warned Dozier that he was taking the place at his own risk. Mr. Dozier then said that he would like to remain on the Board of Education, as he believes that his years of training in the State Normal School peculiarly fits him for a place on the board. "I serve the city there and receive no salary," he said. "With me it is a labor of love that I am reluctant to relinquish. But if it is a question between the two positions, I must resign from the board."

Other applicants for the place of assistant auditor in the aqueduct department would like to see Mr. Dozier disqualified by reason of his accepting a salaried position while an elective official. Mr. Dozier did not stand at the head of the eligible list when appointed.

If Mr. Dozier is permitted to resign, it will mean two withdrawals from the board in ten weeks in order to accept salaried positions under the city government. His successor will be appointed by the Board of Education.

REPORT BAD STREETS.

MAYOR STARTS CAMPAIGN.

Mayor Harper is determined to learn what progress is being made in the amelioration of the condition of the city's streets. Acting under his direction, Secretary Kennedy sent the following communication yesterday to Chief Kern of the police department and Chief Lips of the fire department:

I am directed by Mayor Harper to request you to instruct men attached to your department to make careful observation of the streets which they patrol and to file written reports with you for immediate use.

The Mayor is informed that the streets of Los Angeles were never in worse condition than at the present time. While these reports have come from prominent and reliable citizens, the Mayor thinks it possible that they have been exaggerated and deems it important that the true condition be known.

The Mayor desires that your men point out all defects. In cases where streets are and have been impassable, state the length of time, causes and all other information that can be gathered.

In cases where patrol wagons and fire apparatus have become stuck in mud holes he requests detailed reports.

When the Mayor receives his reports from the police and fire departments he will be in a position to take up with the Board of Public Works in detail the condition of the streets. They are so bad at the present time that most of the auto cars for "seeing Los Angeles have been discontinued. The Mayor hopes to have them in passable condition by May 1.

City Hall Waifs.

The Board of Public Works has sent H. N. Beecher of the electrical department to New York for the purpose of attending a convention of electricians to be held there next week. In addition to his salary, the board appropriated $275 for the expenses of the trip.

For street lighting during the month of February the city paid $11,594.

Citizens of East Los Angeles have petitioned the Council to create a new school district in the territory bounded by Mission road, State street, Griffin avenue and Marengo street.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SPENDS SORRY DAY IN COURT.

HUSBAND, SUED FOR DIVORCE, MUST SUPPORT WIFE.

King Also Ordered to Make Provision for Infant and to Provide Funds for Better Half's Attorneys' Fees. Protests Inability to Do so but Judge Is Unmoved.

Mrs. Ruth E. King, whose name appears as plaintiff or defendant in no less than six complaints filed in the County Clerk's office in the past few months, was in court again yesterday afternoon. The occasion was a petition for maintenance and attorneys' fees in a suit now pending to quiet title to property her husband, Elmer E. King, sold without her consent. The question of attorneys' fees in her action for divorce, based on the grounds of extreme cruelty, came up, but Judge Hutton refused to consider it at that time. The divorce case will be tried on April 9.

At the proceedings yesterday a claim was made that the $5 per week which the Probate Court ordered King to pay his wife for the support of their child had not been paid with regularity. The attorney for Mrs. King stated that he did not intend to make a special point of this allegation, since the action brought by Mrs. King in the Probate Court, while ostensibly a petition for maintenance of the child, was in reality a makeshift to secure his client against losing her infant son through the father getting him and taking him from the State. At that time Mrs. King had not established her residence in California, and could not institute an action for divorce.

Attorneys appearing for King sought to make a point against the mother by showing that she had not kept the child with her. She explained, on the witness stand, that she could not work for a living for herself and her baby and take care of him at the same time.

Elmer E. King, on the witness stand, showed a strong desire to express his animosity toward the mother of his child, and brought upon himself a caution from his own attorneys and then a rebuke from the court.

After hearing the testimony, Judge Hutton began the communication of his decision by saying that he would direct that $5 be paid weekly for the support of the child. He was interrupted at this point by the defendant and his attorneys, but went on without considering the protest: "And $5 weekly maintenance for the mother."

"I can't do it, Judge," cried King, who had not left the witness stand.

"I assure Your Honor he is unable to do it," supplemented the attorneys.

Judge Hutton was unimpressed. He asked a few questions about the work King was doing, and then repeated his order of $10 per week which King must pay to the woman whom, it is claimed, he has insulted and abused.

There was something more coming to King, however, and he got it before he had recovered from the first shock. Mrs. King's attorneys informed the court that King was possessed of $260, the balance of the sum received from the sale of the property which, his wife declares, he had no right to sell without her consent. The court was asked, therefore, to direct that some part of this be paid to Mrs. King for attorneys' fees and court costs. An order of $25 was made as asked.

More violent protest followed from the attorneys for the defense, while King seemed stunned for a moment. Meanwhile the Judge was listening to argument that the amount was too small, and became convinced. A substitute order of $75 was made.

King's attorneys protested further, asking what would happen if the suit to quiet title should be decided against the innocent purchaser of the alleged homestead, and King should be compelled to return the money.

"He will have to earn it," said the Judge quietly. "He has assumed certain responsibilities, and must fulfill them."

There followed an argument intended to show that King's earning capacity in his newly-adopted calling of carpenter was pitifully feeble, but the Judge was unconvinced.

Mrs. King's attorney entered the controversy with a statement that the purchaser of the property bought it with full knowledge that Mrs. King claimed the place as a home. He added that a considerable part of the purchase price had been spent by King for private expenses. At that King's head was tossed angrily, and he snapped: "That's not true." The Judge said a few quiet and impressive words, and the infuriated defendant subsided.

It is charged that King's persecution of his wife, beginning shortly after their marriage in 1899, extended beyond their separation. One of the accusations was that he went from one place to another, where she had secured employment to support herself and her boy, and made statements which resulted in her discharge.

The suit of $50,000 brought by Elmer King against J. C. Goode for the alleged alienation of Mrs. King's affections is said to be based chiefly on a conviction that his wife must have been attracted by some one else or she would not have left him.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

REYMERT CONTEMPT CASE. Another witness who testified at the trial of Octaviano Chacon, in which false testimony is alleged to have been given at the instance of Attorney J. D. Reymert, has been arrested and is held as a witness in the pending contempt proceedings. Josefa Borie, who was living with Chacon, at the time the watch and other articles were stolen from Castro's house, attempted to shield Chacon at first, though her testimony at the trial was against him. Attorney Reymert did not defend C. Gonzales, who was on trial yesterday on a charge of grand larceny, having chosen to retire from the case.

DAVENPORT PAROLED. Earl Davenport, who pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny for stealing a bicycle, was paroled for two years yesterday by Judge Smith. The boy's father, a carpenter in San Bernardino, appeared in court and urged that his son be released.

MUST PAY ALIMONY. Gertrude Johnson yesterday was granted a divorce from A. W. Johnson, a chauffeur. Mrs. Johnson alleged cruelty and non-support, declaring that while she was seriously ill her husband struck her in the face when she asked him for money for expenses. To a woman who was staying with them at the time, she declared, Johnson gave his surplus earnings. Alimony of $10 per week was granted the plaintiff. A. W. Johnson was in court two weeks ago on a charge of contempt for failure to pay the temporary alimony ordered by the court while the divorce suit was pending.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Crazy Basin Gold Mines Company, capital stock $250,000, of which $300 is paid up; Cedar Avenue Syndicate Company, capital stock $50,000, with $5 paid up; Bingham & Knowles Land Company, capital stock $50,000, with $20 paid up; the Orr Edwards Investment Company, capital stock $25,000, of which $300 is paid up.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

TAKES CLOAK AFTER DANCE.

Miss Thompson Claims Trouble Results from Mistake—Supple and Cronin Charged With Carrying Concealed Weapons—Case of Men Accused of Selling Liquor to Minors Postponed.

Miss Lilia Thompson, who lives at No. 709 East Sixth street, was arrested Thursday and yesterday morning was arraigned before Justice Fredericksen on the charge of stealing a cloak from the cloakroom of the Adams Dancing Academy on South Main street. The young woman explained that, with others, she went into the room after the dance and took a cloak which closely resembled her own. She did not realize her mistake, she said, until she had left the building in company with a young man. She did not like to return then. She intended, she said, to return the cloak on the following day.

Circumstances prevented the young woman from carrying out her intentions, and she was arrested. The arresting officer accosted her while she was speaking to several girl companions. She denied having the cloak in her possession and then said she had purchased it. Because of these conflicting statements she was taken into court.

There was a ring of honesty in her tones as Miss Thompson told the court her story yesterday. She explained in detail the taking of the cloak. Her own cloak was found in the academy hall. Justice Fredericksen imposed a fine of $40 or forty days, but the sentence was suspended.

Miss Thompson has a mother in Vancouver and she is anxious to return to her. She stated that she would not remain in Los Angeles as she fears that the disgrace of her arrest will cause her to lose her friends here.

Concealed Weapon Case.

R. E. Supple of No. 620½ Mateo street and J. Cronin were arraigned yesterday in Justice Fredericksen's court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Both men will be tried this morning. There is said to be an accumulation of evidence in the hands of the police which will be brought out against the two at the time of the trial. They were admitted to bail in the sum of $200 each. Both men are in prison.

After pleading not guilty, Supple begged the court to make his bond smaller. He said that he has a wife and two children who are dependent upon him. The court refused the request.

Later in the afternoon the wife and her four-year-old son Roble called at the Police Station. She is anxious to secure the release of her husband.

Unsavory Charge.

M. M. Martinez and J. Herigoyen, who are charged with selling liquor to minors, were in court yesterday and their case went over until Wednesday at 10 o'clock. The men are accused of enticing young girls to the Esmeralda Club for immoral purposes. Counsel has been employed and the case will be fought. The defendants have been released on $100 bonds.

Accused of Forgery.

Elario Torres, R. Sanche and M. Torres, three laborers who are accused of raising pay checks issued to them by the Pacific Electric Railway Company, must answer to a charge of forgery in a higher court. They passed the bogus papers on a jeweler, it is said, and purchased watches. They were arrested when the jeweler complained to the police. The raising of the checks was crudely done and easily detected.

YOUNG PATRIOTS CHEER.

"Old Glory" Flung to Breeze at Magnolia Avenue School in Presence of Children and Adults.

Old Glory was flung to the breeze yesterday from the flagpole of the handsome new Magnolia-avenue school building in the presence of 500 pupils, the teachers, patrons of the school, representatives of Bartlett-Logan Woman's Relief Corps and Assistant Superintendent of Schools Bettinger.

This school building, which was first occupied less than a month ago, is a three-story structure, costing $250,000, and with the lots on which it stands, represents a total valuation approximating $50,000. It contains twelve rooms, with commodious gymnasiums in the basement and all the modern appliances and conveniences. To preside over this new building Miss May Stansbury, for several years the very successful principal of the Tenth-street school, was selected by the Board of Education.

For yesterday's flag-raising ceremony the children assembled on the campus and marched to the building to the tune of the triangle, waving their tiny flags as they came—an army of young patriots with heads erect and colors flying. Miss Stansbury briefly welcomed the guests, and then the pupils gave a short and excellent programme of songs and recitations, after which a pretty little miss, Velma Carlisle, formally presented the flag to Mr. Bettinger, as the representative of the Board of Education.

In responding, he said: "This is the first flag I have accepted in behalf of our board in eighteen years. In 1889 I was present when the boys and girls hauled up the first flag that waved over a school building in Los Angeles. Today its folds fly from every schoolhouse in the country, placed there by the boys and girls."

The flag was then hoisted by a corps of lads amid the repeated cheers of children and adults, after which every child pledged allegiance to the red, white and blue.

This flag was no sooner in place than Mrs. Mary S. Greenleaf stepped forward with another handsome flag, and in behalf of the Bartlett-Logan Relief Corps, presented it to the school. Mr. Bettinger responded with hearty words of thanks and Miss Stansbury announced that this second emblem of patriotism would be draped in the wide entrance hall.

At the conclusion of the exercises the visitors inspected the interior of the new building and the mothers gathered in the kindergarten room to form a child-study circle.

TOO OBEDIENT BY HALF.

So Thinks a Neighbor Who Was Drenched by Little Girl—Court Will Determine.

How far a child must obey its parents is an interesting question which may be settled when Mrs. M. Ellison of No. 202 North Saratoga street is placed on trial in the Police Court. A warrant charging Mrs. Ellison with battery was issued yesterday and the trial promises to have sensations and thrills.

Dorothy Ellison is a pretty little lass of 7. She obeys her mamma implicitly and is a model child. Though of such tender years she will probably be one of the most important witnesses in the approaching trial.

A sensational novel, two irate matrons, a bucket of water, and a sweet little girl figure in the case. The novel is owned by Mrs. Katherine M. Cater of No. 168 North Saratoga street, who is the complaining witness.

Beneath her own vine and fig tree, to-wit, on her front porch, Mrs. Cater avers that she was one day reading a book—Mrs. Ellison says it was a novel—Her serene contentment seems to have aroused the enmity of her neighbor.

Out in the Ellison back yard Katherine was playing. A bucket and a hose were near. The little lass filled the bucket with clear, cold, sparkling Boyle Heights water. Had she not filled the bucket with water at such an opportune moment no Police Court trial need have followed and Mrs. Ellison need not have been accused of "water battery."

Basking in the sunlight, Mrs. Cater continued to enjoy the book. The hero was entrancing and was about to capture the lovely young maiden. The closing chapter of the story was the best and Mrs. Cater showed her delight in the pages by smiling, it is said.

"Throw that water on her," Mrs. Ellison is said to have ordered, as she spoke to her little daughter. Katherine obeyed.

Splash went the stream over the skirts of Mrs. Cater. The book was drenched, the story may never be finished. Mrs. Cater repaired to the police and Mrs. Ellison's arrest followed.

CRIMINALS TAKEN AWAY.

Deputy United States Marshal Joseph Coyle left last night for the north with Nada Leslie and Leigh Allen. The Leslie woman has been sentenced to one and a half years imprisonment in the San Quentin Prison and Allen gets five years in Folsom, for forging postoffice money orders.

Bert H. Franklin and Ervin Dingle, deputy United States marshals, left last night for South McAlister, I. T., in charge of C. A. Birge, indicted for forgery by the Federal grand jury. Birge was at one time cashier of a bank. He left last night still protesting his innocence and saying that it was a conspiracy of the officials to railroad him to prison.

SAYS SUIT IS ABSURD.

A brief in reply to the suit filed by George Erkel of San Pedro against the United States government was filed yesterday in the United States District Court by Dist.-Atty Lawler. Mr. Lawler characterized the suit as absurd and went to some length in citing authorities upholding the ruling that the United States cannot be sued.

It will be remembered that Erkel claimed a piece of tide lands in San Pedro harbor under a Spanish grant, and that the government brought proceedings to oust him. He applied for an injunction restraining the District Attorney from prosecuting the suit but it failed. Then he entered suit against the United States.

WOMAN FIGURES IN QUEER CASE.

POLICE BAFFLED IN EFFORT TO FIND MISSING MAN.

Sinclair Swallowed Up in Mystery. No Evidence of Suicide, but Leaves Effects Behind—Last Seen in Company With Veiled Female and Muffled Male Companion.

Through developments last night, one of the most profound mysteries the police department has been asked to solve in some time was made public. It is the disappearance of H. A. Sinclair from No. 612 West Eighth street on January 9. Thinking that they had discovered Sinclair, the police sought to have him identified. But they were mistaken and a deeper shadow hangs over the case than ever.

Sinclair is described as a man of about 50 years of age, five feet seven inches tall, clean shaven, with light complexion and hair and pale blue eyes. He is said to be a man of model habits, quiet and retiring, but peculiar. He claimed to be an expert accountant and said that he had no intimate acquaintances in Los Angeles, yet it is believed that he left in company with a man and woman.

When Sinclair went to the Fox residence on West Eighth street to live he stated that he had recently arrived in this city. He incidentally mentioned that he came from Tucson, Ariz., and had been living for a short time at No. 214 East Fifth street, a rooming-house kept by Mrs. E. E. Durrell.

Deposited in the Merchants National Bank here Sinclair has a small amount of money, which for the time being afforded him support. Sinclair, it was recently discovered, applied to several banks for a position as bookkeeper. Shortly before he left he wrote to friends in London, England, for financial assistance. Since then about $100 has been remitted to him.

In tracing the case detectives failed to find any motive for self destruction, the theory first adopted by the officers. The day following the report that Sinclair had disappeared he drew all but $39 from the bank. But his effects, among which are some valuables, he did not take.

It has been learned that while living on East Fifth street, Sinclair received a man and a woman in his apartments late in the evening. They are said to have come in a closed cab. The man was muffled and the woman heavily veiled. After a visit of several hours, the strange pair left. Parties in adjoining rooms heard angry tones, indicating that the meeting was not a pleasant one. On the night of Sinclair's departure from the Eighth-street house the man and woman were with him.

Following all clews the police believed they had discovered that Sinclair had been sent to prison under another name. Mrs. Fox was called to Central Station last night, but as soon as she saw the picture of the convict, she told the officers that it was not a photograph of the missing man.

HATED WORD COSTS LIFE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) March 14.—Because he used the hated word "greaser," Wong Jun, a Chinese gardener, was killed Saturday by one of his ranch hands, Anastacio Jacobo, a Mexican, aged 20. He claims that he had defended himself with an ax when the Chinaman had assaulted him with a pitchfork. The facts do not seem to bear out the statement, for the Chinaman's body was found where it had been dragged into a barley field, at a considerable distance from the house where the row occurred. Seeming to attach little importance to his deed, the Mexican worked as usual on the ranch till night, when he came to Tucson, here to be arrested.

Vicente Lucero, who shot and killed another Mexican in Nogales a few days ago, and then escaped across the line, has been arrested by the Mexican authorities, and is being held at the disposition of the Arizona police. He managed to get as far south as Magdalena before apprehension.

Guadalupe Sanchez is either insane or a brute of the most pronounced description, according to his action in shooting at his seven-year-old son, as the child struggled in the deep water of an irrigation ditch, in frantic efforts to escape from his cruel parent. Upon the testimony of the child, substantiated by spectators, the father not only failed to render help to the apparently drowning boy, but deliberately fired at him with a shotgun. Sanchez has been jailed to await trial, and the boy is to be given into more humane hands.

J. E. Jackson, a colored cook, received a bullet in the leg Saturday from a pistol in the hands of Mrs. H. L. Tidington, proprietor of the restaurant in which he was employed. She says that he displayed a razor in a threatening manner. He says she was jealous.

Last Thursday, at a ranch near Lordsburg, N. M., Grover H. Caraway, a cowboy, on a spree, was shot and killed by Ross Sloan, a cowboy, who had the advantage of sobriety. Caraway had taken offense because Sloan had objected to his shooting out the lights in the ranch-house, and a duel was arranged forthwith. But Caraway had forgotten that innocent target practice on the lamps had exhausted the cartridges in his pistol, hence came out loser in the affray.

Baldwin, the negro murderer of Mrs. Morris and child at Roosevelt, has been brought from Solomonville, following his conviction, and will be held in the Tucson jail, awaiting the date set for his execution.

Capt. Jeff D. Milton, who won fame a few years ago by his plucky stand against robbers at Fairbanks, while express agent on the Benson-Nogales run, and who was badly wounded in the fight, got into trouble Tuesday in Tucson by shooting Thomas Johnson, a mining man, in the heel. The men were not even acquainted, and Milton claims to have been shooting at a dog. Even this explanation fails to satisfy the Sheriff that it was a proper action to discharge a firearm on one of Tucson's busiest thoroughfares. Milton has been released on bail.

John Klein, formerly a letter carrier in El Paso, has been arrested at Globe, charged with the theft of a registered package, while in the government employ.

Eph Stoat, a well-known resident of Southern Arizona, was killed at Canaanea a few days ago under the wheels of a railroad car. A similar fatal accident occurred to Peter Carroll, a Tucson car repairer, caught under a freight car that was being pushed by a switch engine in the Southern Pacific yards. He had lived in Tucson for twenty-five years. Still another railroad accident of the same nature cost a Tucson switchman named Hart his right leg, cut off below the knee.

NINE-TENTHS OF THE DEATHS FROM CONSUMPTION COULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED

Dr. W. A. Evans, an eminent practitioner of Chicago, in a recent address, emphasized the importance of physicians recognizing the symptoms of tuberculosis in its early stages. Dr. Evans says that nine-tenths of the deaths attributed to consumption could have been prevented if the patients' symptoms had been accurately interpreted when first made manifest.

The only safe method is to assume from the very first that consumption really is present in all cases where there is the slightest reason for suspecting its presence, and to prescribe in accordance with that theory.

Coughs and colds, soreness in the chest or difficulty in breathing should have prompt treatment, as the lungs are then in a peculiarly receptive condition for the tubercular germ.

A noted specialist, whose camp for consumptives in the Pine Woods of Maine has attracted great attention, because of his remarkable cures there, advises the use of the following simple formula, which is said to break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable: Take one-half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure,) two ounces of Glycerine and eight ounces of good Whisky. Shake well and take in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription druggist at small cost, and are easily prepared. The patient should be careful to secure the Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) in the original half-ounce vials, put up expressly for druggists to dispence. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) guaranteed under Food and Drugs act of June 30th, 1906, serial number 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio—plainly printed thereon. It is always well to remember that the object of an imitator is to deceive. There is no known substitute for Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure.)

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Of the Actor's Profession.

Hobart Bosworth held the members of the Friday Morning Club in thrall yesterday while he gave to them the conclusions of a rich and picturesque life experience running the gamut of sailor, cowpuncher, artist, man of letters, and actor, for ten years in direct contact with that master genius of dramatic art, Augustin Daly.

Bosworth did not mention among his careers that of a minister, but he preached a sermon of the stage yesterday, a powerful, brilliant plea for the best and the purest and the cleanest. He illustrated his every point with anecdotes vivid with the personality of the people who have trod the boards and have been for years past in the glare of the footlights.

People who probably thought they were well acquainted with the infinite variety of trials which the fascinating profession of the actor has to meet went away in a new mood, more reverent, more tolerant, with a larger understanding of their own responsibility in the matter.

No part of the morning was more entertaining and enjoyable than the history of his own youthful experiences in dramatics and he told it all with that quizzical, riper point of view which lent an irrisistable humor.

He said he felt it incumbent upon himself to speak frankly of the abuses of the stage which he says lies with the women to correct. Women he represented as the patrons of the drama, and to women's clubs he attributed a vast potentiality for good, each one a propaganda of real thought and representing the strongest tonic power to combat the spirit of greed and gain which is today destroying the highest ideals of life and accomplishment.

He quoted the sage, William Winter, as saying that the supreme need for the advancement of the world is spiritual ideals and uplift, and the "theater," declared Mr. Bosworth, is the very sword in our hands for the accomplishment of this reform. Deeds appealing more strongly than words and plays being the natural teachers.

More far-reaching than the pulpit, Bosworth counts the influence of the stage reaching all classes in such large numbers, 20,000 a week here in Los Angeles alone.

Bottomless Lakes Found.

News reaches El Paso that lately, following the earthquakes in Secorro and elsewhere in New Mexico, several lakes, apparently bottomless, have been found near Roswell, N. M., the ground apparently having sunk and water having come up. One of them appeared since the recent snows on Mr. Ditter's farm near Roswell.

Noted Authority Says This Simple Home-Made Mixture Will Relieve Catarrh.

This winter, as last, will prove a harvest for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to dress warm and keep the feet dry.

This is the advice of a well-known local physician and should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it may prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription which any one can mix: Fluid extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

The Compound Kargon in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that a sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weakness and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable prescription comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.

THOSE SUDDEN TWINGES

Pain is nature's signal of distress, a warning that must not be ignored. Those sharp twinges in the back, those stab-like pains that follow any sudden twist or turn, are simple signs of hidden danger in the kidneys.

No trouble starts more easily, gains ground more rapidly, nor proves more often fatal than any disorder of the kidneys. All the outward appearances of health may remain until a terrible disease has taken root.

It is best to learn the duties of the kidneys, to watch for early signs of trouble, and to correct any irregularity before its serious stage begins.

The blood goes to the kidneys in an incessant stream, to be cleared of poison and relieved of surplus water. This is passed off by the kidneys in the urine. It is the retention of poison in kidney trouble that breeds fatal disease.

Don't wait. The moment you feel any uneasiness, lameness or pain in the back, the moment the urine shows irregularity, either in its appearance, or in the quantity or number of the passages, begin with Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy has been curing kidney troubles for seventy-six years, and never yet has failed to give relief, if taken in time. It cures the kidneys, and thus cures backache, lame back, headache, dizzy spells, urinary troubles, rheumatic pain, gravel, dropsy swellings, nervousness, languor, sciatica, and all other symptoms of kidney troubles.

Fifty thousand people have testified to the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a home case:

LOS ANGELES PROOF.

Mrs. Mary Speer, 116 East Third St., Los Angeles, California, says: "I cannot express too high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. For more than six years I have suffered much trouble in my back, whenever I have done any work about the house, which required straining. My kidneys ached dreadfully and I was so lame and sore in the morning that I could hardly get out of bed. Plasters and other remedies that I tried did me no good, so I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used two boxes and consider myself cured. I shall always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from kidney complaint."

Pen Points

To Theodore Roosevelt: Sail on, sail on, and on, and on!

It must at least be admitted that Dowie was no quitter.

What's the use of a Nevada gold mine if it can't be worked?

The President wants to know if the public is with him. Can't he hear the shouts?

One thing to be thankful for is that the stock gamblers seldom, if ever, use real money.

The anticipations are that a new notch will soon be cut on the handle of the big stick.

The President has the advantage of knowing the other fellow's game as well as his own.

This inviting the governors of States to the White House is all right till it comes Vardaman's turn.

We think the railroad presidents may as well screw up their nerve and report at the captain's office.

The biggest battleship in the world is now regarded as the biggest target in the world in case of a scrap.

The war in Central America is a mere game of golf compared to what is taking place in Southern Nevada.

What the big financiers are trying to impress on the President is that it is worse to bust the trusts than to trust the busts.

As though the funeral oration that Dowie wrote himself were not sufficient, another one had to be delivered by a lawyer.

Dowie said that when he returns he will come armed. This ought to be fair warning to the other fellows to keep their guns handy.

We trust the day will yet come when Wall street will be compelled to pull itself out of a hole without help whenever it gets into one.

Wonder if it would help an individual any when he goes to a bank to borrow money if he would say that he wants it to "restore his tone?"

We can imagine no condition that could be more wretched than being on the "Dog of hell" list in Zion City during the present excitement.

Wall street has a language of its own. When Cortelyou loaned it $94,000,000 it said that he had merely "restored the tone of the exchange."

From long experience we are convinced that any young girl under 40 years of age who makes a resolution never to marry is in love with a man.

We desire to inform Theodore Roosevelt that he is making it more difficult all the time for the people to consent to his retirement at the end of his present term.

It must make foreign nations sit up and take notice when the Secretary of the United States Treasury lends nearly $100,000,000 just to one street in New York in two days' time.

In other words, Mr. Roosevelt has made it clear that the door of the White House is open, and there is nothing to prevent the railroad presidents from walking in if they desire to do so.

In announcing that the country is not yet ready for government ownership of railroads, Mr. Bryan doubtless desires to intimate that it is better to wait until after he has been elected President.

Mark Twain's definition of a mine must again be modified. A mine is a hole in the ground owned by a company that can't operate it because the Independent Workers of the World won't let him.

We are glad to note that the republic of Panama is remaining neutral during the present unpleasantness between her neighbors, and especially that the Panama navy has not even been taken out of the boathouse.

The newspapers of Butte, Mont., have always fallen all over themselves to boost labor unions. Now the labor unions have fallen all over the newspapers, with the result that they have no use for printing presses.

If Jerome expects to convict Harry Thaw on the testimony of men like Abe Hummel, who have lived their whole lives long on the wages of sin, then he is not the shrewd lawyer that many have taken him to be.

If an election for President of the United States were to be held tomorrow we think we can name one man who could carry every State in the Union. If Taft be stealing Mr. Bryan's clothes [illegible] make the most of it.

THE GOLDFIELD AND BULLFROG ANARCHY.

All this shooting and killing and thuggery in Goldfield is the old case of "dog eat dog."

It is not the least like an ordinary strike. There probably never was a warfare just like it.

Those who are now called "scabs," who are hounded from their work, who are shot down from dark corners—a target for dynamiters and murderers—belong to the various organizations which have so often called non-union men "scabs," who have hounded other men from their work, who have shot from dark corners and who have perpetrated every other outrage against industrial freedom.

They are now trying the roles of the very men whom they have persecuted; and they don't appear to like them.

The present "scabs," who are in dread of their lives in Goldfield, are none other than our old friends, the union plumbers, the union carpenters, plasterers, union printers, etc.

Imagine that stalwart hero who has so oft hissed "scab" from his snarling teeth and secretly urged his gang on to untold outrages against peaceable workmen—imagine Pinhead McCarthy as the head "scab!" Such he will be if he goes to Goldfield to take a hand in this fight.

The persecutors in this case are more outrageous, malignant and unreasonable than the union men with whose diabolical misdeeds readers of The Times are familiar.

In the course of their ill-doings, the unions have given birth to a brat that they seek to disown and that has turned against them. The brat is the I.W.W.—"Independent Workers of the World."

The American Federation is a federation of different independently organized unions allied for certain purposes, mostly hellish. For instance, the plumbers form one union allied in the American Federation, the carpenters another, etc. They make up one confederacy.

The I.W.W., on the other hand, is a big, unginally heterogeneous conglomeration.

Where the American Federation admits only skilled workmen—or unions of skilled workmen—the I.W.W. takes in everybody who works or pretends to.

The miners are about equally divided between the two orders; that's where the trouble comes.

Among the I.W.W. in Goldfield are cleaners of saloon spittoons. The order includes doctors, clerks, stenographers, telephone operators—in fact, every one from whom tribute can possibly be levied. Many are forced to join. No girl stenographer, for instance, can write a letter in Goldfield without first paying an assessment to the I.W.W.

Last summer the Tonopah Sun, published twenty-eight miles from Goldfield, severely criticised the I.W.W. in rather withering terms. That paper was promptly boycotted, as was the Goldfield Sun, which is owned by the same man.

The newsboys, who belong to the I.W.W., were ordered not to sell the Goldfield Sun on the streets. Whereupon the printers and pressmen (members of the American Federation) went out and sold it themselves. They were called down by the I.W.W.; were not only ordered to stop selling the paper, but to tear up their union cards (the same cards that the Los Angeles printers have been trying for sixteen years to force upon The Times,) and to join the I.W.W.

The union printers were afraid to do it. Had they complied with the request they would have been declared "scabs" by the members of their union in the first city they went to after leaving Goldfield.

The same fight has broken out again—the citizens on the side of the American Federation.

Many miners of the I.W.W. were forcibly deported from Cripple Creek. A more villainous band it would be hard to imagine. Some of them are desperate criminals.

These miners so terrified the mine owners that for a long time the owners were afraid to interfere with the wholesale ore stealing. The union miners coolly refused to change their clothes or to be searched on leaving the mines. Thousands of dollars' worth of gold was openly stolen every day from the Goldfield mines.

Now, there is a peculiar humor in this situation. All the mines of Nevada are not at Goldfield. Seventy miles to the south is the well-known Bullfrog region.

In Goldfield the mine owners, getting up their courage, have just passed a resolution vowing not to employ any more members of the I.W.W. under any circumstances. They have boycotted the I.W.W. In Bullfrog, on the other hand, every town is controlled absolutely by the I.W.W.

There is no fight between the unions in Bullfrog because there is nothing for the I.W.W. to fight there. They absolutely dictate the situation. In Bullfrog a doctor may not attend a dying man without first joining the I.W.W. On the porch of the Montgomery Hotel sits a skinny, loud-mouthed, offensive man, using foul language in the presence of women. He is the local president for Beatty of the I.W.W. He is as absolute a dictator as Caesar ever thought of being. He holds the power of life and death over the Bullfrog region—up to the borders of the next I.W.W. local president.

This man says openly that no man shall live in that region unless he be favorably disposed to the I.W.W.

No Chinaman is allowed to be within the confines of Beatty.

No one "roasting" the I.W.W. is permitted to stay.

The king allows no one to dig gold in his dominions without first paying tribute to him and to the I.W.W.

This aggregation of vicious exiles from Colorado have set up a complete government within the State government of Nevada—a government that sets that government and the United States government at naught.

You wouldn't stand it?

You wouldn't be tyrannized?

If they told you to pack up and leave the Bullfrog region, you wouldn't go?

Well, you would appeal to the law! You would appeal to an I.W.W. man holding the office of Sheriff and doubtless having I.W.W. men for deputies.

You would go before a justice of the peace elected by the I.W.W. and dictated to absolutely by it.

If you lived that long, you would plead your case before a jury summoned by an I.W.W. Sheriff and probably made up exclusively of I.W.W. men. You would have a grand chance!

STILL BIRTH.

W. J. Bryan makes the interesting announcement that while he is now heart and soul in favor of wholesale public ownership of public utilities, yet he is content to wait for the fulfillment of this dream until the public comes around to his view of the matter.

It is significant to the rest of us and unfortunate for Mr. Bryan that he has spent his life for the most part waiting for the American people to discard their own way of thinking upon all subjects of great importance and to adopt his. When this change of view shall have taken place, Mr. Bryan has high hopes that he will be able to reach the goal of his ambition, the Presidency of the United States.

Mr. Bryan's misfortune lies in the fact that instead of sloughing off these principles dear to the American nation and taking his ready-made notions, the people show a most perverse disposition to stick to their own ideas and ideals and to spurn with increasing disapprobation the Bryan vagaries.

Bryan has not manifested the same obstinacy in holding his own opinions as the American people have in rejecting them. It is more than a dozen years since this statesman from the broad but shallow waters of the Platte got the floor before the public and began telling us of his gaudy plans for the political and industrial regeneration of this sinful America. He has been insistent, "in season and out of season," in keeping the floor, but he has been like the Pharisee before the throne of Grace. He has not been heard because of his "much speaking." His latest announcement of his willingness to wait until the American people get up (or down, as he may view the matter) to the Bryan idea of public ownership is another display of agility in seeking some common ground on which he and the people may get together and put him in office. The proposition is that the American people buy up all the railroads in the country. The people declare they are not in the market for railroads. That, of course, settles the question, and like a sensible salesman, Mr. Bryan closes up his bargain counter in politics. His fee, the Presidency, is, of course, cut out.

There were a few who were quite ready to set out posthaste after this will-o'-the-wisp in politics. There may be some such left, but they are growing daily, almost hourly, fewer in number. We have all been reading matter like that printed in The Times Friday morning, giving news from London. These exposures of the failure of government control of great enterprises have done to the Bryan political will-o'-the-wisp what the sun does to the natural exhalation from swamps, sewers and graveyards. The complacent people of London, who for years neglected to go to the polls and thus permitted about 25 per cent. of the voting population to put in power a gang of incompetent laborunionists, impractical, intent merely on making places at fat salaries for their followers at the expense of running the city into debt over its eyes and raising the tax rate to a back-breaking load upon all the people, have had to wake up. The load on the backs of the people of London would almost wake the dead.

Our people have not had to go as far as London for light. It has burned with a somewhat lurid flame in a good many American cities. Here in Los Angeles we have had an experiment in burning garbage, which private enterprise consumes at 25 cents a ton, costing 75 cents under the management of a Board of Public Works composed of men of affairs who have succeeded in their own business and who are honest beyond all suspicion of grafting.

Mr. Bryan has simply failed once more to get en rapport with the real American people. These American people have very hard heads and burdened with much practical common sense in business affairs. The soft spot in Mr. Bryan's head with which he came into the world has never become firm. His life has been spent far apart from business affairs. He and the American people will never be able to get together on common ground until Mr. Bryan becomes a convert to basic American ideas and an advocate of everlasting American ideals.

THE RAKES.

We are in a state of grateful joy on account of Judge Fitzgerald of New York.

He has ruled out about four basketfuls of conversation, thoughts, remarks and incidents in the life of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw. If some one will now manage to head off the forthcoming yawp of Thomas Lawson on the subject of "Frenzied Finance," all will be joy and happiness.

Muck rakes and girl rakes have grown tiresome.

THE REAL RICHES.

To relieve the money stringency in New York and at other points in the country, the Secretary of the Treasury has taken three steps which mark the strong financial condition of the United States.

Mr. Cortelyou announces that $20,000,000 of public funds deposited with the banks some months ago to relieve a former strained situation, which were to be paid back at this time, will not be called. Next he makes known his purpose of pouring out into the hands of the national banks a further sum of $74,000,000 accumulations in the national treasury, and third, that he will redeem at once with interest to July 1, $25,000,000 of United States bonds maturing in 1907, which will amount to a further sum of $26,000,000. The total money thus released by the treasury will be $120,000,000. This is possible without touching one dollar of the legal reserve held by the treasury. It comes from the exceedingly great prosperity of the times. The revenue receipts of the government amount to about $2,000,000 a day, which is far below the expenditures, which are on a very liberal scale. One cause of the difficulties in the finances of the country arises from this constant accumulation of money in the treasury as a result of the general prosperity. The withdrawal of this money from active employment in the natural channels of trade tends constantly toward congestion in the money market.

The best informed financiers of the country lean to the opinion that the withdrawal from London during the last calendar year of about $106,000,000 was not in any sense an artificial movement of gold, but one resting on national conditions. These persons are of the opinion that Europe is in our debt and must pay in gold when we demand it. The high rate of discount maintained by the Bank of England for months past is generally held as an artificial measure resorted to by that institution to check the national flow of gold to this country.

Fictitious fortunes represented by paper values of speculative stocks may swell or shrink by millions. The real wealth of the country is not affected. The railroad lines and their earning power remain. The steel mills and the sugar factories pour out not one ton less of valuable product. The money in the banks does not shrink, nor are the crops of the country in any way dependent on the "booms" or "slumps" of Wall street.

THE CLEAN-UP.

ARMY AND NAVY MEN.

Secretary Taft will sail from Charleston, March 24, for Panama, Porto Rico and Cuba, accompanied by several army engineers. While at Panama he will investigate the work in connection with the locks that will be constructed at Gatun.

The promotion to Brigadier-General of Col. Charles B. Hall, U.S.A., commander of the Infantry and Cavalry School and Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, leads the Leavenworth Times to say: "The news is good news both at the fort and to the city of Leavenworth."

The Twenty-third United States Infantry, Col. Philip Reade; one squadron of the Twelfth Cavalry, Col. L. C. Allen, from Oglethorpe, Ga., and one battery of Field Artillery from Fort Myer, Va., have been designated to participate in the exposition at Jamestown, Va., and will report there by April 24.

Gen. F. D. Grant has been in consultation with President Tucker and the governors of the Jamestown Exposition trying to work out details of the military features of the exposition. General Grant will be commander-in-chief of the military forces, both State and national, that will be in attendance at the exposition.

Chaplain Winfield Scott, U.S.A., retired, though he has reached his seventieth birthday, is nevertheless a very busy man in affairs other than military. He is president and corresponding secretary of the Board of Missions, and general missionary of the Arizona Baptist Home Mission Society of New York for Arizona.

The following changes in the stations and duties of judge-advocates are ordered: Lieut. Col. George M. Dunn is relieved from duty as judge-advocate, Department of California, to take effect at such time as will enable him to comply with this order, and will proceed on or about April 2, 1907, to Manila, for duty as judge-advocate of that division, to relieve Maj. Henry M. Morrow, who will report in person to the commanding general, Department of Luzon, for duty as judge-advocate of that department, to relieve Maj. Walter A. Bethel. The latter after being thus relieved will proceed to San Francisco, for duty as judge-advocate, Department of California.

Development of Travel.

Travel broadens a man—sometimes, when the engineer goes by the red target or the operator is taking forty wings, he finds himself broadened out over half an acre of landscape.

Travel shows a man the resources of his country—he may look from the car window and estimate the millions of feet of lumber required for pickle ads and corset billboards.

Travel teaches a man to respect his fellow-citizens—in fact, at the end of his trip he will have learned to raise his hat to any man in uniform.

Travel deceives the brain—even one week of solving time tables fits a man to tackle fifteen puzzles and how-old-is-Ann propositions with a confident smile.—[Chicago Post.

Found a Reason.

Dr. Carmichael, the new Bishop of Montreal, is an Irishman—a native of Tipperary. He tells a story about a clergyman who was examining a Sunday-school class and who chanced to ask one of his small pupils why it was cruel to cut off dogs' tails.

One child replied that it was cruel because of the text in the Bible.

"What text, my dear?" asked the puzzled clergyman.

The child was thoughtful for a moment and then replied: "What God has joined let no man put asunder."—[Pittsburgh Dispatch.

BITS OF VERSE.

The All-Golden.

Through every happy line I sing,
I feel the tonic of the spring
That gleams across some grassy place;
The day is like an old-time face
An old-time face—an old-time chum
Who rises from the grave to come
And lure me back across the ways
Of time's all-golden yesterdays.
—[James Whitcomb Riley, in The Book News Monthly.

Creeds.

The sky said to the sea:
Behold from God I came,
And though my clouds change endlessly
Like Him am I the same.

The sea said to the sky:
Brother, 'tis so with me,
My ways and tides go ever by,
Yet day and night the same am I,
Like God, eternally.
—[Louise Morgan Sills, in Harper's Monthly.

One Day.

To flood the earth with visions fresh and bright
And self awaking from night's bondage—free,
In sweetest love, O Lord, my heart goes out to Thee.

When in the heat and tumult of high day
My worn heart wearies with the ceaseless fray,
And longs for rest to come, at peace to be,
In yearning love, O Lord, my thought goes forth to Thee.

When shadows fall and the day's task is done
And all my life seems lost, the prize unwon,
The sorrows vanish and the dark doubts flee
As oft in tender love, O Lord, I turn to Thee.

When kindly slumber veils the world of sense
My soul is still, my will no longer tense,
Thy dear, warm presence hovers over me
—[Joseph Anthony Milburn.

The Three Wishes.

Three gifts, he said, he would possess,
That he might find true happiness:

First, he would wish, the long years through,
Something of manly work to do.

And, next, would have, to gain life's goal,
A hero's fortitude of soul.

Then, last, the boon all else above,
Oh, most of all he would have love!
—[Eugene C. Dolson.

Hold Fast.

Whatever may happen, however strong the temptation of power and prosperity, let us hold fast to these great principles:

(1.) Liberty, which is fundamental, lying at the basis of human progress, both material and spiritual, and which must not be sacrificed for either monopoly or Socialism.

(2.) Law, the firm enforcement of which is the best guarantee of liberty.

(3.) Publicity, by which liberty is maintained, the purity of law is safeguarded and the soundness of investments is promoted.

(4.) Fair competition, which is necessary unless business shall become either anarchy or tyranny.

(5.) Faith, which conceives man as having an immortal soul, and thus something more than a mere kilowatt hour or industrial unit.—[Wall Street Journal.

TWO SISTERS HAVE ECZEMA OF HEAD

Two Illinois Girls Suffer from Scalp Trouble—Another Sister Needs a Tonic—Friend Suggests Cuticura—They Use It and Now Give.

MUCH PRAISE TO ALL CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I must give much praise to all the Cuticura Remedies. I used but one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, as that was all that was required to cure my disease. I was very much troubled with eczema of the head, and a friend of mine told me to use the Cuticura Remedies, which I did, and am glad to say that they cured my eczema entirely. Since then we have always kept the soap on hand at all times. My sister was also cured of eczema of the head by using the Cuticura Remedies. Another sister has used Cuticura Resolvent and Pills and thinks they are a splendid tonic. I cannot say exactly how long I suffered, but I think about six months. Miss Edith Hammer, R. F. D. MORE BEETS WOULD HELP.

Our Production of Sugar Not Sufficient.

We Consume Much More Than the Crop.

Near Four Billion Pounds Yearly Import.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

California and all other beet-sugar-making States can safely multiply their annual productions by three, and even then they will leave plenty of room for the cane sugar industry to grow, and largely grow, before sugar produced at home, coupled with sugar produced in our insular possessions, will meet the enormous consuming demand of the United States.

In the year just closed, 1906, our production and importation of sugar, both kinds, reached the gigantic total of 6,424,922,560 pounds. Only 2,612,276,235 pounds of this was produced by ourselves, as follows:

Production of—	Pounds.
Hawaii	552,469,867
Porto Rico	428,916,079
Philippine Islands	26,723,089
Total consumed in the United States of American production	2,812,276,235
Compelling a foreign trade of	3,812,646,325
Total United States consumption	6,424,922,560

On our present population of 85,000,000, that total annual sugar consumption represents over 75 pounds per capita. This is a far greater per capita consumption than is shown by Great Britain, Germany, France or any other of the world's nations. Why should we continue to import each year nearly 4,000,000,000 pounds of sugar, when, by planting more beets and building more beet-sugar factories, we can make more beet sugar and thus keep more American money in American pockets?

ONLY BEGINNING.

It would seem as if, as yet, we are only on the fringe of beet sugar possibilities in the United States. Of our consumption of home-produced sugar in 1906—that is, 1,304,000,000 pounds—only a trifle over one-half was from beets, or about one-tenth of our total consumption in that year of 6,425,000,000 pounds of sugar of both kinds. At the same time it is gratifying to note that of the sugar which we imported from foreign countries and our insular possessions, 5,120,000,000 pounds in all, less than one-tenth was beet sugar. That fact shows that our beet-sugar production, small as it is in comparison with our enormous total sugar consumption, is making itself felt in connection with our sugar imports. To strengthen that "bread," all we need do is to grow more beets, make more beet sugar, and enlarge our selling force.

This comparison is interesting:

	Pounds.
Our total sugar consumption in 1906 was practically	6,300,000,000
Of which, cane sugar (about)	5,300,000,000

The quantity of beet sugar consumed in the United States varies greatly, says the Bureau of Statistics, of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Note these figures of our beet sugar imports, chiefly from Germany, in the past three years:

	Pounds.
1905	50,000,000
1906	215,000,000

1905	672,000,000
1906	185,000,000
Increase in five years here	487,000,000

ROOM FOR GROWTH.

In 1906, for the first time American beet-sugar production exceeded American cane-sugar production. The increase for beet sugar in 1906 over 1900 was 250 per cent., and for cane sugar 54 per cent. It was a case of 487,000,000 pounds increase for beet sugar against 210,000,000 pounds for cane sugar. Room for our beet sugar industry to grow? Yes, oceans of it.

See the growth in ten years of our total sugar consumption:

Year—	Pounds.
Increased consumption in ten years	2,033,329,920

A growth of nearly 50 per cent. and yet, as yet, beet sugar only represents 1,000,000,000 pounds, or less than one-sixth of this enormous consumption.

The "Census of Manufactures, 1905" gives the following as a showing of our beet-sugar industry in 1905 as compared with 1900:

1905—	Increase. Per ct.
Capital	$55,923,559 166.6

Materials, yearly	14,496,776 261.6
Yearly product	24,395,794 225.1

Beets to the quantity of 2,175,417 tons, costing $11,543,785, were used in 1904 (census of 1905.) That shows the value of beet growing to the American farmer.

The year's product consisted of:

WEEPS WHEN HE IS FREED.

HOEGEE'S FORMER MANAGER IS RELEASED ON BAIL.

Friends Furnish Bond for Five Thousand—Dawson Removed from Hospital—Detectives Find Sporting Goods at His Home Which He Says He Owns.

Friends of Douglas Dawson, the accused former manager of the William H. Hoegee Company, secured his release from custody yesterday afternoon. A $5000 bond was provided by Leo V. Youngworth, Chester W. Thompson, G. E. Nagle, Arthur F. Chipson and Herbert L. Cornish. He had spent a night and a day in a ward of the Receiving Hospital, with a uniformed policeman constantly on guard. His friends have not deserted him. Although he came to the hospital in an ambulance, he was strong enough to return home in a hack.

During his confinement under guard Mrs. Dawson did not leave her husband's bedside. She many times repeated her belief in his innocence and braved the cold comforts the hospital afforded for love of the man in whom she believes. She is confident that her husband is the victim of a conspiracy.

Detectives took advantage of the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson from their Westlake-avenue home yesterday to ransack the place. They found a quantity of sporting goods which they took to Central Station. They accuse Dawson of stealing these from the Hoegee store. Guns, fishing tackle, tennis racquets, and wearing apparel, amounting in value to about $1000, were secured.

When told that detectives had found these things at his home, Dawson said that he owned them all. He asserted that at the proper time he would tell just how he became possessed of each article.

Attorney Earl Rogers has been retained to defend Dawson from the charge of grand larceny. Rogers says that he will pay little attention to the preliminary examination, but will make his fight in the Superior Court.

"I will win that case," said Rogers yesterday. "I am glad they found the sporting goods at the residence. They have helped us by bringing the things to police headquarters. This case has several sensations and many surprises are yet to come."

When told that friends had secured his release on a bond, Dawson was moved to tears. He sobbed for a time on the arm of his devoted wife and then seemed to rally from an almost stupor-like condition into which he had fallen early yesterday.

Friends say that Dawson may never come to trial. He is suffering from severe nervous collapse and is only the shadow of his former self.

Hollow-eyed and worn with the suffering he has had to endure for the past two weeks, he would only speak yesterday when spoken to. He seemed to take no interest in his surroundings before hearing of his release. He ate scarcely any food.

Fred Hartmann, director of the Hoegee Company, was at Central Station the greater part of yesterday. Information that could not have otherwise been obtained by the police has been furnished by the director, who is most zealous in the prosecution of the former manager of the sporting-goods house.

PINK PAJAMAS, GIGGLE RIOT.

Walter R. Dinmore of San Francisco and Los Angeles, who is a guest at the hotel, furnished the pink pajamas, and many other guests furnished the giggles.

Dinmore is a conservative business man who fairly hates a "scene." Yesterday morning while he was catching the last forty winks before arising, his telephone rang. His Jap valet dashed madly for the 'phone and announced to his master that a long distance call from Santa Barbara awaited Mr. Dinmore in the lobby.

As he walked down the hall he encountered a party of devout Catholics just returning from morning mass. As he passed them he heard a wild snicker. He colored up a trifle and pondered upon the foolishness of young ladies.

As he approached the elevator a dignified aged lady was preparing to enter. Dinmore is a Chesterfield in embryo, and with a graceful sweep of his hand he ushered the dignified lady into the cage, and stepped in after her.

To his horror the dignified old lady suddenly showed signs of apoplexy and actually snickered. The elevator boy turned to see the trouble, and caught a full view of Dinmore, who, with flushed face and a worried look, was regarding the giggling old lady. The boy clutched the handle of the controlling apparatus and breathed hard. He did his best to withhold the snicker, but it came out like the explosion of a bomb.

Dinmore thrust his hands deep in his pockets and looked toward the ceiling. He was plainly annoyed but was too much of a gentleman to show it. As he followed the aged lady out of the cage into the lobby of the hotel he encountered a bell hop carrying a pitcher of ice water.

In a cherry voice the boy said "good morning" to Dinmore, and then suddenly dropped his pitcher of ice water and frantically clutched at his sides.

Again Dinmore was plainly chagrined. He hurried across the lobby toward the telephone booth, and for the [illegible] He discovered the trouble. About twelve inches of his pink silk pajamas protruded below his neat black trousers, enveloping each foot like a blanket. Again it may be said Dinmore was chagrined. He forgot about the telephone call and fled for the elevator. Both cages were somewhere up in the center of the shafts. Turn- countered the aged lady who had snickered in the elevator. He flushed more than ever and dived toward the hall leading to the dining-room. A party of young ladies was just emerging, and Dinmore, now thoroughly worked up, started toward the basement. He encountered a porter and seized him wildly. He begged to be do—but get him out of sight. The porter led him gently into a cubby-hole which only porters know of, and not long afterward Dinmore slipped across the lobby, unobstrusively took the elevator, and meekly sought his room. He never learned who wanted him on the long-distance 'phone, but he has forsworn pajamas, at least pink

There has not been a day during the past twenty-five years when the assertion might not have been heard, "The time has gone by when money can be made in real estate."

A little later the same pessimists who talked this way, were telling about the money they MIGHT HAVE MADE, had they bought this or that property.

What other, shrewder men of greater foresight, possessing the courage of their convictions, have profited through their confidence in the future of Los Angeles, makes far more interesting reading.

As a matter of fact, THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A TIME WHEN THE JUDICIOUS PURCHASE OF REAL ESTATE WOULD NOT HAVE BROUGHT LARGE PROFIT TO THE INVESTOR.

TERMS.
$50 down, $10 a month. Cash discounts: On cash payments of $75, 5 per cent.; on cash payments of $100, 7 per cent.; on cash payments of $150 or more, 8 per cent.

LOTS $350 UP

Improvements.
Will be first class; streets will be graded, rolled and oiled; cement walks and curbs laid; water piped to each lot. Adequate building restrictions. Ornamental gateways at entrance.

The first tract on your right on Central avenue as you enter this beautiful new district. Beautiful lots with a gentle slope to the south. Soil is a deep rich, sandy loam of great fertility, drying quickly after a rain and leaving no mud. When oiled it makes an excellent pavement of the consistency of asphalt. A superb view of the valley and surrounding hills and of the Sierra Madre Mountains. Less than thirty minutes by trolley to the business center of the city. Property equidistant in other sections, but without these superb features, selling twenty times the price. Suitable building restrictions. Embrace the opportunity. There will be no other like it. The tract is small; the lots are large and will not last long at the extraordinary low price.

Make no other engagements for tomorrow. Our office will be open all day Sunday to give out free tickets.

USE ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE.

A powder to be shaken into the shoes. Your feet feel swollen, nervous and damp, and get tired easily. If you have aching feet, try Allen's Foot-Ease. It rests the feet and makes new or tight shoes easy. Cures aching, swollen, sweating feet, blisters and callous spots. Relieves chilblains, corns and bunions of all pain and gives rest and comfort. Try it today. Sold by all druggists and shoe stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Trial package FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

Solemn vespers will be given at 7:30 in the evening, at which Rev. Thomas Conaty, the bishop's nephew, will preach. At 8:30 a sacred concert will be given by the choir of the church, said to be one of the best in the city.

STRONG TEAM.

TROTTER AND NORTHROP.

The First Baptist Church has scheduled two important meetings for tomorrow. Melvin E. Trotter will speak at 11 o'clock on "Soul Winning," and Dr. S. A. Northrop will preach on "Danger Signals" at 7:30. In anticipation of large audiences at both of these meetings, special preparations have been made for seating the people, and if necessary both auditorium and lecture room will be thrown into one in order to accommodate everybody. The services will be intensely evangelistic, and a wide invitation is extended to the people of the city to attend. Tourists will be welcome, and attentive ushers will be at the doors to see that good sittings are assigned those who go in time.

NOTED WOMAN SPEAKER.

FREE CHURCH DINNER.

On next Thursday evening a meeting of Sunday-school teachers and others interested in Bible study will be addressed in the Epworth League room of the First Methodist Church, by Mrs. M. S. Lamoreaux of Chicago. She is said to be one of the ablest woman speakers in the United States, and those who attend are sure of hearing something unusual.

A church rally will be held at the First United Brethren Church on Sunday, and following the morning service a free dinner will be served to all who see fit to remain for it. The dinner will be prepared by the ladies of the church and will be served in the basement dining-room. From 2:30 to 4 o'clock a meeting will be held in the church and addressed by a number of speakers.

"Unfrequented Japan" will be the subject of an illustrated sermon-lecture by Dr. William Horace Day on Sunday evening, at the First Congregational Church.

Rev. Dr. S. A. Northrop last night addressed the young people of Occidental Heights Baptist Church, the subject of his address being "Five-Foot-Eight."

T. Horace Cleland, a graduate of Occidental College and of Princeton Seminary, will be ordained a Presbyterian minister at the meeting of Los Angeles presbytery on April 9.

J. W. Reed, now on his way to Korea as a missionary, will be supported by the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of the Los Angeles district.

A meeting of representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in this city on Tuesday to decide whether or not they will undertake to establish a school in Southern California. They have determined to convert their deaconess home, on Sunset boulevard, into a hospital.

Emanuel German Lutheran Church will be dedicated at Thorp street and Moneta avenue, on Sunday morning at 10:45. The pastor of the new church is Rev. O. Satzinger, who for some years has been doing missionary work for his denomination in this city. He will be assisted in the dedication services by ministers from Woodland, Pasadena and Pomona.

HOLDS THE JOB.

Dr. McIntyre Celebrates an Impromptu Wedding at the Hotel Angelus, While Attending Banquet.

While Dr. Robert McIntyre was taking part in the reception preceding the banquet given by one of his Sunday-school classes, at the Angelus Hotel, last night, a hurry call came over the telephone.

A young couple had appeared at his residence on Alvarado street for the purpose of being married, and when informed of the fact Dr. McIntyre sent the word: "Send them down to the Angelus."

He at once secured the use of a parlor on the second floor of the hotel, and the wedding took place at the fashionable hostlery. He awaited them at the elevator in the lobby, and led them, accompanied by their witnesses, through the throng of wondering young people, to the little parlor, where the ceremony was performed, and the happy pair departed by the same route, before anybody knew what had happened.

Theodore Roosevelt a "Spot-lighter."

Essentially, Theodore Roosevelt is a star; he does not work well in a stock company. He cannot play villian today, walking gentleman tomorrow, comedian the day after, and hero betimes to suit the exigencies of the play upon the board. Hanna could, Blaine could, McKinley did—though never was he cast in comedy, and never did he play the villain—and Reed took all the parts, though as a villain he was immensely funny. But Theodore Roosevelt is what the profession calls a spot-lighter. He can get off the stage, and the action may go on without him, but he cannot come on as a flunky, nor with a thinking part, nor with the feline tread of the villain. He must be the hero or not perform at all.—[William Allen White, in February Century.

BIBLE LESSONS.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

Prepared for The Times by J. S. Kirtley.

SUNDAY, MARCH 17.

THE CONNECTION.

We come now to the first domestic tragedy in the select race. It is the settlement of the question as to which of the twin sons of Isaac shall be the head of the family and of the coming nation. Neither one was ideal. Esau was the first born and the presumption would be in his favor. But Jacob was better fitted for it. God chose Jacob and had announced the choice, but Isaac was fond of Esau and seemed bent upon having him as the head of the clan. Esau had that place as a birthright. Before Jacob could secure it two things were necessary—the voluntary transfer of that birthright to him by Esau and the formal recognition of him as the heir by Isaac. God would have brought it all about in His own righteous way and at the right time. But Rebekah, the shrewd, ambitious, unscrupulous mother, and Jacob, her well-taught son, could not trust God to do it, and accomplished it by heartless tricks. Long ago Jacob cheated Esau into signing away his right as the first born and now they secure the aged Isaac's recognition, or blessing, by a cunning lie.

THE LESSON.

I.

"The Well-planned Scheme." (Verses 14-17.)

"And Rebekah took the goodly garments of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob, her younger son; and she puts the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck; and she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hands of her son Jacob.

(1.) Contrast anew the two men.

They are past 40 years of age, and each has developed his predominant tendencies. Esau is a "happy-go-lucky" sort of animal, skilled in outdoor arts and employments, improvident, notionate, impulsive, "hale fellow well met" with everybody, sacrificing the permanent to the passing, the future to the present, the enduring to the enjoyable, capable of awful anger and brutal passion. He was further unfitted for that solemn place in history by his stupidity concerning the meaning of his birthright and his utter indifference to it. He showed his unfitness by marrying two Hittite women who were equally out of harmony with his family ideals.

Jacob is a quiet, deep, shrewd, determined man, who forms a plan and never wavers in executing it. He is his mother's son and just as tricky as she is. His name means "supplanter," and it suits the man. He and his mother thought God needed some of their unscrupulous aid in getting him into the right place. He took advantage of Esau. When the hungry fellow came in from the field one day Jacob had the house full of the delicious odor of a vegetable that Esau loved. Then while the odors maddened him he gave away his right as the first born for the pottage.

He works with what he has. Jacob has the qualities that will be most serviceable—foresight, skill, determination, leadership. He needs one thing more—conscience. But he will be converted on his way to Padan-Aram and reconverted on his way back. Then he will be a better man.

To want to aid God with a lie; to deceive her aged and trusting and weak husband; to teach her son to lie and deceive; to take advantage of one of her own sons—such were the plain signs of a self-willed, domineering, unscrupulous woman. We might almost say she was an unnatural mother, she used Esau's clothes to injure him. She perverted every good instinct in her ambition to do an unnecessary thing for her favorite son. She taught him to be deceitful and partially unfitted him for the position into which she was pushing him. She delayed his entrance on his privileges for many years. She arrayed her two sons in deadly antagonism to each other. The lie was none the less a lie for being acted rather than spoken.

II

"The Pathetic Success." (Verses 18-22.)

"And he came unto his father, and said, 'My father; and he said, Here am I; who are thou, my son? And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first born; I have done according as thou badest me; arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. And Isaac said unto his son, how is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because Jehovah, thy God, sent me good speed. And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. And Jacob went near unto Isaac, his father, and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him."

1. The disguise.

It is well done. Yet the voice of Esau could not be wholly assumed. The hairy clothes and the enticing food enabled Jacob to overcome the old man's suspicions. Jacob's lie was enlarged and made more blasphemous by claiming that God had given him quick success in securing the venison. He seems scarcely bold enough to say "my God" only "thy God." It argues a fine appetite and a feeble insight on Isaac's part that Jacob should so easily persuade him that he was Esau, notwithstanding the voice and the short time spent in securing and cooking the food.

2. The blessing.

The omitted verses give it. It was such as a doting father would bestow on a favorite and spoiled elder son. It recognized his right as an elder son. It was after he had eaten the food and drank some wine. Esau seems to have come by his appetite honestly. Isaac smelled the odor of the robe worn by Jacob and that added to his exuberant spirits. He kissed the supposed Esau and then invoked on him all the blessings—temporal blessings and rulership over his mother's children. Isaac was weak but he was also obstinate in placing Esau where God had said he would place Jacob.

3. The disappointment and anger of Esau.

It was to be expected. It was not that he had lost his place at the head of the clan, but that he must now deliver the property of the first born over to Jacob. He saw the duplicity of Jacob and remembered that this was the second time he had been shrewdly supplanted. It is to Isaac's credit that he now saw his own guilt and his failure in trying to alienate the blessing from Jacob, whom God had chosen and that firmly refused to rebestow it on Esau.

III.

"Esau's Murderous Plot." (Verses 41-45.)

"And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him; and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob. And the words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah; and she sent and called Jacob, her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee. Now, therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban, my brother to Haran; and tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away; until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him; then I will send, and fetch thee from hence; why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?"

He had been a frank, open fellow, but now he is learning a lesson from the schemers. To our surprise he shows some foresight, too. He thought his father would soon die. That is what he meant by "the days of mourning for my father." Then he will kill Jacob and settle the question anew and forever. He is too frank to conceal the plot, however, and his mother soon hears it.

Here he is furnished the occasion for doing something long desired. She wanted Jacob, who is now quite a bachelor, to go back to their old home for a wife and not do as Esau has done. She now makes a virtue of necessity and hurries him away from danger with the ostensible purpose of going a-courting. It is easy now to get Isaac's blessing on him. She was mistaken, however, in supposing that Esau would get over his anger in "a few days."

Those unmotherly and unbrotherly deeds were to be remembered and the discord would disturb the family for years to come. Rebekah never saw her son again, and the supplanter became a refugee and still a trickster. He has the birth right, but he never gets the advantage of it till, in fear, he restores it to Esau on his return, years afterward, and Esau throws it away again.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

The one who received the patriarchal blessing became the head of the household or tribe. This was supposed to come to the first born, but the patriarch was absolute and could exercise his own will in the matter.

Esau was, by right of birth, the head of the family, its prophet, priest and king; and no man can renounce such privileges, except as a sacrifice required by God, without "despising" God, who gave them. But more than this, he was the head of the chosen family; on him devolved the blessing of Abraham that "in his seed all families of the earth should be blessed;" and, on despising his birthright, he put himself out of the sacred family, and so became a "profane person." His sin must not be overlooked in our indignation at the fraud of Jacob.—[William Smith.

When ambition and greed led to the estrangement of brothers, to the dividing of a family, to the plotting of a wife and mother against her husband and son, in the interest of a sinfully favored and petted child, it became monstrous. A lying mother teaching her son to deceive his own father in order to rob his brother of his rights is the acme of reckless, conscienceless ambition.—[McFarland.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

(3.) That when the blood is bad the training should be better.

(6.) That when we surrender our honor we sell our birthright.

(7.) That the aged and the confiding are to be treated with truth and tenderness.

Christian Endeavor.

LIFE'S UNIVERSAL GOAL.

Terse Comments on the Uniform Prayer-meeting Topic of the Young People's Societies for March 17: "What Is Success?"—[Prov. iii, 1-18.

By William T. Ellis.

Nowadays, success seems synonymous with a dollar-mark. The man who heaps up the most gold is esteemed successful. Yet as neither high character nor a high order of intelligence are needed to amass money, and as there is nothing intrinsically noble or praiseworthy in the possession of wealth, it may fairly be said that riches are not true success. Indeed, it is a truth beyond denial that many a man has buried his real self, the only self to which success is possible, beneath a pile of gold. The mark of success is not a dollar-mark.

They are most successful who most serve.

Only once in the Bible is the word "success" used, and then it is spoken of as "good success," to be given to those who faithfully follow the law of the Lord. It is worth thinking upon that no man who runs counter to God's word can have true success.

He best succeeds who is counted successful in heaven.

Success lies not in appearance. The angels have written "failure" over more than one life amid the huzzas of the world. Not what we seem to be, but what we really are determines our success or failure. For, ultimately, success is a matter of character.

Simply to be right is success.

If God's way were the world's way then all the crowns would go to the persons who have lived in the public eye; who have done brilliant deeds, perhaps from dark motives; who have heaped up gold, mayhap have stolen it from the poor; and who have acquired fame, often at the expense of honor. No rewards would go to the thousands of obscure mothers and wives who have been faithful unto death, or unto the legions of noble servants of the truth who have sacrificed their lives for the world and their Master; or unto the millions of other heroes who have without flinching done their duty, which was none the less glorious because unknown to men. But, thank God, the Lord does not weigh lives in the world's balances. His knowledge is perfect and his justice is true, and he has crowns for all who have succeeded after the pattern of his Son, who ended his life on a cross, amid the derision and jeers of the multitude.

Conscience must indorse every true success.

We read of a rich man that he left a fortune of so many millions. Yes, he left it. He couldn't take it along, and if his life was represented only by his money bags, he went into the eternal world a poor starveling. Truly successful men do not leave their riches behind. They take them along, for nothing is truly successful that does not endure throughout eternity.

Riches cannot be called success, for any number of scoundrels are rich. Fame cannot be counted highest success, for a bandit, a murderer, or a monster is often more famous than a world benefactor. No; the success to seek is usefulness, achieved along the path of faithfulness.

Only the deed or the life over which can be spoken the Master's "well done," is worthy of the adjective "successful." God's disapproval nullifies all the verdicts of earth.

Success is a fetich with American youth. It is usually interpreted in its lowest sense and is then put above duty or character or obedience to God. The inevitable result of such a standard of life must be materialism and disappointment. There is a better and grander watchword to inscribe on the banners of youth than "Success." It is "The will of God." That is the ambition of heaven; it ought to be the ambition of earth.

Our truest success is shared by the world. We cannot rise on the heads of our fellows to any real success.

Ambition is either wings or weights. He who is ambitious to lift, rises; he who is ambitious merely to rise, falls.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Graduates and friends of Princeton University have presented a new building to the Allahabad Christian College India.

The Church Missionary Society is the largest missionary organization in the country and publishes no less than six periodicals.

The Y.M.C.A. has now sixty-nine men in the foreign department of its work. These secretaries are stationed in the large cities and student centers of eleven countries.

A new international Bible depot for Manchuria is to be built at Niuchwang, funds for this having been raised by Europeans, Chinese and Japanese to the amount of $5000.

In the German university city of Freiburg a society has been formed whose purpose is to open educational institutions in China which shall offer Christian facilities to the students of that kingdom.

The Young People's Missionary Movement is to be incorporated at Albany at an early date, under a board of managers of thirty-nine members, nineteen of whom will be business men and the remainder representatives of twenty home and foreign missionary boards.

More than fifty years ago a Moravian named Heyde, stationed himself on a ridge of the Himalayas at Leh, on the borders of Thibet, and with slight encouragement has held a field until the present time. He has mastered the language, translated the Bible in Thibetan, and has reached not less than 10,000 people.

The Bible Society has for many years enjoyed the privilege of free passes for its agents and books over the lines of the Russian empire, the same favors being extended to it over the railways in Manchuria. This fact recently became known to the Japanese authorities, who at once generously granted the same privileges so that the society should not suffer through the change of control.

CHURCH SERVICES.

Tobacco Sellers' Perquisites.

Every tobacco dealer has on his counter a machine for cutting off the ends of cigars. These machines are popular for the reason that they pay for themselves many times over every year.

The ends that smokers cut off are carefully gathered from the counter and it takes but a few hundred of them to make a pound of good tobacco. This can be sold for 40 or 50 cents.

Some cigar store clerks are very solicitous to see that the patron does not overlook the cutting machine. They push it toward him and he is much impressed with their politeness. These clerks have for a perquisite the machine's cuttings. This adds several dollars weekly to their salaries.

Another Great Auction Sale of ORIENTAL -RUGS-

Begins Monday, March 18

The sale last November proved such a help in the promotion and development of the Oriental Rug Department that we have decided upon another, beginning Monday, March 18. We do not hold these sales for profit. Our aim is to draw people to the Rug Department and the store in general. A visitor to the "Handsomest Furniture Store in America" means another customer for the store. We consider these rug auctions the best advertising that we do.

Our stock has recently been increased by several shipments direct from Asia-Minor. We have never offered a better stock to select from.

Sales Each Day Next Week at 2 p.m.

The rugs are now on display. You are welcome to come in any time now and select the rugs you wish to bid upon.

MME. BERNHARDT IN TROUBLE.

Publishers Refuse to Accept Memoirs Made Up of Press Clippings.

In the midst of physical and financial worries Sarah Bernhardt now has to face a lawsuit. Heinneman, the English publisher, practically accuses her of dishonesty in her memoirs, of which he is part purchaser.

It was Theodore Stanton who proposed to her to publish her life story. For a time she worked with him upon it and then, as the business side of the undertaking grew, it slipped out of the American writer's hands into those of Frederick Mayer, the son of Bernhardt's former manager.

Mayer was then in the life insurance business and made no pretense of being a man of letters. But Bernhardt, who has a keen eye for business, installed him in her house in a study, the walls of which were lined with bound volumes containing press clippings, cuts, photographs and all the matter that had been written about her in all languages by press agents, sensation mongers, admirers and critics. Her instructions were brief: "There's the matter; get it together and make the contracts."

She herself never visited that upper room, never saw a line of the work. The contracts were drawn, Bernhardt agreeing to deliver 200,000 words within two years, reserving the right to publish in the meantime portions of the matter in magazines. Heinneman advanced £1600 for the rights in England, Fasquelle £1200 in France, Langdon $1000 in Germany, Appleton £1600 in America, and Bangs $600 for Scandinavian lands. And Bernhardt pocketed about the same total, say $6000, for what was furnished the magazines.

Seeing this magazine stuff, Heinneman immediately complained that it evidently was not authentic "memoirs" such as he had paid for, called it frankly "bogus scrapbook stuff," and told Bernhardt that within two years she must deliver to him the agreed number of words of a wholly different quality, or be exposed.

Thereupon all work on her side ceased and suit will be instituted as soon as possible. This is very awkward for the tragedienne, coming at a moment when her friends and the admirers of her art are working hard to procure for her the long-refused decoration of the Legion of Honor.

Foods to Preserve Youth.

According to Dr. Cohen, a noted London physician, dietetics furnish mankind with the nearest approach to the fountain of youth. Among the foods most likely to have the effect of keeping the body youthful are the following which any one past forty should use in preference to the heavier and richer articles, and which all city people will probably find most suitable from the age of twenty-eight or thirty onward. Mutton for sedentary people is better than beef. The leg is the best. Milk should always be boiled. Potted meats and game, if genuine and unadulterated, are nutritious and digestible. Fish, particularly white fish, such as sole, whiting, cod, flounders, smelts, etc. Fish is better boiled than fried. Sound, pure bread, is best when home made. Porridge of oatmeal, wheat of maize, with milk, cream, or buttermilk. Puddings of rice, tapioca, sago, arrowroot, macaroni, made with milk and eggs (not egg powders.) Vegetable purees of all kinds.—[New York Globe.

Queen Quality

This season's "Queen Quality" Shoes set another new mark for women's footwear. The keynote of the "Queen Quality" factory is Progress. Today's success is but the stepping stone to greater achievements and still better and higher grade shoes.

The woman who knows only the "Queen Quality" shoe of a few seasons ago can have no conception of the superiority of the "Queen Quality" shoe of today.

Let us show you our assortment of this beautiful footwear to prove this. Let us show you why no other equally good shoes can be sold at so low a price as "Queen Quality."

It is only their tremendous sale that makes it possible to sell "Queen Quality" Oxfords at $3.50, $3.00 and $2.50 per pair. In all styles, in all leathers, for all feet and all tastes.

"They fit where others fail"

You instantly detect a certain air of elegance about a "Queen Quality" Shoe. It is unmistakably an aristocratic shoe. For treble its price you cannot get a shoe more nearly perfect in fit, nor a more comfortable or satisfying one. Yet due to the enormous output of 10,000 pairs daily, "Queen Quality" shoes cost you no more than ordinary shoes.

"Queen Quality" Shoes for the Spring and Summer of 1907 are made from the choicest leathers fashioned into shapes that for smartness, comfort and accurate fitting qualities, are the wonder of the shoemaking trade. We only ask the opportunity of explaining to you personally the good points of these beautiful shoes.

Another Improvement

We recently announced a marked improvement in our service by reason of the enlarged Spring Street Store. Today it is a raising of the standard of our stock.

In answer to an enormous demand--and after long critical comparison with other lines--we have secured for both of our stores the local agency for "Queen Quality" Shoes. We present them to our trade with our unqualified endorsement. In every American city "Queen Quality" Shoes have established a standing; they were better last season than the season before---are better this season than ever. They are worthy your inspection.

which every imitator aims at. But Mennen's Borated Talcum Toilet Powder remains inimitable despite of all false boasts "as good as Mennen's."

Mennen's Toilet Powder made its fame by its superiority. It holds its fame by this same inimitable quality. There is nothing like Mennen's. There could not be, because no one else knows the secret of the Mennen powder and the processes of manufacture. Therefore no "imitation" has been more than a surface imitation, superficial, spurious and fraudulent.

Under the provisions of the new pure food and drugs law every box of Mennen's bears the serial number designated by the government, a guarantee of purity and of protection to every purchaser and user of Mennen's Toilet Powder.

To give absolute protection to all users of Mennen's, the company has patented a non-refillable box—"the box that locks." Insist on Mennen's for your own protection.

Have you tried Mennen's Violet Borated Talcum Toilet Powder? Ladies partial to violet perfume will find Mennen's Violet Talcum fragrant with the odor of fresh-picked Parma violets. For sale everywhere for 25 cts. By mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Sample free.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

DEATH IS LAID TO NITRIC ACID.

PASADENA JURY SO FINDS IN CASE THERE.

Verdict Says That the Poison Was Self-Administered With Suicidal Intent—Man Who Makes Invidious Comparisons Between White Women and Chinamen Gets Stiff Sentence.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, March 16.—Quite a sensation was sprung yesterday morning at the inquest over the remains of Frank M. Washburn, the Colorado-street jeweler, who died suddenly Wednesday night. Dr. Z. T. Malaby, who performed an autopsy on the body, stated that he believed the dead man to have come to his end through an overdose of nitric acid self-administered.

The cause of death had been given out as heart disease, and the inquest was generally supposed to be a mere formality. When the inquest opened Dr. Malaby stated that he had not opened the stomach, and that his deductions were based upon the general condition of the body and stomach. At the request of the deputy Coroner he retired and completed the examination, and a little later reported that he had discovered unmistakable traces of nitric acid in the stomach.

When asked if he did not think it possible that Mr. Washburn might have taken the acid as a medicine and by mistake have taken too large a dose, the doctor stated that he did not believe so. On the strength of the physician's testimony, the jury brought in a verdict of "death by nitric acid poisoning, administered with suicidal intent."

Nitric acid is regularly made use of by manufacturing jewelers in soldering gold and silver, and it is supposed that the dead man diluted a quantity of the drug with water, and, drinking it, left his store and went home to bed. No reason is known that would have caused him to take his life, and his friends and associates are inclined to believe that the act was done during a moment of temporary mental aberration, caused by business worries.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of Ives & Warren, Rev. Edgar C. Riley officiating.

COUNTRY CLUBS AT BAT.

Interesting baseball is looked for tomorrow afternoon, when the nine of the Pasadena Country Club meets the team from the Los Angeles Country Club on the home grounds. The local men have been practicing steadily of late and hope to win an easy victory. There is a rumor drifting around, however, to the effect that the visitors are capable of putting up a pretty strong game, and the unbiased ones say that the local men have their work cut out for them.

HORSE SHOW BANQUET.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual meeting and banquet of the Southern California Horse Show Association, which will be held tonight at Hotel Wentworth. The affair will be one of the most notable ever given by the association, and the event is being awaited with interest. The success of the horse show just passed has put the members in good spirits, and they will be well inclined to enjoy the good cheer set before them.

The election of officers for the coming year will be one of the most important matters undertaken this evening, and there is considerable speculation as to who will head the organization. The association has been fortunate so far in its choice of officers, and each of the exhibitions given has been more successful than its predecessor. Tonight's banquet will be limited to members of the association and a few invited guests.

FLOWER SHOW.

The annual flower show of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association will be held April 4, 5 and 6 in a tent on North Fair Oaks avenue near the Union-street corner. The members of the association insist that the coming exhibition will be the greatest which they have ever undertaken and they expect to create increased interest in flower raising in general.

Last year's show proved popular, and although the weather was not propitious and other things combined to combat the efforts of those in charge, the attendance was large and the Gardeners' Association came out even, if not a little ahead. As the exhibition is not a money-making scheme, this is all that they ask and this year they are starting in with renewed courage. Weather conditions are just right, according to those who are posted, and it is expected that when the time of the show arrives the blooms will be in the best possible condition.

HUNDRED DAYS STRAIGHT.

John Hogan, a vendor of pins and other notions, thought to become sarcastic concerning Chinamen and white women at the expense of Mrs. Nettie Atterbury Thursday afternoon, and in consequence is esconced in the County Jail with a sentence of 100 days against him. When Mrs. Atterbury refused to purchase some of Hogan's wares he became decidedly abusive and made disparaging remarks concerning the different treatment which would have been accorded a Chinaman. Finally the man left after frightening Mrs. Atterbury badly.

Later in the evening when Mr. Atterbury returned home, his wife told him what had happened and he started out to find the police. He had no difficulty in securing a hearing and within a short time the entire department was on the lookout for Hogan. They located him and promptly placed him under arrest. When brought before Judge Klamroth Hogan pleaded not guilty and demanded an immediate trial. He got what he asked for and a sentence of 100 days besides, without any alternative of paying a fine.

HER ROBE BURNS.

Miss Genevieve Babcock of North Fair Oaks avenue had a narrow escape from serious injury by burning yesterday morning. Garbed in an eiderdown bathrobe, Miss Babcock was standing in front of an open gas fire. She approached too close to the flames and in a moment her soft wrap was a mass of flames. She made frantic efforts to extinguish the fire, calling upon her sister for assistance.

The sister, who happened to be in an adjoining room, rushed in, and taking in the situation in a glance, seized a blanket and threw it about the victim. The flames were smothered immediately. With the exception of a few burns about the head and shoulders and a severe nervous shock, Miss Babcock suffered no ill effects from her trying experience.

ENTERTAIN BUTLER.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, and Mrs. Butler, who are visiting Southern California on their wedding trip, are being made the recipients of many social functions here.

Last evening President and Mrs. Walter A. Edwards of Throop gave a dinner and reception at Hotel Maryland in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Butler. The table was laid in the pink and ivory grillroom and held as its centerpiece a large basket of pink and white sweet peas. The candle shades, place cards and other accessories were all carried out in the same delicate colors. Those present at dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond, Dr. and Mrs. Bridge, Rev. and Mrs. Malcolm James McLeod and Arthur H. Fleming.

Yesterday noon Prof. George E. Hale of No. 489 Bellefontaine street gave a delightful stag luncheon in honor of Dr. Butler. The company was made up of distinguished men, including Mr. Wirt of the Carnegie Institute at Washington, D. C.; Judge Howland of New York City, Walter S. Adams of Mount Wilson observatory, President Walter A. Edwards of Throop, Dean Chamberlain of Throop, Charles F. Holder, Dr. J. H. McBride and Seward Simons.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Thursday noon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Crandall on North Craig avenue, Miss Bessie Crandall was married to William H. Bauer, son of Mrs. H. R. Mercredy of North Craig avenue. Rev. Mr. Cherrington of Lamanda Park performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives only. After the ceremony the young couple left for a brief wedding trip to San Diego.

The members of the Shakespeare Club will give a reception this afternoon to sixty new members who have recently entered the club. Miss Annie Bartlett is chairman of the afternoon. Mrs. Alice E. State and Miss Julia Mosher will give their report on the State federation at Bakersfield.

Mrs. Beebe of Hotel Green was the hostess yesterday at a dainty sweet pea luncheon, at which covers were laid for sixteen guests, most of whom were from Mrs. Beebe's old home, Columbus, O.

Mrs. Stella de Long and Hans Nelson were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride at No. 1105 North Fair Oaks avenue.

The members of the J. M. M. Society of the Christian Church are to give "An Evening in Dixie" on March 19, at the Y.M.C.A. Hall. The affair will be for the benefit of the new church.

Mr. and Mrs. Teegarden of Linda Vista have as their guests for an indefinite visit, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Clifford of Marion, Ind.

RUNAWAY THROWS TWO.

Missouri Man Has a Leg Broken in Accident With Horse at Glendale.

GLENDALE, March 15.—L. A. Jones was exercising a spirited horse on Glendale avenue this evening and invited C. W. Puckett to ride with him. They attempted to drive up and down the road near a train on the Salt Lake road and passed the engine as it blew off steam. The frightened animal bolted and, dashing down the street, crossed the track and ran against a telephone pole, throwing both men out upon the cement walk. Mr. Puckett was thrown in such a way as to twist his right leg about the pole, breaking it in several places.

A cot was obtained in a near-by store, and the injured man was carried to his home three blocks away. Dr. Chase and Dr. Hunt were called and together they set the broken bones. Mr. Jones sustained serious bruises about the body, his face was considerably scratched and the buggy was smashed, but not beyond repair. Mr. Puckett and family are here from Missouri to spend the winter. They intended to return in a few days to their home.

HUNTINGTON PARK.

HUNTINGTON PARK, March 15.—The body of Herbert Schlicher, who suicided yesterday, was removed last night, by order of the Coroner, to Bresee's undertaking rooms in Los Angeles, where the inquest will be held tomorrow morning. Schlicher was formerly a New York hotel-keeper and minor politician. A brother is said to be in an insane asylum in New York. Up to a recent date his mother and two sisters were living in Germany.

SIERRA MADRE.

SIERRA MADRE, March 15.—Electric street lighting is in prospect here. At the meeting of the Board of City Trustees last evening the chairman reported that the Edison Electric Company would install a system of fifty street lamps at a cost of 90 cents per lamp per month, for all-night service. This it was thought would be sufficient for the present.

The directors of the Board of Trade have elected the following officers: Vice-president, Charles Kertsing; secretary, C. J. Pegler; treasurer, Charles Ferry.

S. C. King, who came here some time ago, died suddenly Wednesday morning.

SIX TOURISTS A WHALING GO.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, March 15.—Capt. Will Graves, in the launch Tourist, with half a dozen passengers, went deep-sea fishing yesterday, and between Long Beach and Newport encountered a school of five brown whales.

When the craft was within one hundred yards of the leviathans, one of the passengers protested that he was not near-sighted, and the other members of the party agreed with him.

Capt. Graves started up the coast. The whales followed, chasing the boat for about two miles, but without any apparent malicious designs.

The largest whale was about eighty feet long, while the others were from forty to sixty feet.

FEAR THE PROBE IN LONG BEACH.

GREAT CONCERN OVER LITTLE ORDER BOOK THERE.

Liquor Salesman, in Jail for Violation of Town's Prohibition Ordinance, Threatens to Make Interesting Revelations If His Release Is Not Speedily Accomplished.

LONG BEACH, March 15.—"For heaven's sake may those names never get out," is the fervent wish in a good many households here today.

Their publication would be so embarrassing.

Deserted by his employer and unable to pay the $250 fine assessed him yesterday for giving away samples of his firm's liquors, Charles E. Ormes is still in the Long Beach City Jail, apart from his bride of two weeks, who is in Los Angeles, weeping over her husband's plight.

Ormes's employer, Jacob Beattus, says the fine is excessive, and his salesman must rot in jail before he pays it, but Ormes, who, at first refused to "squeal," now says that unless he is speedily released there will be "something doing." In this connection much interest centers in a little order book, taken from Ormes yesterday, and which is said to contain the names of several Long Beach residents who have been customers of the liquor house.

This morning City Attorney Monk concluded that in view of the jury trial of Beattus next Monday, that little book might supply him with information of good witnesses. He forthwith made a formal demand upon Desk Sergeant Kutz, who demurred to surrendering anything without an order from his chief. Monk then asked the marshal for the book, but the latter denied any knowledge of it. Monk then asked the City Recorder for an order of court, but this was not given. This afternoon, however, the book was surrendered to Recorder Hart, who retains possession for the present.

Its pages are said to contain some interesting data of private consumption of wines and stronger beverages by citizens who are decidedly averse to appearing as witnesses in any liquor case.

City Attorney Monk intimates that he does not wish to embarrass any one, but he thinks the mysterious book may furnish information of the existence of illicit dealings in booze and for this reason he is extremely anxious to get a glimpse of the contents of the book.

Beattus is out on $200 cash bail and has asked for a jury trial on Monday.

CHAMBER'S GRIEVANCE.

The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night was devoted in large part to a denunciation of the miserable transportation facilities of the Pacific Electric. The company was given a strong scoring by the citizens present. Reference was made to the numerous promises made of betterment which had never been fulfilled, and it was decided to make a strong aggressive fight for better conditions. The question was referred to the transportation committee, W. W. Lowe, chairman, to propose a plan of action and report in two weeks.

WANT THE VETERANS.

Long Beach will endeavor to secure the annual encampment of the Southern California Veteran's Association. A committee from the Chamber of Commerce will meet with the Board of Control, April 18, and make an offer.

Coronado the society resort.

LADDER THIEF AGAIN.

Makes Debut in Hollywood at House of One of Wealthiest Citizens. Gets Watches and Gold.

HOLLYWOOD, March 15.—The residence of Jacob Jepson, one of the wealthiest men of this city, was robbed last evening between 7 and 10 o'clock. The thieves entered through a second-story window, which they reached by means of a ladder. The ladder did not belong on the premises. Two watches and $10 in gold were taken.

This is the third robery here within a week, the Hotel Hollywood having been burglarized a few days ago, when small pieces of jewelry and women's underwear were stolen.

Another theft was from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bireley, on Prospect avenue. The thief, who took a carpet sweeper, was arrested.

OLD EMPLOYE GONE.

Charles A. Smith, who died Sunday at his home at Hacienda Park, Hollywood, was city solicitor for the Edison Electric Company. He was one of the oldest employés of the company. He served in the Civil War as hospital steward of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Mr. Smith enlisted at the first call and served till the end of the war. He came to California twenty years ago. A widow, a daughter, Mrs. Frank R. Liddell, and a son, Carl F. Smith, survive.

TOURNAMENT PLANNED.

The Hollywood Club is planning an out-of-doors tournament for April. If successful, it will be made an annual event.

Go to Coronado now.

TREAT FOR CARRIERS.

Pomona Boys Who Deliver "The Times" Will Have Outing in the Mountains.

POMONA, March 15.—The Times local carrier boys are anticipating a jolly day tomorrow, when L. S. Androus, maanger of the local agency, has invited them to go on a tally-ho ride and picnic to Old Hogsback, in San Antonio Cañon. Mr. Androus intends to make this an annual outing event. He is also considering the organization of a boys' baseball team from among his carriers. The boys who will enjoy tomorrow's outing are Clayton Brownwell, Allan O'Hara, George Van Every, Roy Young, Clarence Heiber, Roy Soper, Claude McCausland, Harry Jones, Reginald and Charles Graham.

The California Rose Company is making large shipments of young rose bushes from the local nurseries at the south end of White avenue, having shipped over 200,000 to all parts of the country in the past three months. The planting season here will finish in about three weeks, when half a million cuttings will have been transferred from the glass houses to the ground.

The funeral of Francis L. Pratt, whose sudden death here yesterday has shocked the whole community, will be held at the home of his son, H. S. Pratt, on East Holt avenue Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The expressions of hosts of friends here, and numerous telegrams of condolence from New England, testify to the high regard in which he was held.

H. F. McGowan and family will move into the house at Garey avenue and Center street which they recently purchased from Dr. J. Edwin McGawon. The latter and his wife have rented the cottage on Holt avenue owned by Mrs. F. B. King.

Miss Olive Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, is critically ill at the home of her parents on West Holt avenue.

Mrs. James Becket has sold her house and lot at the northeast corner of Holt and Garey avenues to M. Stanley, a mining man from Alaska, for $10,000 cash.

Mrs. Sidney M. Haskell of Los Angeles, accompanied by her nieces, Mrs. Orson B. Stebbins and Miss Grace Cline of Chicago, are guests of friends here.

Room now at Coronado.

AZUSA.

AZUSA, March 15.—Architect F. A. Frye was today awarded the contract for building a $10,000 bungalow for Mrs. Kate Vosburg, sister of James Slauson. The cottage will be located just east of Azusa, on the foothill citrus ranch, of which Mrs. Vosburg is one of the owners. A beautiful grove of eucalyptus and ornamental trees near the present residence of Mrs. Macnell, sister of Mrs. Vosburg, has been selected for the site for the new house. Work will be begun as soon as men and material can be procured, and it is understood that the house will be completed in ninety days.

M. Boyd has sold to Mrs. Mary Gantzer of Pasadena a fifty-foot lot on Azusa avenue, with house, for $3000.

Rev. C. F. Richardson, who has been acting as supply for the Presbyterian Church, has been extended a call to the pastorate of the church.

March 28, at Hotel Azusa, is the time and place decided upon today for the Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

ALHAMBRA.

ALHAMBRA, March 15.—The design of Ernest Braunton for parking the grounds of the High School has been received, and the actual work of improvement will be started at once. Cement walks, winding driveways, ornamental trees and shrubs, besides a variety of flowerws, with fine lawns, will make an attractive setting for the building. In the south end of the grounds will be located the athletic field, where there will be tennis and basketball courts, a running track and baseball field. Seats will be placed beneath the large pepper trees, all of which are to be left standing.

GLENDORA SALES.

GLENDORA, March 15.—The sale of the C. E. Needham and Mrs. Amanda Kidwell foothill ranches, consisting of 111 acres, forty acres of which are set solid to oranges and lemon trees in full bearing, to Rudolf Schiffmon of Pasadena, through Baker & Lewis, is reported. Consideration named, $45,800.

C. E. Needham has purchased of Mr. Stewart of Santa Ana fifteen acres on Sierra Madre avenue, without improvements, for a home.

George Matheson has sold his twenty-acre tract, set solid to lemons, to Mrs. A. Kidwell, close in; consideration, $19,000.

The sale of eleven acres belonging to O. Mathias to Philip Hoos, through the Glendora Realty Company, is reported. Consideration, $4000.

REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

OUSLY HURT BY AUTOMOBILE.

ENT OCCURS ON STREET IN SAN BERNARDINO.

Resident of the County Seat Is Run Down Although Is Not Moving Rapidly. Is Under Amendments.

BY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERNARDINO, March 15.—[Special Dispatch.] John Culver, a well-known resident of this city, was run down and badly injured this afternoon by an automobile driven by Dr. Burke of Highland. Immediately after the accident Dr. Burke started along Third street at a rapid rate. The thoroughfare was crowded, and Culver evidently became confused by the crush of traffic, for he left from a place of safety directly in front of the machine. Fatalities are feared.

AMENDMENT FIGHT.

H. Goodcell this morning in the Superior Court for a writ of injunction restraining the clerk from placing the ballots for the municipal election in April of certain amendments to the city charter. Mr. Goodcell claims that the ordinance under which the City Council proposes to submit the proposed amendments to the voters, was adopted as an emergency ordinance, and that the city charter expressly provides that thirty days must elapse before such an ordinance becomes effective; that the ordinance violates the charter in many more than one subject, and that it does not indicate the nature of the amendments to be voted upon.

A motion was anticipated, but the majority of the voters is well-known fact that the proposed amendments could not be effected for two years, and that they would not appear on the ballot. The voters therefore, have ample time to take cognizance of charter amendments and will be in time to submit them to the election of 1909, and in the meantime the present charter will have been thoroughly tested, giving them a better ability to judge what amendments may be really necessary.

The injunction proceeding was instituted by Goodcell for J. N. Victor. A demurrer on the demurrer to the complaint was made before Judge Shaw, and the matter was taken under advisement.

CONSPIRACY.

Board of Los Angeles has been served with a criminal suit in the Superior Court here against C. C. Bell, Frank Bell, William Usrey and T. E. Bell, all of Los Angeles, to have certain deeds and void deeds to the Indian mining claims in this county be declared were executed as part of a conspiracy between the defendants to defraud him of his interest in the property.

FOR MAYOR.

committee which is to nominate A. M. Ham, independent candidate for Mayor, was selected at an enthusiastic meeting of representative citizens. The committee is composed of 125 citizens, representing the Republican, Superior Court business and professional men. Among the members belong the president of the Chamber of Commerce and Power Company, W. F. Bledsoe, presiding judge of the Superior Court; A. L. Reed, president of the Farmers' Exchange; R. D. Roberts, president of the Pasadena National Bank; W. H. Holliday, cashier of the San Bernardino National Bank; W. S. Boggs, president of the California State Bank; Frank Miller, banker; J. B. Frith, shoe manufacturer; T. P. Hudson, grocer; and Rev. Dr. Dille, representing the Methodist denomination.

ONTARIO.

March 15.—The City Trustees decided to improve A street, from Euclid street, by oiling them and to grade Mountain avenue from A to be oiled from the south to the town limits. Euclid avenue is being regraded and improved by the Southern Pacific track to the new reservoir being built, which was hindered by rain, which was discovered that it was going on on the work will now be continued. The matter been adjusted by which $35 for the extra land. Superintendent Hinkley refused from $75 to $100 races, March 23-24.

SCHOOL CALL.

March 15.—C. L. Hayes, H. F. Dargan, members of the Trustees of the Redlands, held an all-day meeting, in which they visited the proper buildings of the district in response to the recommendation of Superintendent Lewis B. Avery in his recent report for repairs contract of a cooking class of the eighth grade to cost $600. The manual training building at Craftsman Home, and the erection of half of a twelve-room building at a cost of $19,000. This brings the amount for which an election to vote bonds. The call includes a tax for operating expenses the same as in 1906, for the combined district for both purposes under the control of a board of trustees. April 1 at the Lowell

The bonded indebtedness of the district is $52,000, and it is proposed at the rate of $7000 a year, so that they will be paid off in thirteen years. The bonds about to be issued is mature.

RAILROAD.

J. H. Fisher, O. D. Chesnut went over the route of the proposed new mile-high electric road to Oak Glen this morning, using Mr. Fisher's new Thomas Flyer sixty-horse power auto to make the trip. Mr. Chesnut is president of the new railroad company, which is to build the road, and the fact that the Fishers, both of whom are millionaires, are becoming interested in the proposition is a matter of considerable importance, as it was generally thought that the Fishers were largely interested in the proposed new Hubbard line, which will compete with the "Mile High" line as far as local service is concerned. The Hubbard line is only to cross the city from west to east and today's move would indicate that it will make some connection with the "Mile High" line.

Another matter which gives the affair added mystery is that many of the stockholders in the "Mile High" road are also stockholders in the Home Gas Company, from which it was expected to secure power for the new road. The Fishers are among the heaviest local stockholders in the Edison Company, and own half of the stock in the San Bernardino Valley Traction Company, and so the mystery deepens, and Mr. Fisher maintains his characteristic silence.

GOES TO NORTHERN BANK.

John W. Wilson, national bank examiner for the district including California and Nevada, has resigned to accept the position of vice-president of the American National Bank of San Francisco and will leave tomorrow for his duties in that city. Mrs. Wilson and daughter, Miss Margaret Wilson, will leave after High School commencement. Miss Wilson being a graduate with this year's class.

Mr. Wilson was for many years cashier of the First National Bank of this city, which position he resigned five years ago to accept that of national inspector.

BIG LAND DEAL OFFERS PUZZLE.

WHO OWNS THE TEN THOUSAND ACRES JUST SOLD?

Papers Filed in Santa Ana by E. Barnett of Los Angeles, but He Deeds Property to Trust Company. Huntington's Name Mentioned. City Marshal Contest.

SANTA ANA, March 15.—Papers filed with the County Recorder leave in doubt the real owners of the 10,500 acres recently purchased from three heirs of the Don Marco Forster estate, in the south end of the county. Four deeds and four mortgages were filed all at once yesterday evening in the big land deal, the largest recorded in this county for some time.

E. Barnett of Los Angeles purchased the interests of three heirs of the Forster ranch of San Juan Capistrano and by agreement with two other heirs, the ranch was divided, Barnett taking 10,599.82 acres and the two heirs, John and Frank Forster, 3506.55 acres.

Barnett gave three mortgages of $12,500 each, to the grantors and a $45,000 mortgage to the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company. The puzzle in the deal is a deed from E. Barnett to the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Los Angeles. Who Barnett represented in the deal and who is the real owner of the 10,500 acres are mere matters of conjecture. There has been much talk that the Huntington interests are concerned and that the deal has some connection with the electric line to San Diego.

L. H. Hill will not enter the city marshal fight, which leaves a three-cornered contest between City Marshal G. E. Maxwell, Nightwatchman W. E. Baker and L. M. Edwards. Hill was brought forward by a number of law enforcement people, but it was concluded that with Edwards in the race, Hill could not get in sight of election. Hill says he thinks the fight lies between Maxwell and Baker.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Arthur S. Blackman, aged 27, and Winnifred B. Evans, aged 34, both of Los Angeles; Edward Grubb, aged 34, of Los Angeles, and Georgiana A. McDonald, aged 32, of San Diego.

Go to Coronado for auto races.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, March 15.—The district convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions of the Christian Church was held yesterday in the church here. After the business was disposed of, talks on the work in India were given by Mrs. N. Frank Morse of Placentia. Mrs. Whiteside of Huntington Beach told of the work in Mexico, and Mrs. R. T. Harris of Santa Ana of the work in the United States. Miss Leona Freeman of Santa Ana sang a solo. Mrs. Reba Smith of Whittier, State president; Mrs. W. R. Harper of Los Angeles, State centennial secretary; Miss Anna Cason of Pomona, W. P. Bentley returned missionary from China, and Rev. Charles A. Young of Santa Ana were among the speakers. Misses Ethel Chapman and Helen Gilman of Fullerton furnished piano music. The ladies of the Orange auxiliary served the noon luncheon.

TRAIL BLAZERS WIRE.

Crossley and Dundas Reach Bagdad. Machine Working Finely—Sand Up to Hubs.

RIVERSIDE, March 15.—A telegram, dated at Bagdad, was received this morning from Ted Crossley and C. A. Dundas, the intrepid automobilists who are blazing a trail to Searchlight, Nev., in their twenty-horse-power car "Betsy." The dispatch, which was signed by Crossley, brought this assurance: "Sand up to the hubs. Betsy working fine. Will reach destination Friday night. Telegraph Goffs."

The State Citrus Experimental Station has leased from the Riverside Cemetery Association for four years a plot of about eight acres, adjoining the cemetery on the south. The trees on the property will be used for experimental purposes, and the manner in which they revive in response to scientific treatment will be an interesting object lesson.

BANQUET OF DRUGGISTS.

Riverside druggists, to the number of about twenty-five, with several out-of-town guests, enjoyed a banquet at the Victoria Club last evening, followed by spirited matches in the billiard-room and bowling alley.

A lively game of indoor baseball was played at Armory Hall last night between Co. M and a team of Modern Woodmen. The soldiers won by a score of 21 to 16.

Mrs. Mary B. Welch of Los Angeles gave an entertaining talk yesterday afternoon at a conference held under the direction of the local Young Women's Christian Association. She was followed by Mrs. H. A. Plimpton, who spoke on the local work of the association. Musical features of the afternoon were the piano selections by Miss Bessie Locke and a song by Miss Squire. Mrs. Demzil Coldren and Mrs. W. H. Robinson were the hostesses.

Automobile Gymkhana at Coronado.

CORONA.

CORONA, March 15.—George Riley has bought of A. P. Lemmon a six-room cottage at Fourth and Victoria streets for $1600. Mr. Lemmon will erect another cottage in the same quarter block.

The county Sunday-school convention in Riverside this week was attended by Rev. George B. Cliff, Dr. A. M. Stafford, Mrs. Starkey and the Misses Taber, Fraser, Marion Martin and Grace Wells.

Local delegates to the district Epworth League convention in Whittier included Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rogers, Mrs. George B. Cliff, Misses Anna Bell and May Cechin and Leslie and Clariton Bell.

E. A. Cook, a brakeman, was thrown from a car at the depot Wednesday evening, sustaining severe bruises on his head.

Dr. and Mrs. Dunnington and the latter's sister, Miss Halstead, arrived Wednesday from Whittier to make their home on the doctor's ranch, recently purchased of A. C. Wood.

Mrs. Juliet Powell Rice of Los Angeles and her sister, Mrs. A. H. Thompson of Washington, widow of the late Chief Geographer Thompson of the United States Geological Survey, are to make their home here.

Auto races March 23-24 at Coronado.

SAN DIEGO.

SAN DIEGO, March 15.—The South Park and East Side Railway Company has filed a petition with the City Council asking for the franchise of B street from Fourth street to the water front. The company proposes to erect a pier at the foot of the street and to establish a line of launches for pleasure parties on the bay.

The Killkare ranch, one of the best known in the county, situated near Jamul, has been bought by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schueller of New York, who intend to occupy it. Mrs. Schueller is better known as Dr. Vale Hughes, who has had one of the largest medical practices in New York.

That there will be no delay by the government in building the coaling station in this harbor, was indicated by the reception of plans for the officers' homes by Commander Almy, who will have charge of the work.

With a view of testing their usefulness, the San Diego Electric Railway Company has ordered 250 steel ties from the Carnegie works. If they are found practical they will be used in place of the wooden ties in future railroad extensions, the wooden ties having recently advanced in value more than 100 per cent. The ties are eight feet six inches long by five and one-half inches deep, the top and bottom flanges being four and one-half and eight inches wide, respectively.

Coronado next week's event, auto races.

INVESTIGATE EXPLOSION.

Inquiry Being Made in the Venice Mystery—Going East for School Donation.

VENICE, March 15.—Investigation of the mystery surrounding the explosion of Tuesday night is still progressing, though Manager Hanna of the Kinney Company has expressed himself as satisfied that there was no negligence on the part of the new employés nor any criminal attempt on the part of the old force, to wreck the power-house, as was the first suspicion of many.

Following, as it did, close upon the discharge of one man and the "walk-out" of his three companions, and taken in connection with the frequent boasts of Chief Engineer Moore that no one would be able to run the plant if he and his bunch should ever "get the hatchet," it was a reasonable inference that the machinery had been tampered with or in some way left "fixed" so that a new man should have some such trouble as befell Expert Machinist Robineau, who took charge of the place after the strikers quit.

Mr. Orr of the C. E. Hull Company of Los Angeles, who installed the original plant two years ago, was sent for and on Wednesday made a personal examination, which revealed the fact that nothing was wrong with the pipes or machinery save ordinary leaks, one of which connecting with a large "condenser," used for the plunge bath-house, which was not in service at present, allowed an accumulation of pressure which resulted in the explosion, and wreck of about $1000 worth of machinery.

No one was injured, though the man in charge was picked up by the force of the explosion and hurled a dozen feet down the vacant strip of floor in the boiler room.

The Abbot Kinney Company is going right ahead with its original schedule of improvements, the latest project being the asphalting of the big pier, a move that will please visitors and residents of the beach section.

Arrangements have been completed for the use of the auditorium and dancing pavilion, which are donated to the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine for their big initiation ceremonies on April 27, when a class of probably 300 tyros will be conducted "across the hot sands," whatever precise experience that may indicate. On May 1 the Daughters of Isis will hold their initiation in the same place and Friday, May 10, will be observed as Venice Day by the Shriners and their friends, a full day of festivities being planned, to close with a grand ball in the evening.

The following night will be all-fool's night and the fiesta of masks and carnival of "ticklers" and confetti will close the week of frolic.

Nothing new has developed in line of the proposed torpedo and life-saving station, and naval reserve battalion, but Lewis E. Bradt of the Chamber of Commerce is in possession of a mass of correspondence, both personal and official, from Senators Frank Flint and George C. Perkins, also the Secretary of the Navy and Adjutant-General of this State, all relating to the subject and throwing a favorable light upon the feasibility of the proposition. It will not be possible under Federal regulations to establish this station at once, but the wires have been laid and will be pulled vigorously.

Now that the Trustees have rescinded their action and granted a permit for the dancing pavilion and licensed the liquor-selling restaurants, a few statistics regarding the morals of and sobriety of the local resort may be of interest.

A careful search of the official records for the ten months from April 26, 1906, to February 25, 1907, the greatest length of time it was possible to cover in all the points desired, there being no trace of the public records of Redondo before the social-purity crusade of last year, shows thus: The total number of arrests for drunkenness in this period in the various beach towns was: Santa Monica, 294; Redondo, 178; Long Beach, 175; Ocean Park (including Venice,) 63.

The railway company's records show that in this time there were over 500,000 excursionists to the seaside and of this half-million more than 62 per cent. came to Ocean Park.

Mrs. Abbot Kinney will depart in a few days for the East. She goes as the ambassador of the Venice Chamber of Commerce and Ocean Park Board of Education for the purpose of soliciting the custodians of the Rockefeller and Sage millions that have been set aside for the assistance of higher education. Her especial commission is to secure a pledge of aid for the projected polytechnic high school. If the philanthropists lend the proper encouragement, the proposed union high school district will obligate itself to provide a site of ten acres and vote bonds in the sum of $75,000 to help place the institution on its feet.

FOR CONSTIPATION

THE WONDERFUL ROTARY STEAM ENGINE TO INVADE ENGLAND.

Negotiations Now Under Way For Purchase of British Rights of Manufacture.

The World-Wide Popularity of This Wonderful Invention Is Making the Most Conservative Business Men Sit Up and Take Notice.

There is small doubt but before this next week is past, that the negotiations under way for the sale of the English rights will assume definite shape, or, be far enough advanced to have assurance of a successful conclusion, adding another great victory to the foreign conquests of the Crescent Rotary Steam Engine. Mr. Larson of 212 Mercantile Place, says that this second big deal coming so close upon the heels of the consummation and sale of the German rights, has made a tremendous demand for the shares of this fortunate company. The price placed upon this stock, at $1.50 per share, for a few days, is about one-fourth what it should sell for in the face of these bright prospects.

The consideration of the German rights deal was one dollar and fifty cents royalty per horsepower, and $50,000 will be paid the company upon the filing of their final papers, which will be in a very short time. This princely sum is paid as an evidence of fulfillment on the part of the buyers, Messrs. Scheck Bros. of Cassel, Germany, and it is the conservative opinion of well informed gentlemen that there will be used an excess of half a million horsepower per year, bringing in the tremendous revenue of three-quarters of a million dollars. Certainly a liberal sum. See how it looks set down in figures—$750,000. And if these German manufacturers should use just a few more horsepower, would set this tidy sum over into the millions—a revenue from royalties equal to or in excess of the capital stock of the company. On that basis of earnings the company could bond itself for an unlimited sum, making every dollar worth 10 or 20 times the par value. In the realm of "modern high finance," that might take place, and while this subject is up. It were well for every present shareholder to remember that, now that these shares are assuming such tremendous value in the industrial world, they must be careful and hold on to them—stock brokers are liable to come into the market, either buying outright at whatever they have to pay, or, throwing a block of stock into the market at a cut price (buying them back themselves) to break your confidence in the value of your holdings and cause you to throw your stock on the market so they can buy it at their price. Mr. Larson is quite anxious to have each and every shareholder cling to his holdings and reap the certain reward that will come to every owner of this gilt edge security.

For the accommodation of men or women who cannot, for any reason, get to the office at 212 Mercantile Place during the day to investigate this proposition, Mr. Larson, or his assistant, Mr. Epton, will be on hand during the evening hours tonight to afford them his privilege. One week from tonight these shares will be advanced to somewhere near $2.50 perhaps, so you had better look into the proposition at once while the price remains at $1.50 per share.

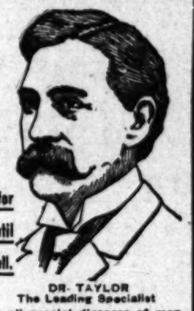
MEN ONLY

I Cure the Cases That Others Cannot Cure



A bold statement, but just as true as it is bold. Not all cases that others fail to cure are curable by my methods, but fully ninety per cent. of them are. The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult me. I know exactly what can be done in every instance. I ought to know this, for I have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty-five years. If your case is curable I will treat you. If it isn't I will not. If I treat you, and if you so desire,

I Will Wait for My Fee Until You Are Well.

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

I also cure all special diseases of men such as Hydrocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Diseases, etc.

WEAKNESS

Weakness in men is comparatively a simple ailment and is but a symptom of local disorder, a congestion of an important nerve center. No stimulating treatment, whether internal or locally applied, can do more than excite temporary activity. By my system of local treatment I restore absolutely normal conditions throughout the organs involved, which promptly results in complete and permanent restoration of strength and vigor. This treatment is original with me, and is the only radical and certain cure yet devised.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a relaxation, knotting and twisting of the most vital blood vessels of the organic system. It stagnates the local circulation and interferes with the processes of waste and repair. Neglect brings derangement of functions and injury to the general health. Most physicians resort to surgical operations and hospital treatment. I cure Varicocele in one week without operation, pain or detention from business. My cures are absolutely permanent and no ill effects whatever can follow my treatment.

EXAMINATION FREE

I offer not only Free Consultation and Advice, but to every case that comes to me I will make a careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about this trouble. If you cannot call, write for diagnosis chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a. m to 9 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, March 15.—[Reported by A. H. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.10; at 5 p.m., 30.10. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 47 deg. and 62 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 80 per cent.; 5 p.m., 39 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 10 miles. Maximum temperature, 68 deg.; minimum, 46 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The only precipitation of consequence reported west of the Mississippi River during the last twenty-four hours occurred in the northwestern portion of Oregon and in Western Washington. East of the Mississippi River, considerable precipitation occurred, and somewhat cooler weather prevails this morning along the Great Lakes and in the Middle Atlantic and New England States. The barometric conditions on the South Pacific Slope, while favoring a continuation of fair weather in Los Angeles and vicinity during tonight and Saturday, indicate the possible approach of a storm area from the southwest, and while no precipitation is expected to occur during the next thirty-six hours, some cloudiness may be expected.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; variable winds.

TRADING GENERAL ON STOCK EXCHANGE.

TRADING was quite general during the early call on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange Friday, and the session closed with a longer sales sheet than has been posted for several weeks.

Oil stocks were the leaders. Olinda Land Company was the most active, being handled to the extent of 8000 shares, the price ranging from 20½@20. The close was at 19¾@20.

Columbia Oil was also a favorite, being traded in to a total of 6400 shares, 6000 of which were sold at 82¼@82½, buyer thirty days, while the odd lot went in at 82 cash. The stock closed at 81@82, showing a distinct loss as compared with Thursday.

There was a strong demand from inside sources for Mexican Petroleum, a trader known to be in close touch with the company being in the field for all he could gather in. Bidding never went above 1.34¼, but this broker took all offered at 1.34½. The close showed no change in the bid, although the asking price was weakened 1¼.

Buying of old-issue Associated Oil shares also was pronounced, several traders being in the floor for it, with bids at 43@43¼. No sales of the new stock were recorded.

Union Oil was in good demand, sales were for ten shares only, however, but the stock closed with a rise of 1¼ showing on the bid, while the asking price remained steady, at 216. Central Oil showed little change. Western Union was wanted at 300, and offered at 310. Globe was ex-dividend Friday, and the stock was offered at 14½, but found no takers, closing without a bid.

American National Bank was traded in to the extent of thirty shares at 16.50, the buyer leaving the floor with his order unfilled, as the stock closed with 116.50 bid, and none offered.

In the miscellaneous list, United States Long Distance was the only trader, five shares of that company selling at 55. The stock closed at 52@55. Home preferred was off again at 64.75@66.50, with no trading. The common was offered at 20.

Little was done during the mining call. A few transactions were made in Johnnie Consolidated, at 13@13¼, but no strength was in the demand. Consolidated Mines was handled to a limited extent, but the price was low. California Hills came in for a slight play at constantly weakening quotations. Eldorado Cañon held firm at previous quotations. Clark Copper was on nearly the same level as that on which it closed Thursday. Several thousand shares of Nevada Searchlight changed hands at 3¼@4, but it was simply a spontaneous purchase by the trader, as the demand soon died, leaving the stock fractionally lower. Trading at 1.50 was recorded in Furnace Creek.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Interest centers in the butter market. The advanced price of 30 cents for local creamery was not announced officially yesterday, as some of the leading dealers had predicted. As a result of the manipulation, the butter market is uneven. Some dealers are asking 30 cents for local goods, while others hold to the 67½-cent quotation. Unsettled conditions are the general outcome of unannounced changes in the price.

EGGS—Are the active milk-producing period. Green feed and plenty of it is reported in all the valleys of the coast counties, and by steamer in a few weeks heavy shipments will come. The butter is excellent and is a strong competitor of the local product. Prices will decline at least 15 per cent., and then storing will be active, as refrigerator boxes are practically empty, the statistical position of butter is good, and the market seems in a position to absorb all offerings.

EGGS are unaltered. Northern candled are no longer quoted on 'Change. As there are never enough of the genuine local ranch eggs on the market to supply the demand, there is always room for real nonpareiling of offerings from other points. Northern candled are fully as good as locals and now sell as such, the one quotation serving for both.

Sweet potatoes have advanced to 2.00 per hundredweight. There was more of an eagerness to sell potatoes on 'Change yesterday than for several days. Arrivals were sixteen carloads, but the sales taken were carloads to meet the local demand, and eight carloads to satisfy the suburban trade; consequently, yesterday's arrivals were none too much.

Lettuce was firmer, at 1.00@1.25 per crate. Peas advanced to 4@5. Asparagus sold at 5c per pound.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 630 cases; butter, 12,728 lbs.; cheese, 2667 lbs.; potatoes, 4097 sacks; onions, 34 sacks; beans, 1 sack; sweet potatoes, none.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

(Exclusive service to THE TIMES by the Los Angeles Stock Brokerage Company, ground floor Citizens' National Bank Building. Quotations are guaranteed by the Western Union Telegraph Company.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—This has been a rather feverish day on the Mining Exchange. Selling orders predominated with few buying orders in sight, and although trading was light, prices seemed to sag easily. The situation in Goldfield is unchanged, the miners having reached no decision as yet. This morning the Citizens' Committee ordered all places of business closed. Several of the Goldfields broke badly at the close today; Jumbo Extension was down 20 points; St. Ives, 10; Daisy, 15; Great Bend, 10; Atlanta, 10; and Columbia Mountain, 7. The Bullfrogs, Manhattans and Tonopahs were quiet.
